

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday December 19, to Tuesday December 22, 1761.

St. James's, December 22.

THE following Address of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry and Clergy of the County of Nottingham, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir Samuel Gordon, High Sheriff of the County, accompanied by his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, Lord Lieutenant of the said County, the Duke of Rutland, the Duke of Kingston, Lord Howe, Lord Galloway; and Lord Robert Sutton and John Hewett, Esq; Representatives in Parliament for the County of Nottingham: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, and Clergy, of the County of Nottingham.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, and Clergy, of the County of Nottingham, beg Leave humbly to present our Congratulations to your Majesty, on your Marriage with a Princess, whose amiable and valuable Qualities promise the greatest Comforts to your Majesty, and Happiness to your People, who must ever, with grateful Hearts, remember your truly Paternal Attention to their Wishes and Welfare.

This, by adding the warmest Sentiments of Gratitude to the Dictates of true Loyalty, fills our Minds with a Sense of the Blessings we owe to your Majesty's Goodness, too great for Words to express; and leaves us nothing to wish and pray for, but that your Majesty may enjoy a long and happy Reign over a grateful and loyal People; and that we may never want one of your truly Illustrious Race to reign over us.

The following Address of the Freeholders and Heritors of the Shire of Haddington, has been presented to His Majesty by Andrew Fletcher, junior, Esq; their Representative in Parliament: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Freeholders and Heritors of the Shire of Haddington.

Most gracious Sovereign,

MAY it please your Majesty to accept the humble Address of the Freeholders and Heritors of the Shire of Haddington, who join most heartily with the rest of your Majesty's Subjects in the most dutiful Congratulations on the joyful Occasion of your Royal Nuptials, with a Protestant Princess so distinguished by personal Merit, and endued with every amiable Accomplishment: It is therefore with the highest Satisfaction we observe, that so happy an Union promises domestick Felicity to your Majesty, and to your Subjects the Blessings of a lasting Protestant Succession in your Royal Line.

May your Majesty long live, and reign blessed with your Royal Consort, and every dutiful Acknowledgment of a free and grateful People; that you may be the greatest of Princes, and the happiest of Men.

Signed by Appointment of the Meeting, the 23d of November, 1761.

James Hamilton, Præses.

The following Address of the Provost, Baillies, and Counsellors of the Town of Haddington, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir Hew Dalrymple,

Bart. Representative in Parliament for the said Town being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Provost, Baillies, and Counsellors, of the Town of Haddington.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Baillies, and Counsellors, of the Town of Haddington, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to express our unfeigned Joy, and to join with the Voice of the whole Nation, in our sincerest and warmest Congratulations on the Occasion of your Majesty's auspicious Nuptials with a Princess distinguished for Her amiable Endowments and eminent Virtues, as well as for Her Descent from an ancient and illustrious Family, firmly attached to the Protestant Religion, and to your Majesty's Royal House.

By this auspicious Union, a Prospect is opened to your Kingdoms, of perpetuating to Posterity the invaluable Blessings we enjoy.

May your conjugal and domestick Felicity be uninterrupted and encreasing; and may a Race of Princes descend from your Majesties, who shall inherit your Virtues, be the Guardians of our Civil and Sacred Liberties, Patrons of Religion, and Ornaments of the Crown they shall wear.

Signed in their Presence, and by their Appointment, by Ja. Lundie, Provost.
Haddington, Dec. 3, 1761.

The following Address of the Provost, Baillies, and Counsellors of the Town of Haddington, has been presented to the Queen by Sir Hew Dalrymple, Bart. Representative in Parliament for the said Town: Which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the Queen,
The humble Address of the Provost, Baillies and Counsellors of the Town of Haddington.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Baillies and Counsellors of the Town of Haddington, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to express our most unfeigned Joy on Account of your safe Arrival in these Kingdoms, and your auspicious Nuptials with our most August Sovereign, whose Personal Virtues and Princely Endowments must endear Him to your Majesty more than the Crown He wears.

May the mutual Felicity of the King and your Majesty be lasting and encreasing; and may ye reap the blessed Fruits of your Union, to the Joy of the present Age, and the lasting Happiness of Posterity.

Signed in their Presence, and by their Appointment, by Ja. Lundie, Provost.

The following Address of the Freeholders and Heritors of the Shire of Haddington, has been presented to the Queen by Andrew Fletcher, junior, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said County: Which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the Queen's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Freeholders and Heritors of the Shire of Haddington.

MAY it please your Majesty to accept the sincere and joyful Congratulations of the Freeholders