To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen,
Bayliffs and Citizens of the City of Carlisle.

Most gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bayliffs and Citizens of the City of Carlisle, beg that your Majesty will be pleased to accept their Congratulations upon your Royal Nuptials: An Event which gives the greater Joy to your faithful Subjects, because your Majesty's unbounded Care for the Good of your People had left them nothing more to wish, than that your Majesty would give us a Queen, and that your constant Attention to the publick Weal might be alleviated and softened by the Sweets of domestic Felicity.

Your Majesty's prudent Choice of a Princess, possessed of every Virtue and Accomplishment that can endear Her to the best of Kings, hath completed the Happiness of your Subjects.

May your Majesty continue, through a long Course of Years, to be the Delight of your People; and may your Royal Issue transmit to Posterity these Blessings which we enjoy under your mild and auspicious Government.

Given under the Seal of the said Corporation, the nineteenth Day of November, in the Second Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Freeholders of the County of Inverness, has been presented to His Majesty by Lieutenant Colonel Frazer, their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Freeholders of the County of Inverness.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders of the County of Inverness-Shire, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most sincere and respectful Congratulations on Occasion of your Royal Nuptials. We are sensible of the many Advantages these Kingdoms must receive from a Queen distinguished by so many great and amiable Virtues, and descended from so illustrious a Line of Princes of the Protestant Religion.

With grateful Hearts we acknowledge your Majesty's Attention on this, as on every other Occasion to the Welfare of your People. With dutiful Zeal we rejoice in an Event so conducive to the Happiness of your Reign. And with fervent Wishes we pray, that a Union thus auspiciously begun may long continue; and that Heaven may grant a Succession of Princes of your Majesty's Royal House to perpetuate the Happiness your People now enjoy.

Normand Macleod, Praeses.
