

Brixham Quay, within the Parish of Brixham in the said County of Devon; but before the same could be removed, a Gang of Smuglers, to the Number of Ten or Twelve, or thereabouts, armed with Clubs or Bludgeons, by Force and Violence rescued the said Tea so loaded upon the Horses, and carried away the same. And whereas in the Evening of the same Day, between the Hours of Six and Seven, a Room in the House of the said John Goodridge, where the first mentioned Parcel of Tea had been deposited for safe Custody, was broke open by another Gang of Smuglers, having their Faces disguised, and streaked with divers Colours, who likewise rescued and took away all the said Tea: His Majesty for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Crimes above-mentioned, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of the said Offenders who shall discover any one or more of his Accomplices therein, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

EGREMONT.

And as a farther Encouragement, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds to any Person who shall discover any one or more of the Offenders, so that he, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. Wm. Wood.

General Post Office, March 13, 1762.

Whereas the Post Boy bringing the Mail between Newcastle and Durham, on Friday, the 26th of February last, had the Misfortune to overturn his Mail Carriage in Birtley Lane, between the Hours of Ten and Eleven o'Clock at Night; and during the Time of his Absence in seeking Assistance to get up the said Carriage, he found upon his Return to the Place, where the Accident happened, that the Newcastle Bag (containing the Berwick, Belford, Alnwick and Morpeth Bags, with the Bye-Bag from the North for Burroughbridge) was taken away from the said Carriage, by a Person or Persons unknown; and notwithstanding all possible Search and Inquiry has been made after the said Bag, and a Reward offered for restoring it to either the Post-master of Newcastle or Durham, the same is still missing; This is therefore to give Notice, that whoever will discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, the Person or Persons who stole and carried off the said large Leathern Bag, containing the several Bags before-mentioned, such Discoverer will, upon Conviction of the Party or Parties, be intitled to a Reward of Fifty Pounds.

By Command of the Post-master General,
Hen. Potts, Secretary.
