Buller, Major Buller, Sir J. St. Aubyn, Mr. Parker, Mr. Hunt, Mr. Trevanion, Mr. Harris, Lieutenant General Boscawen, Major General Boscawen, Mr. Hufley, Mr. Graves, Mr. Godolphin, Mr. Praed, Mr.

George Boscawen, and Mr. Jones, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Derby, beg Leave, with the warmest Sentiments of Duty and Affection, to present our sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's Auspicious Nuptials.

On this Occasion we cannot but entertain a grateful Sense of your Majesty's Paternal Attention to the Welfare of your People, in so early making Choice of a Princess, whose Merit and amiable Disposition are univ:rsally acknowledged; and we feel the strongest Impressions of Joy, when we reflect on this propitious Union, as being so perfectly agreeable to your Majesty's own Royal Inclinations.

As You, Sir, have the peculiar Glory to be the Head of a Constitution that dispenses Liberty and Happiness to the British Isles, and to reign in the Hearts of a loyal, brave and united People; as you have the Satisfaction to see the Fame and Success of your Arms spread over the known World, whilst your Kingdoms at Home, free from the Calamities of War, abound in Riches and Plenty, and all the Liberal Arts of Peace smile and flourish within their Borders.

So may your Majesty be happy in the Possession of every Blessing that can further promote, strengthen and compleat your domestic Felicity: May you see a numerous Issue become, under your Majesty's directing Eye, as eminent for their Conduct and Accomplishments, as they will be distinguished by the Dignity of their Stations; and may you, Royal Sir, be long continued to your faithful Subjects a bright Example of every private as well as every publick Virtue.

The following Address of the Provost, Baillies, and Council of the Burrow of Annan, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Hon. Thomas Miller, Esq; Lord Advocate for Scotland, and Representative in Parliament for the said Burrow, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Baillies, and Council of the Burrow of Annan.

WE your Majesty's most faithful Subjects, the Provost, Baillies, and Counsellors of the Burrow of Annan, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave,

Leave, by this humble Address, to tender our most sincere Congratulations upon the happy Event of your Majesty's Nuptials with a Princess eminently endowed with all those Virtues, which give Dignity to the most exalted Station.

We consider this important Event, as ascertaining to your faithful Subjects the Virtue of your own Disposition, and the Motives by which you are directed in every Thing which concerns their Happiness.

We consider it as an Event, promising to Posterity the inestimable Blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's happy Government. And we pray, that the same good Providence, which has raised your Majesty to the Throne of these Kingdoms, may transmit and perpetuate, in your Posterity, the Wisdom, Virtue, and Spirit of that Administration, which unites the Hearts of your faithful People in the warmest Feelings of Gratitude and Joy.

Signed in our Presence by John Johnstone, Provost.

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Carnarvon, has been presented to the Queen by Sir John Wynne, Bart. Representative in Parliament for the Borough of Carnarvon: Which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the Queen,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Carnarvon.

Madam,

WE beg Leave to express, in your Royal Presence, how much we felicitate your Majesty's Alliance and Coronation with the greatest and best of Sovereigns.

His Majesty's wife Choice of a Royal Consort, adorned with every Virtue, with every Attainment, good, and amiable, plainly testifies His great Care, not only to preserve to us, but to transmit unfaded to Posterity, the Laurels and Triumphs of His Reign.

We wish, with the honest Ardour and Sincerity of Old Britons, that your Majesty may ever be a Stranger to the Anxieties that often encircle a Crown, and that you may be the happy Mother of a Race of Princes, formed from Parental Examples, to be the Guardians of our Liberties, and the Fathers of their Country.

Magdebourg, Jan. 9. General Platen was expected at Leipzig as this Day, with the Corps under his Command.

Magdebourg, Jan. 12. Prince Henry came to Leipzig on the 8th Instant; and after settling with General Platen the Quarters assigned to the Corps, which that General led into Saxony, the Prince returned, on the 11th, to Hoff, where the Head Quarter is established.

M. Vereist, Envoy Extraordinary from the States General, arrived here last Night from Berlin, in his Way to Holland.

Cologne, Jan. 11. The three Military Hospitals, fixed here last Summer, still subsist; and though we have at present very few sick, yet we have a great Number of Physicians and Surgeons, who have been this Month, for the first Time, paid in Paper Money called Obligations current as Money. The Money formerly sent to the Treasurers of the French Army was Louis, d'Ors and Crowns; but they now send only twenty-five, twelve and a half, eight, and four Sol's Pieces.

Cologne, Jan. 15. All the Foreign Troops in the French Service have received Orders to compleat their Regiments by the first of April; but the Scarcity of Men, and the Trifle they offer for engaging Soldiers, make the Recruiting in these Countries very slow and unsuccessful.

Liege, Jan. 10. On the Arrival of a Courier from Stockem, with the News that they had withdrawn the Bridge to the Right of the Maese, on hearing the Corps of M. Donceel was advanced to Wert, our Commandant immediately ordered twelve Men per Company of Roial Roussillon to march from Houssiel; the Regiment of Roial Contabres from Ruremond, and detached an hundred Militia from hence, to assist in driving out M. Donceel; but, on Examination, it proved a false Alarm, and none but the Militia marched on this Expedition.

Bonn, Jan. 11. His Electoral Highness has just now published an Order in regard to the bad Money that appears in these Countries; by which that of Wirtemberg, Anspach, Nassau Weilbourg, Oetting, Bavaria, Weid, Deux Ponts, Saltzbourg, and Nuremberg, are reduced to one Half of their former Value. The Town of Cologne has also reduced the Money of the King of Prussia.

Homburgh, Jan. 12. By Advices from Saxony we learn, that his Royal Highness Prince Henry of Prussia has changed his former Position, and is now at Hoff near Oschatz.

We are informed, that upon the Prince of Wurtemberg's having entered the Duchy of Mecklenbourg Schwerin, the Duke is returned to Lubeck, and has ordered his Mint to be transported to Eutin in Ducal Holstein. The Prince of Wurtemberg's Head Quarters were to be, as to Day, at Rostock, and those of Colonel Belling are already at Gustrow.

Ruremond, Jan. 6. The Regiment of Roial Cantabres, that marched hence last Week, as well as the Cavalry from Munster Bilsen, and the Militia from Liege, have received Orders to return to their respective Quarters, as the Report spread of a Body of Hanoverians appearing in the Campine, proves false.
