St. James's, February 2.

The following Address of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Chester, has been presented to His Majesty; Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County Palatine of Chester.

BE pleased, most gracious Sovereign, to accept, from your loyal County Palatine of Chester, the due Tribute of our Joy on your Majesty's Royal Nuptials; an Occasion that warms the Zeal of all your Kingdoms, and raises the Emulation of all your faithful Subjects, who shall appear most joyfully affected by so important an Event.

The Royal Partner of your Throne ascends it, recommended to Britons by the greatest of all human Sanctions, the deliberate Approbation of a British Sovereign, whose glorious Reign began with Constitutional Attention to our happy Establishment in Church and State, and whose Choice of a Royal Consort, so illustrious for every Accomplishment of Character and Conduct, as well as Her Protestant Attachments, confirms to us the joyful Hopes of a Protestant Succession to the Imperial Crown, your Majesty now wears with so much Dignity and Lustre.

As your Majesty, through the Favour of Providence, found these Kingdoms remarkably distinguished by the Wisdom of Council, the full Prosperity of Commerce, the Triumph of British Forces by Land and Sea, and the increasing Glory of new Acquisitions to your Royal Power, we rejoice to congratulate your Majesty on your Prospect also of domestic Happiness with a Consort, who seems designed to alleviate the arduous Weight of Government, and crown your Majesty, amidst the united Affection of the Public, with the Blessings of private Harmony and Peace.

In this joyful Era of the Annals of Great Britain, we should be wanting in our Duty to our Patriot King, if we did not join in Supplication to the Throne of Grace, that your Majesties may long reign, not only the happy Parents of a truly British Offspring, but also in the Hearts and Affections of
