AT the Court at St. James's, the 14th Day of December, 1761,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty, in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Twenty Second Day of July last, to promise and declare, (amongst other Things) That the Bounties of Five Pounds for every able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings for every ordinary Seaman, should be paid to every such able and ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Twelfth Day of September last, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships, or the Chief Officers on Board such Tenders as should be employed for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And that a Bounty of Thirty Shillings should be paid to every able bodied Landman not above the Age of Thirty Five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the said Twelfth Day of September, in like Manner voluntarily enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and that a Reward of Two Pounds for every able, and Thirty Shillings for every ordinary Seaman, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who should secret themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's said Service. And whereas the Time limited for paying the said Bounties and Rewards hath been extended to the Twelfth Day of this Instant December; And it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the same should be continued for some longer Time; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Rewards, be prolonged and extended from the said Twelfth Day of this Instant December, to the Thirty First Day of January next inclusive. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

St. James's, January 23.

The following Address of the Chancellor, Principal, Professors and Regents of the University and Kings College in Old Aberdeen, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Hon. James Stewart Mackenzie, Esq; being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Chancellor, Principal, Professors and Regents of the University and Kings College in Old Aberdeen.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Principal, Professors and Regents of the University and Kings College in Old Aberdeen, presume to offer to your Majesty our most joyful Congratulations on Account of your Royal Nuptials with a Princess descended from an illustrious House zealously attached to the Protestant Religion; the Fame of whose eminent Virtues, and amiable Endowments, is now spread to the remotest Parts of your Majesty's Dominions. We ardently pray for the uninterrupted Continuance of your Majesty's Conjugal Felicity, and that a Race of Princes may descend from this Union, who may inherit all your Virtues.

Being the most Northern Seminary of Learning in Britain, we do solemnly assure your Majesty, that we will conscientiously and attentively endeavour to infill into the Minds of your young Subjects, in this Part of the Kingdom, the deepest Sense of their Duty to your Majesty, and of the Happiness that will result to them and their Offspring from the Duration and Stability of your Royal Family, who have always been faithful Guardians of our Civil and Sacred Liberties. We will set before them your Majesty's Royal Example, as a Pattern of Virtue and of Religion; and with one Voice we will pray, that your Royal Descendants may rule as wisely as you do, to the latest Posterity.

Signed in Name of the University by Delsford, Chancellor.
