

Brunswick, March 19. Their Serene Highnesses Prince Ferdinand, the Hereditary Prince, and Prince Frederick, set out from hence this Morning for Hildesheim.

Admiralty Office, March 29.

His Majesty's Ship the Brilliant, commanded by Captain Loggie, being on a Cruize, on the 22d Instant, the Lizard bearing N. N. W. Distance 10 Leagues, after a Chace of three Hours, took the Esperance, a Snow Privatier belonging to St. Malo, of Six Carriage and Six Swivel Guns, with 66 Men, and has brought her into Plymouth. She had been out only three Days, and had not taken any Thing.

Whitehall, March 23, 1762.

Whereas on Saturday the 9th Day of January last, between the Hours of Nine and Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon, a Seizure of about 600 Weight of Tea was made at the House of Richard Cary at Collaton, in the Parish of Paington in the County of Devon, by Henry Mugford, and three other Officers of the Customs, belonging to the Port of Dartmouth within the said County, together with a Constable; which Tea was removed by the said Officers, to the House of one John Goodridge of Collaton aforesaid: And whereas, on the same Day another Seizure was made by the same Officers, of near 800 Weight of Tea, in a Barn belonging to one Nicholas Berry, in the said Parish of Paington, which last mentioned Tea the said Officers loaded on three Horses, in order to its being conveyed to Collaton aforesaid, and from thence, with the first mentioned Parcel of Tea, to have conveyed the Whole to the King's Warehouse at Brixham Quay, within the Parish of Brixham in the said County of Devon; but before the same could be removed, a Gang of Smuglers, to the Number of Ten or Twelve, or thereabouts, armed with Clubs or Bludgeons, by Force and Violence rescued the said Tea so loaded upon the Horses, and carried away the same. And whereas in the Evening of the same Day, between the Hours of Six and Seven, a Room in the House of the said John Goodridge, where the first mentioned Parcel of Tea had been deposited for safe Custody, was broke open by another Gang of Smuglers, having their Faces disguised, and streaked with divers Colours, who likewise rescued and took away all the said Tea: His Majesty for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Crimes above-mentioned, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of the said Offenders who shall discover any one or more of his Accomplishes therein, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

EGREMONT.

And as a farther Encouragement, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds to any Person who shall discover any one or more of the Offenders, so that he, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. Wm. Wood.

General Post Office, London, February 5, 1762.

Publick Notice is hereby given to all Persons corresponding with His Majesty's Island of Bellisle, that Letters, for the Future, will be regularly forwarded, from Plymouth, to and from that Island, by two Vessels lately hired and appointed for that Purpose.

By Command of the Post-master General,
Hen. Potts, Secretary.

General Post Office, March 13, 1762.

Whereas the Post Boy bringing the Mail between Newcastle and Durham, on Friday the 26th of February last, had the Misfortune to overturn his Mail Carriage in Birtley Lane, between the Hours of Ten and Eleven o'Clock at Night; and during the Time of his Absence in seeking Assistance to get up the said Carriage, he found upon his Return to the Place, where the Accident happened, that the Newcastle Bag (containing the Berwick, Belford, Alnwick and Morpeth Bags, with the Eye-Bag from the North for Burroughbridge) was taken away from the said Carriage, by a Person or Persons unknown; and notwithstanding all possible Search and Inquiry has been made after the said Bag, and a Reward offered for restoring it to either the Post-master of Newcastle or Durham, the same is still missing; This is therefore to give Notice, that whoever will discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, the Person or Persons who stole and carried off the said large Leather Bag, containing the several Bags before-mentioned, such Discoverer will, upon Conviction of the Party or Parties, be intitled to a Reward of Fifty Pounds.

By Command of the Post-master General,
Hen. Potts, Secretary.

Navy Office, March 23, 1762.

The Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy give Notice, that all Bills registered on the Course of the Navy in the Month of March 1761, are ordered to be paid, near One Third thereof in Money, and the Remainder in Exchequer Bills: And such Persons as are possessed of Bills, are desired to bring them to this Office to be assigned on the Treasurer of the Navy for Payment accordingly.

Victualling Office, March 24, 1762.

The Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that there are in the Hands of the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, Money and Exchequer Bills, for paying all Bills registered on the Course of the Victualling for the Month of March 1761, that the Proprietors, or such Persons as are legally empowered to receive the same, may bring them to this Office, upon which they will be ordered to be satisfied accordingly.

N. B. The Interest on the Victualling Bills ceased Yesterday, and the Interest on the Exchequer Bills commences this Day.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Company of His Majesty's Ships the Melampe, Maidstone, and Grace Cutter; that they will be paid their respective Shares of the Prize Money due to them for the Hull of the Le Dange French Privateer, on Board the said Ships in the Downs, on the 10th of April next, in Case the Ships are then there, if not, on their Arrival. And at the same Time will be paid the respective Shares of the Head Money due to the Officers and Men that composed the four open Boats under the Command of Lieutenant John M' Bride, who cut out the said Privateer from Dunkirk Road on the 23d of August 1761: And the Shares not then demanded will be paid the first Tuesday in every Month for three Years to come, at the Office of the Naval Officer at Deal.
