From Tuesday January 12, to Saturday January 16, 1762.

By the KING,
A PROCLAMATION
For a General FAST.

GEORGE R.

WE, taking into Our most serious Consideration the just and necessary Wars in which We are engaged with the French King, and the Crown of Spain, and putting Our Trust in Almighty God, that He will vouchsafe a special Blessing on Our Arms both by Sea and Land, have resolved, and do, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, hereby Command, That a publick Fast and Humiliation be observed throughout that Part of Our Kingdom of Great Britain called England, Our Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, upon Friday the Twelfth Day of March next; that so both We and Our People may humble Ourselves before Almighty God, in order to obtain Pardon of Our Sins; and may, in the most devout and solemn Manner, send up Our Prayers and Supplications to the Divine Majesty, for averting those heavy Judgements, which Our manifold Sins and Provocations have most justly deserved, and imploring His Blessing and Assistance on Our Arms, and for restoring and perpetuating Peace, Safety, and Prosperity, to Us, and Our Kingdoms: And We do strictly Charge and Command, That the said publick Fast be reverently and devoutly observed by all Our loving Subjects in England, Our Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and would avoid His Wrath and Indignation; and upon Pain of such Punishment, as We may justly inflict on all such as contemn and neglect the Performance of so religious and necessary a Duty. And for the better and more orderly solemnizing the same, We have given Directions to the most Reverend the Archbishops, and the Right Reverend the Bishops of England, to compose a Form of Prayer, suitable to this Occasion, to be used in all Churches, Chapels, and Places of Publick Worship; and to take Care the same be timely dispersed throughout their respective Dioceses.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Second Day of January, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-two, in the Second Year of Our Reign.
GOD Save the KING.

By the KING,

For a General FAST.

GEORGE R.

WE, taking into Our most serious Consideration the just and necessary Wars in which We are engaged with the French King, and the Crown of Spain, and putting Our Trust in Almighty God, that He will vouchsafe a special Blessing on Our Arms both by Sea and Land, have resolved, and do, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, hereby Command, That a Publick Fast and Humiliation be observed throughout that Part of Our Kingdom of Great Britain called Scotland, on Thursday the Eleventh Day of March next; that so both We and Our People may humble Ourselves before Almighty God, in order to obtain Pardon of Our Sins; and may, in the most devout and solemn Manner, send up Our Prayers and Supplications to the Divine Majesty, for averting those heavy Judgements which Our manifold Sins and Provocations have most justly deserved, and imploring His Blessing and Assistance on Our Arms, and for restoring and perpetuating Peace, Safety, and Prosperity, to Us, and Our Kingdoms: And We do strictly Charge and Command, That the said Publick Fast be reverently and devoutly observed by all Our loving Subjects in Scotland, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and would avoid His Wrath and Indignation; and upon Pain of such Punishment, as We may justly inflict on all such as contemn and neglect the Performance of so religious and necessary a Duty. Our Will is therefore, and We charge, That incontinent this Our Proclamation seen, ye pass to the Market Cross of Edinburgh, and all other Places needful, and there, in Our Name and Authority, make Publication hereof, that none pretend Ignorance. And Our Will and Pleasure is, That Our Solicitor do cause printed Copies hereof to be sent to the Sheriffs of the several Shires, Stewarts of Stewarties, and Bailiffs of Regalities, and their Clerks, whom We ordain to see the same published; and We appoint them to send Doubles hereof to the several Paroch Kirks within their Bounds, that upon the Lord's Day immediately preceding the Day above-mentioned, the same may be published and read from the Pulpits, immediately after Divine Service.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Second Day of January, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-two, in the Second Year of Our Reign.
GOD Save the KING.

St. James's, January 2.

HIS Majesty in Council was this Day pleased to order, That a like Fast should be observed throughout His Kingdom of Ireland, upon Friday the Twelfth Day of March next, being the Day appointed for the Fast in England. And to that End, His Majesty hath thought proper to direct the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland to cause a Proclamation to be forthwith published in that Kingdom.

St. James's, January 16.

The following Address of the Governor and Council of the Bahama Islands in America, having been transmitted to the Earl of Egremont, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Governor and Council of the Bahama Islands in America.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Governor and Council of your Majesty's Colony of the Bahama Islands in America, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty, upon your happy Accession to the Crown of your British Dominions; an Event, which opens to us so fair a Prospect of its being productive, not only of the Felicity of your Majesty's own Subjects, but of the greatest Advantages for restoring the general Tranquility of Europe, that we have the utmost Reason to hope, it will compensate for the great Loss we sustained in the Decease of your Majesty's late
Royal

Royal Grandfather; whose Memory must, on Account of the many invaluable Blessings derived to His People from His good and glorious Reign, be for ever held in Veneration by them.

May the whole Period of your Majesty's Reign, which has been most auspiciously begun, amidst the Triumphs of the British Arms by Land and Sea, in every Quarter, to which the present War has extended; and the most joyful Acclamations of your Majesty's Subjects, be crowned with an uninterrupted Series of Prosperity; and may the British Sceptre, thus happily transmitted down to your Majesty by your Royal Ancestors, never depart from your Majesty's most Illustrious Family, but be continued in it to the remotest Ages of the British Annals.

