Petersbourg, January 30.

ON Thursday last the Emperor went, for the first Time, in State, to the Senate, and did there declare the Russian Nobility and Gentry free, and upon a Footing with those of their Rank in the other Kingdoms of Europe; with Liberty to serve or not, at their own Choice; and with this only Restraint, that they shall not enter into the Service of any Foreign Power, without the Permission of their Sovereign. When this was over, his Imperial Majesty made an irrevocable Pragmatick Sanction, by which the Price of Salt is reduced to Twenty-five Copecks the Pudd, and fixed to that Price for ever. This will make a considerable Diminution of the Revenue; but nothing could have been done so much for the Ease and Relief of the poorer Sort of People. The 25th of next Month is the Day fixed for going into deep Mourning for the Empress, whose Body still lies in State; and, it is said, she will be buried some Day in the Beginning of February, with great Pomp and Magnificence. The Georgian Prince Thameyras died here about ten Days since. His Body is to be carried to his own Country. Marshal Count Peter Schuwalow is to be buried on Monday next with the Honours of a Feldt Marshal and Master of the Ordnance. General Czernichew, being recalled from Silesia, is expected here in a few Days.

Warsaw, Jan. 30. The King of Poland has been, for these few Days past, confined to his Chamber with a Cold, and a Swelling in his Leg; but his Majesty is now much better, and has this Day, for the first Time, appeared again in Publick.

Magdeburg, Feb. 12. The Russian Prisoners, to the Number of 300 Men, and 25 Officers, set out from hence, three Days ago, for Stertin; and Orders are given to provide them with all Necessaries on the Road.

His Prussian Majesty has named one of his Adjutants, Baron Goltz, to carry his Compliments of Congratulation to the Emperor and Empress of Russia.

Hamburg, Feb. 12. The Prince Royal of Prussia is expected the 14th Instant at Berlin, from Magdeburg, in his Way to join the King of Prussia at Breslaw, as his Royal Highness is to make this next Campaign.

Count de Hordt and General Werner, two Prussian Generals, Prisoners at Petersbourg, released by the Emperor, are upon the Road on their Return to Berlin from Petersbourg.

All the young Prussian Cadets, which the Russians carried off from Berlin, when they made themselves Masters of that Capital, are expected back from Konigsberg.

We have received Intelligence, that all Hostilities have ceased, since the 11 Instant, between the Prussian and Russian Armies.

St. James's, February 26.

This Day Hussein Bey, Ambassador from Tripoly, had an Audience of Leave of His Majesty.

To which he was introduced by the Right Honorable the Earl of Egremont, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Stephen Cotrell, Esq; Assistant Master of the Ceremonies.
