His Majesty's
D E C L A R A T I O N
 Of WAR against the King of Spain.

G E O R G E R.

THE constant Object of Our Attention, since

sible, to put an End to the Calamities of War, and to settle the Publick Tranquillity upon a solid and lasting Foundation. To prevent those Calamities from being extended still farther; and because the most perfect Harmony between Great Britain and Spain is, at all Times, the mutual Interest of both Nations; it has been Our earnest Desire to maintain the strictest Amity with the King of Spain, and to accommodate the Disputes between Us and that Crown in the most amicable Manner. This Object We have steadily pursued, notwithstanding the many Partialities shewn by the Spaniards to Our Enemies the French, during the Course of the present War, inconsistent with their Neutrality: And most essential Proofs have been given of the Friendship and Regard of the Court of Great Britain for the King of Spain, and his Family. After a Conduct so friendly, and so full of good Faith, on our Part, It was Matter of great Surprise to Us, to find a Memorial delivered on the Twenty third Day of July last, by Monsieur Buffy, Minister Plenipotentiary of France, to one of Our Principal Secretaries of State, expressly relating to the Disputes between Us and the Crown of Spain; and Declaring, that, if Those Objects should bring on a War, the French King would be obliged to take Part therein. Our Surprise was increased, when, afterwards, this unprecedented and offensive Step, made by a Power in open War with Us, was avowed, by the Spanish Minister to Our Ambassador at Madrid, to have been taken with the full Approbation and Consent of the King of Spain. But, as this Avowal was accompanied with the most becoming Apologies on the Part of the King of Spain, and with Assurances, that such Memorial never would have been delivered, if it had been foreseen that We should have looked upon it in an offensive Light; and that the King of Spain was at Liberty, and ready, to adjust all His Differences with Great Britain, without the Intervention, or Knowledge, of France; and soon after, We had the Satisfaction to be informed by Our Ambassador at Madrid, that the Spanish Minister, taking Notice of the Reports industriously spread of an approaching Rupture, had acquainted Him, that the King of Spain had, at no Time, been more intent on cultivating a good Correspondence with Us; and as the Spanish Ambassador at Our Court made repeated Declarations to the same Effect; We thought Ourselves bound, in Justice and Prudence, to forbear coming to Extremities. But the same tender Concern for the Welfare of Our Subjects, which prevented Our accelerating precipitately a War with Spain, if it could possibly be avoided, made it necessary for Us to endeavour to know with Certainty, what were the Engagements, and real Intentions of the Court of Spain. Therefore, as We had Information, that Engagements had been lately contracted between the Courts of Madrid and Versailles; and it was soon after industriously spread throughout all Europe, by the Ministers of France, that the Purpose of those Engagements was Hostile to Great Britain, and that Spain was on the Point of entering into the War; We directed Our Ambassador to desire, in the most Friendly Terms, a Communication of the Treaties lately concluded between France and Spain; or of such Articles thereof as immediately related to the Interests of Great Britain, if any such there were; or, at least, an Assurance that there were none incompatible with the Friendship subsisting between Us and the Crown of Spain. Our Astonishment and Concern was great, when we learnt, that, so far from giving Satisfaction upon so reasonable an Application, the Spanish Minister had declined answering, with Reasonings, and Inferences, of a very hostile Tendency: And as, at the same Time, We had Intelligence, that great Armaments were making in Spain, by Sea and Land, We thought it absolutely necessary to try, once more, if a Rupture could be avoided: We therefore directed Our Ambassador to ask, in a Firm, but Friendly Manner, Whether the Court of Madrid intended to join the French, Our Enemies, to act hostily against Great Britain, or to depart from It's Neutrality; and, if he found the Spanish Minister avoided to give a clear Answer, to insinuate, in the most decent Manner, that the Refusing, or Avoiding to answer a Question so reasonable, could only arise from the King of Spain's having already engaged, or resolved to take Part against Us, and must be looked upon as an Avowal of such hostile Intention, and equivalent to a Declaration of War; and that He had Orders immediately to leave the Court of Madrid. The peremptory Refusal by the Court of Spain to give the least Satisfaction, with regard to any of those reasonable Demands on Our Part, and the solemn Declaration at the same Time made by the Spanish Minister, that they considered the War as then actually declared, prove to a Demonstration, that their Resolution to act offensively, was so absolutely and irrevocably taken, that It could not be any longer dissembled, or denied. The King of Spain therefore, having been induced, without any Provocation on Our Part, to consider the War as already commenced against Us, which has in Effect been declared at Madrid; We trust, that by the Blessing of Almighty God on the justice of Our Cause, and by the Assistance of Our Loving Subjects, We shall be able to defeat the ambitious Designs, which have formed this Union between the Two Branches of the House of Bourbon; have now begun a new War; and portend the most dangerous Consequences to all Europe. Therefore, We have thought fit to declare, and do hereby Declare War against the said King of Spain; and We will, in pursuance of such Declaration, vigorously prosecute the said War, wherein the Honour of Our Crown, the Welfare of Our Subjects, and the Prosperity of this Nation, which We are determined at all Times with Our utmost Power to preserve and support, are so greatly concerned. And we do hereby Will and Require Our Generals and Commanders of Our Forces, Our Commissioners for executing the Office of Our High Admiral of Great Britain, Our Lieutenants of Our several Counties, Governors of Our Forts and Garrisons, and all other Officers, and Soldiers, under them, by Sea and Land, to do, and execute, all Acts of Hostility, in the Prosecution of this War, against the said King of Spain, His Vassals and Subjects, and to oppose their Attempts; Willing and Requiring all Our Subjects to take Notice of the same; whom We henceforth strictly forbid to hold any Correspondence, or Communication, with the said King of Spain, or His Subjects: And We do hereby command Our own Subjects, and advertise all other Persons, of what Nation soever, not to transport, or carry any Soldiers, Arms, Powder, Ammunition, or other contraband Goods, to any of the Territories, Lands, Plantations, or Countries, of the said King of Spain; Declaring that whatsoever Ship or Vessel shall be met withal, transporting, or carrying any Soldiers, Arms, Powder, Ammunition, or other contraband Goods, to any of the Territories, Lands, Plantations, or Countries of the said King of Spain, the same being taken, shall be condemned as good and lawful Prize. And whereas there may be remaining in Our Kingdoms divers of the Subjects of the King of Spain, We do hereby declare Our Royal Intention to be, That all the Spanish Subjects, who shall demean themselves dutifully towards Us, shall be safe in their Persons and Effects.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Second Day of January, 1762, in the Second Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.
