Marriage with a Princels of Illustrious Birth and most amiable Qualities. Attached to your Majesty by Affection as well as Duty, we rejoice in every Circumstance which can add to your Satisfaction. Sensible of the Felicity which we ourselves have enjoyed under your Majesty's gracious Government, we could form no better Wish for our Posterity, than that the same Bleffings might be transmitted to them, and that they too might live under Kings, who fear God and love their People. To your Majesty's tender Concern for the Welfare of your Subjects, we are now indebted for the Prospect of having this Wish compleated; and distant Ages, we trust, shall enjoy Liberty and Happiness under the mild Administration of your Descendants. While we express our own Gratitude and Joy, permit us to add, that the same dutiful and loyal Sentiments animate all the Members of this National Church. Our daily Intercourse with our People affords us the best Opportunity of knowing their Sense of the Blessings which they enjoy. It is with peculiar Satisfaction we assure your Majesty, that as they participate of the same Advantages with the Rest of your Subjects, they yield to none of them in Attachment to their gracious Sovereign, and in Veneration for that wife Constitution, from which they derive their present Happiness; and if your Majesty, in the Course of this War, which your Enemies, blinded with Envy and Ambition, have prolonged and extended, shall find it proper to call your Suljests, in this Part of the united Kingdom, to defend your Sacred Person, their Religion, and Liberties, they will embrace the Opportunity with Ardour, and will act, we doubt not, with the Spirit becoming a free and loyal People. That Almighty God may take you under His gracious Tuition; that He may give Prosperity to your Administration, and Success to your Arms; that He may bless you with Domestick Comfort to footh and alleviate the Cares of Government; and that our most gracious King and Queen may be long preserved to bless the People, and to serve as Patterns and Protectors of Piety and Virtue, are the sincere and fervent Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal Subjects,

The Ministers and Elders met in the Commission of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by

Extract of a Letter from Lieutenant Nash, of His Majesty's Ship the Milford, to Mr. Clevland. Dated at Sea the 10th of March, 1762, and fince arrived at Plymouth.

I beg you will be pleased to acquaint their Lordships of our seeing a Sail on Sunday the 7th Instant, at Ten in the Morning, which we came up with at Ten at Night, and engaged in Latitude 34° 15' N. and Longitude 15° 7' W. from the Meridian of London. We had the Misfortune to have Capt. Man shot through the Right Thigh, at the Beginning of the Engagement, with a Six Pound Ball: He expired about Three on Monday Morning. Mr. Day, First Lieutenant, received a Musquet Ball in the Middle of his Forehead, about Half past Eleven, which he died of on Wednesday Morning, being most of the Time delirious. I received some slight Wounds, about Half past Two on Monday Morning, thwart my Eyes, Face, and Hands, by a Wad and Half an Hour after, the Enemy struck, Splinters. with the Lofs of her Main and Mizen Masts, and Fore Top-mast. She proved to be the Glory, a Letter of Marque, Jean Raboteau, Master, from Passage near St. Sebastian, to St. Domingo, belonging to Bourdeaux, 16 Six Pounders, 10 Swivels, and 94 Men, 86 French Feet Keel, and 23 Feet Beam, pierced for 20 Guns, loaded with Wine, Flour, Brandy, Bale Goods, &c. and had been a Privatier of Bayonne. She fails very fast, and left Passage the 26th ult. had six Men killed, and Eighteen wounded, fome dangerously. We had one private Man and a Boy killed; and thirteen wounded, Petty Officers and Seamen, all likely to do well. Immediately after the struck, we lost our Main and Mizen Masts close by the Board, with all thereto belonging, our Stays and Rigging being shot away.
