St. James's, February 23.

The following Address of the Lieutenant Governor, the Council, and the General Assembly of the Colony of New York, having been transmitted to the Earl of Egremont, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lieutenant Governor, the Council, and the General Assembly of the Colony of New York.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's Lieutenant Governor, the Council, and the General Assembly for the Colony of New York, happy in an Opportunity of testifying the Ardour and Sincerity of our Loyalty and Affection to the best of Kings, beg Leave to join in the joyful Acclamations of your faithful People, and to offer our most respectful Congratulations on your auspicious Nuptials.

Though placed at a Distance from your Sacred Presence, we eminently share the distinguished Blessings of your glorious Reign, and sensibly feel the Influences of your Wisdom and Magnanimity, in the exalted State of Honour and Grandeur to which your Kingdoms and Colonies are advanced.

It is our peculiar Felicity to see, subjected to your Dominion, by a Series of splendid Victories, a perfidious rapacious Neighbour, who long meditated our total Extirpation; and we can never reflect on this interesting Event, without being warmed with the most lively and indelible Sentiments of Love and Gratitude to your Majesty, and our late most gracious Sovereign, whose Paternal Protection, so bountifully and gloriously exerted, has, with the Divine Favour, rescued us from impending Ruin, and established us in triumphant Security.

Nor are we less sensible of the diffusive Blessings derived to us from your Illustrious House, in an equal Participation of the Rights and Privileges of a free and happy People, under a Succession of Kings, who have made it their Glory and Delight to sway the Sceptre, agreeable to the wise and lenient Frame of the British Constitution, and to reign in the Hearts of their Subjects, by making their Well-being and Prosperity the chief Object of Royal Care.

Our Happiness and our Gratitude could only be increased by this recent Proof of your Majesty's Attention to the Publick Welfare, in providing for its future Stability and Security, by crowning, with the Lustre of your Diadem, an amiable Princess, graced with Accomplishments worthy the Affections of so August a Monarch, and the most cordial Re- verence and Esteem of a loyal People.

From this happy Union, with the highest Satisfac- tion, we contemplate the pleasing Prospect of a Race of Princes, who like your Majesty, will bless and adorn your Kingdoms and Colonies to the latest Ages; and we devoutly implore Divine Goodness to perpetuate to your Majesty and your Royal Consort, in the most perfect and consummate Degree, every Publick and Domestick Felicity.

May it please your Majesty to permit us to add our zealous Assurances of the most inviolable Attach- ment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Govern- ment, and that it shall be our constant Endeavour, to preserve and maintain that firm Spirit of Loyalty and Obedience, which so happily and universally prevails in this your faithful Colony.

City of New York, Cadwallader Colden.