*William Shirley, Governor.
John Gambier, P. C.*

The following Address of the Governour in Chief of the Leeward Caribbee Islands, and the Council of Antigua, having been transmitted to the Earl of Egremont, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To His most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Governour in Chief of the Leeward Caribbee Islands, and the Council of Antigua.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Governour in Chief of your Majesty's Leeward Caribbee Islands, and the Council of your Majesty's Island Antigua, beg Leave to present, with Hearts full of Joy, Satisfaction, and Gratitude, our warmest Congratulations on your Majesty's most auspicious Marriage; as among the various and repeated Instances of your Majesty's Concern for the Happiness of your People, and Prosperity of your Kingdoms, no one merits more the Thanks of your faithful Subjects.

The wisest and best of your Majesty's most Illustrious Ancestors have always thought it a Duty incumbent on them, to make the earliest Provision for the Inheritance of their Kingdoms: They thought the greatest Length of Days insufficient, the most glorious Reign incomplete, and the Blessings of each precarious to their People, unless they could transmit the same to Posterity, through an Issue, trained up in the same Principles of Liberty, and inspired with the same Love for their Country. It is with the highest Pleasure we observe your Majesty pursuing their great Example, and cannot sufficiently admire this fresh Instance of your Majesty's Wisdom in the Choice of a Princess, distinguished by such eminent Virtues and amiable Endowments, and whose Illustrious Line has constantly shewn the firmest Zeal for the Protestant Religion, and a particular Attachment to your Majesty's Family. With such a Consort your Majesty and your People must be happy; and may Heaven render that Happiness stable and permanent to Posterity, by a numerous and glorious Issue, Heirs to your Majesty's Virtues, as well as Dominions.

Council-Chamber, Nov. 5, 1761.

The following Address of the General Assembly of the Island Antigua, having been transmitted to the Earl of Egremont, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the General Assembly of your Majesty's Island Antigua.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your loyal Subjects, the Representatives of your Majesty's Island Antigua, met in General Assembly, quickened by a Sense of Duty, and warmed with every Sentiment of Gratitude, humbly beg Leave to offer our sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's Nuptials with a Protestant Princess of the Ancient and Noble House of Mecklenburgh.

An Event, so happy to your Majesty, and so interesting to your Kingdoms, fills every Heart with the liveliest Emotions of Joy.

Matter of unspeakable Pleasure it has been to every Honest Briton, in revolving in his Thoughts the History of the British Kings, to have perceived your Majesty's Reign open at the most shining Page of the English Annals; to have discovered no Period more fruitful of great Events; to have seen no Time when Measures, planned with consummate Prudence, and executed with the greatest Bravery, have been so quickened by the animating Spirit of a Patriot King: But what Joy must now expand every Heart, when it pleases Heaven to continue pouring its Blessings on your Majesty, and adding to its Bounty by bestowing on your Majesty a Royal Consort, in whom every Grace, and every Virtue unite, that can adorn and dignify human Nature, and reflect Lustre on a Crown.

Your Majesty, ever anxious for the Welfare of your People, not satisfied to lay out your own invaluable Life in unwearied Labours, to make them happy in your own Times, hath, with a more enlarged Benevolence, extended your Views to future Generations, and with Paternal Care provided for their Happiness, by a Marriage, that strengthens the Protestant Interest, and disappoints the Views of a Popish Pretender, in securing the Succession to your Crown in a Protestant Line.

May Heaven, from this auspicious Union, make your Majesty the happy Father of a numerous and virtuous Progeny: May you live to form, by the striking Force of your Royal Example, their Minds to the Principles of Truth, Religion, and Liberty; and with Pleasure see the Dawn, even in your own Days, of that Happiness, that your Successor is to communicate to your People, when you shall be no more.

And when the Day shall come (but be that a far, very far distant Day) when your Majesty, having lived long enough for Nature, and for Glory, shall go down full of Days to the Grave, may your Royal Issue, the undoubted Heir of your Virtues, ascend the Throne of Britain with Glory; sway the Sceptre of His Ancestors; and transmit their Patriot Virtues, in the Illustrious Line of Hanover, to late Posterity.

Leicester House, January 16.

The following Address of the Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, Grand Juries, and Freeholders of the County of Westmorland, has been presented to her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales, by Sir James Lowther, Bart. and John Upton, Esqs. their Representatives in Parliament: Which Address her Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously.

To her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales,

The humble Address of the Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, Grand Juries and Freeholders of the County of Westmorland, at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace at Appleby, assembled on Monday the 5th Day of October, and at Kendal, on Friday the 9th Day of October, 1761.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, Grand Juries and Freeholders of the County of Westmorland, desire Leave to present to your Royal Highness our sincere Congratulations upon the Marriage of your Illustrious Offspring, our most gracious Sovereign. The exquisite Sensations of a Royal Parent, upon this great Occasion, we cannot feel; but, as dutiful and loyal Subjects to His Majesty, we are penetrated with the deepest Sense of the many Blessings derived to your August Family, and to these Kingdoms, from the happy Union. We owe, and humbly offer our sincerest Acknowledgments to your Royal Highness, who formed the Royal Mind in its Infancy, and reared with a fostering Hand those tender Virtues, which, now grown to full Maturity, adorn the Throne, glad the Nation, and intice the Happiness of us and our latest Posterity.
