

Liège, November 27. The 25th, the Regiment de la Couronne arrived here, and marched hence the next Day, when they were replaced by Briqueville. This Day Enghien marched into this Town; and we expect the Regiment of Lempes the 29th. These four Regiments return to France by Huy.

The 26th, our Prince set out from Seraign to pass the Winter at Passi near Paris. His Highness travels under the Name of the Marquis de Franchimont, having about sixty Persons in his Train.

The Prince of Soubize is expected here this Evening in his Way to Versailles; an Apartment is prepared for him in the Palace. M. de Chevert commands the Army during his Absence.

Hague, Dec. 4. Prince Ferdinaod's Head Quarters were still at Eimbeck on the 27th past; and the Guards and Highlanders were ordered into Winter Quarters; as it was expected the rest of the Army would likewise be very soon.

Letters from Magdebourg of the 25th say, that every Thing in Silefia, Saxony, and Pomerania, continued in the same Situation.

We have, indeed, a Report, that General Romanzow was drawing off his Troops from before Colberg; but we must wait for further Intelligence before we give entire Credit to it.
