AT the Court at St. James's, the 14th Day of December, 1761.

P R E S E N T,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Twenty Second Day of July last, to promise and declare, (amongst other Things) That the Bounties of Five Pounds for every able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings for every ordinary Seaman, should be paid to every such able and ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Twelfth Day of September last, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships, or the Chief Officers on Board such Tenders as should be employed for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And that a Bounty of Thirty Shillings should be paid to every able bodied Landman not above the Age of Thirty Five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the said Twelfth Day of September, in like Manner voluntarily enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and that a Reward of Two Pounds for every able, and Thirty Shillings for every ordinary Seaman, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who should secret themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's said Service. And whereas the Time limited for paying the said Bounties and Rewards hath been extended to the Twelfth Day of this Instant December; And it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the same should be continued for some longer Time; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Rewards, be prolonged and extended from the said Twelfth Day of this Instant December, to the Thirty First Day of January next inclusive. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

Hen. Fane,

St. James's, December 29.

The following Address of the Mayor, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Borough of Wallingford in the County of Berks, has been presented to the Queen by John Hervey, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough: Which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the Queen's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Burgesses and Commonalty of the Borough of Wallingford in the County of Berks, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE the Mayor, Burgesses and Commonalty of the Borough of Wallingford, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your safe Arrival in these Kingdoms, and on your Nuptials with the King, our most Gracious Sovereign; a Monarch, whose acknowledged Virtues have already endeared Him to a grateful People, and joined with those singular Virtues and Endowments which center in your own Royal Person, (besides the Happiness that must accrue to the Nation from such an Union) cannot fail of proving an Ornament to the Marriage State.

Amidst the many Proofs, which His Majesty hath given of His Attention to the Welfare and Prosperity of His People, that of chusing for His Consort, a Protestant Princess, descended from an illustrious Race of Ancestors, who have ever distinguished themselves as the Friends of Civil and Religious Liberty, affords the greatest Satisfaction to His Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects; who, from such an Alliance, have Reason to promise themselves the Continuance of those Blessings, which they at present enjoy, under His Majesty's mild and auspicious Reign.

With Pleasure likewise we reflect, that the domestic Happiness of our Sovereign cannot but be improved by the Society of a Princess, whose excellent Accomplishments, both of Mind and Person, render Her capable of alleviating the Toils of State, at the same Time they add a Lustre to the Diadem She wears.

Most sincerely therefore do we join in the general Voice of Congratulation on this happy Occasion, beseeching the Almighty to preserve the Lives of your Majesty, and your Royal Consort our most August Sovereign. Long may you both live, an Example of true conjugal Felicity! And may these auspicious Nuptials be blessed with a numerous Progeny of Princes; that an Heir may never be wanting to inherit the Virtues, as well as the Crown of his illustrious Parents.

The following Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and others, of the County of Linlithgow, has been presented to the Queen by Charles Hope-Weir, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the said County: Which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the Queen's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and others of the County of Linlithgow.

PERMIT us to offer our most hearty and sincere Congratulations to your Majesty upon your happy Marriage to our most August and Gracious Sovereign, and to pour out our most ardent Wishes and Prayers, that your Majesties may be long preserved to be mutual Comforts to each other, and Blessings to your People; and that your shining and eminent Virtues may, with the Crown of these Realms, be transmitted in your Royal Progeny to the latest Posterity.

In Presence and by Appointment of the Meeting, Linkithgow, Dec. 8, 1761. Hopetoun, Præses.

The

The following Address of the Freeholders and Heretors of the County of Peebles, has been presented to the Queen by John Dickson, Esq; their Representative in Parliament: Which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the Queen's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Freeholders and Heretors of the County of Peebles.

May it please your Majesty,
WE His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, sincerely congratulate your Majesty on your safe Arrival in these Kingdoms, and your happy Marriage to our most Gracious Sovereign.

The many noble Endowments your Majesty possesses, in such an eminent Degree, justly entitles your Majesty to our highest Regard and Respect; but we want Words to express our deep Sense of Gratitude and Affection we owe to your Majesty, for the Addition of Happiness your Majesty has given to the best of Kings.

May your Majesty's mutual Happiness be as permanent and lasting, as the Joy, this happy Union gives, is universal; and that one of your Royal Descendants may ever fill the Throne of these Kingdoms, with equal Dignity, to the End of the World, are the earnest Wishes of your Majesty's most faithful Subjects.

Signed at Peebles, the Eighth Day of December, 1761, in Presence and by Appointment of the Meeting.
John Hay, Præses.

Magdebourg, Dec. 15. Letters of the 7th Instant, from Strehlen, give an Account of a Plot formed to surprize the King of Prussia in his Quarters; the Particulars of which are as follow:

A Silesian Gentleman, of the Name of Wargotsch, who has an Estate near Strehlen, came often to the Prussian Camp, where he was well received by the King of Prussia, and by the Officers. He informed himself, with great Exactness, of every Thing that passed in the Army, and particularly, of the Disposition made of the Troops in their Quarters of Cantonment; and, as the Country thereabout was well known to him, he formed a Project of surprizing his Prussian Majesty, in the Night of the 1st of December, which was to have been executed in this Manner: A small Body of resolute Cavalry were to penetrate, in the Night, into the Suburbs of Strehlen, where his Prussian Majesty lodged; to which they were immediately to set Fire; and, during the Confusion that this must necessarily occasion, to endeavour to seize and carry off the King of Prussia, which Wargotsch thought was very practicable, as the Quarters were, at that Time, but slightly guarded.

The whole Affair is reported to have been accidentally discovered by one of Wargotsch's own Servants, who had often been employed to carry Letters to a Popish Priest, in a neighbouring Village. These Letters were directed to an Austrian Lieutenant Colonel, and the Priest had the Care of transmitting them. The Servant, observing, when his Master gave him the last Letter, that he was uncommonly anxious about the safe Delivery of it, and appeared, to be in great Agitation of Mind, began to suspect that he was employed in a dangerous Service; however, he took the Letter, and promised to deliver it, as usual; but, instead of that, carried it directly to Strehlen, where he put it into the Hands of Monsieur de Crusemark, the Adjutant General, who immediately sent out two small Parties of Dragons to seize Wargotsch and the Priest, who were both made Prisoners, but escaped afterwards. The Trial of Wargotsch, who has been cited to appear, is actually carrying on before the Tribunal called the Ober Ampt, in Breslaw.

Hague, Dec. 25. We have no News from any Parts, except from Saxony, that both Prince Henry's and Marshal Daun's Armies were gone into Winter Quarters. The Fate of Colberg was still undecided.

St. James's, December 19, 1761.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that, about a Month ago, the Bones of a Man were dug up in a Garden, in Aylby de la Zouch, in the County of Leicester, late in the Possession of Richard Springthorpe, which appeared to have been those of a middle-sized Young Man, from the Admeasurement of them, and from the Teeth being all perfectly sound, and not one missing in the Skull; that, from some Flesh appearing on the said Bones, it is imagined the Man had been buried but a few Years; and, as no Person was missing in the Neighbourhood, it is supposed to have been a Stranger that was murdered: His Majesty, therefore, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice, any Person or Persons, concerned in the said Murder, is, hereby, pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person, who actually committed the said Murder) who shall discover his, or her, Accomplice, or Accomplices, in the said Crime, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

B U T E.

And, as a further Encouragement, Richard Yenn, and Thomas Knight, Church Wardens of Aylby de la Zouch, aforesaid, do, hereby, promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds to any Person or Persons, making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as above excepted) to be paid by them, upon Conviction of any one or more of the Criminals.
