Hamburg, Feb. 9. According to Letters received Yesterday from Berlin, we have Advice, that the Russian General Czernichef had received Orders to quit Silesia with the Corps of Troops under his Command, and to return into Poland; and as he would probably meet with a Scarcity of Provision in passing through Upper Silesia, it is added, that he takes his March by the Way of Moravia.

The King of Prussia has named Count de Schwerin to go to Peterbourg to congratulate the Grand Duke upon his Accession to the Russian Empire.

We hear from Berlin, that Orders had been given by the King of Prussia for releasing all the Russian Prisoners without Ransom; and that a Cessation of Hostilities had been settled between the Russian and Prussian Forces in Pomerania.

Admiralty Office, February 19.

Captain Hotham, of His Majesty's Ship Aeolus, gives an Account, in his Letter dated in Plymouth Sound the 16th Instant, that during his late Cruise off Cape Finisterre, he took two French Privateers, one called the Perrier of Six Guns and 80 Men, the other the Esperance of Six Guns and 60 Men, both belonging to Bayonne, the former of which he carried into Lisbon some Time ago, and the latter he has brought in with him to Plymouth; and that he retook an English Ship from Jamaica, called the Hungerford, which he parted from the 15th Instant, she not being able to fetch into Plymouth Sound.

Admiralty Office, February 20.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Harrison, Commander of His Majesty's Ship the Venus, to Mr. Cleveland, dated the 13th of February, 1762.

On Thursday, the 11th Instant, Cape Ortugal bearing S. S. E. distant 2 Miles, I fell in with, in the Night, the Creole French Privateer, belonging to Bayonne, of Eight Four Pounders and 84 Men, who sailed that Evening from the Groyne, where she had been to clean and rest near Three Weeks. There were on Board her three Dutchmen Passengers, and One English Prisoner, who says there are Twelve Spanish Men of War in Ferrol, Four of which are almost ready for Sea; that Two Venetian Ships, One of 60, the other a Frigate, had arrived a few Weeks before with Men, in order to man the Fleet; that the Remainder of them was not now half mann'd, but rigged, except Two, who were in the Docks repairing. That the Spanish Men of Wars Boats were every Day at the Groyne pressing for Men; and that Orders were sent all round the Country for the bringing in of Men. They also add, that Two French Men of War, One of 60, the other of 64, who came from the River Vilaine, some Time since sailed last Week for Brett, as was thought, not being in fit Condition for a Voyage. The French Squadron has never been at or near Ferrol. They are raising what Troops they can in Galicia, but at present have not more than 4000 Men quartered near Ferrol, &c. As they imagine there are many English Ships detained in the Groyne, with their Rudders and Sails on Shore, but the Men have Leave to remain on Board, I have dispatched the Privateer with this Intelligence, as she sails well, and hope she will arrive safe.
