

in the Event. May the Love of a grateful People; may all the tender Endearments of Domestick Felicity, become the pleasing Reward, as they are the natural Consequences, of your Majesty's prudent Cares!

Nor is such a mature Deliberation less honourable to the happy Princess, our Sovereign's amiable Comfort. Defended from an illustrious House, ever firm to the Protestant Religion, Her superior Merit has attained, amidst a fair Choice, a more Noble, a more flattering Distinction; it has called Her forth to participate and to adorn so exalted, so delightful a Situation.

That Stability may be added to Happiness and Grandeur, is all that is left for the Object of our Wishes: Except; forgive, Sir, the partial Exception! that your Majesty may receive, with gracious Favour from this distant Country, the sincere Declarations of our fervent Zeal for your Service, and of our inviolable Attachment to your Royal Person.

We are,

Your Majesty's most Loyal, most Dutiful, and most Faithful Subjects and Servants.
