The following Address of the Lieutenant Governor and Council of the Province of Maryland, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Hon. Lord Baltimore: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lieutenant Governor and Council of the Province of Maryland.

PERmit, most gracious Sovereign, your dutiful and faithful Servants, the Lieutenant Governor and Council of the Province of Maryland, with all Humility to offer your Majesty our most sincere and hearty Congratulations on that important Event, the Celebration of your auspicious Nuptials.

Impressed with the most grateful Sense of your Majesty's tender Care and Concern for the Interest, Welfare, and Security of all your People, our Hearts are filled with boundless Joy on your Conjugal Union with a Princess, eminently endowed with every Royal Virtue, and amiable Qualification, that can render your Majesty's domestick Felicity complete.

May the Divine Providence long preserve your Majesty and your Royal Consort, in the full Enjoyment of mutual Happiness, and bless you with an Offspring inheriting the Virtues of their Illustrious Parents; Virtues which add Splendour and Dignity to the Crowns they wear.

May your Majesty long continue great and glorious; may your People, flourishing and happy, continue truly sensible of the inestimable Blessings they enjoy under your wise Administration; and long may you feel the inexpressible Pleasure to a benevolent Heart, resulting from a Consciousness that your Majesty is, under Heaven, the Fountain whence these Blessings flow.

The following Address of the Lieutenant Governor and Council of the Province of Maryland, has been presented to the Queen by the Right Hon. Lord Baltimore: Which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the Queen's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lieutenant Governor and Council of the Province of Maryland.

Most Gracious Queen,

WHEN your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lieutenant Governor and Council of the Province of Maryland, humbly beg Leave to present our Congratulations on the joyful Occasion of your auspicious Nuptials with our worthily beloved King, whose Choice of a Princess, distinguished by every delicate Virtue and amiable Accomplishment that can inspire His Royal Heart with Sentiments of Tenderness and Affection, add new Lustre to the Crown you wear, and render you dear to all your dutiful Subjects, is an illustrious Proof of His Majesty's Wisdom.

May the Almighty, who, in Reward of your conspicuous Merit, has placed your Majesty on the British Throne, be your constant Guardian and ProteCTOR, continue your Majesty the Delight of your Royal Consort, and make you the happy Mother of a numerous Progeny resembling their Royal and Illustrious Parents, that our Posterity may rejoice at the happy Event of your Majesty's Union with our great and glorious King.

Constantinople, March 5. His Excellency Henry Grenville, Esq; Ambassador from the King of Great Britain to the Ottoman Porte, arrived here, on board His Majesty's Ship the Dunkirk, Capt. Digby, from Lisbon, on the 21st past, and will soon have his Audience of the Grand Seigneur.

Hamburg, April 13. The Head Quarters of the Count de St. Germain, Commander in Chief of the Danish Troops, are now at Morie, about Half a German Mile from Lubeck.

Hague, April 16. The Light Troops of His Majesty's Army in Westphalia have been lately very successful in several Skirmishes with the Enemy. The Hereditary Prince of Brunswick was marching from Munster, as we hear by the last Letters, upon some Expedition.

The French are in continual Motion in Hesse, and have thrown some Bridges over the Werra, between Heidemunden and Witzenhausen; but their Motions seemed to be rather of the Defensive than of the Offensive Kind.

Admiralty Office, April 21.

Captain Hotham, of His Majesty's Ship the Aolus, in his Letter dated the 12th Instant at Sea, gives an Account, That on the 7th, being in Company with His Majesty's Ship the Brilliant, upon a Cruise to the Westward, they fell in with, and took, the Malouin Privatier of St. Maloes, of 10 Guns and 80 Men: And at the same Time retook the Elizabeth and Anna of London, William Gowland, Master, from Maryland, laden with Tobacco, which was a Prize to the above-mentioned Privatier. They have also taken the Curieux Privatier belonging to St. Maloes, of 6 Guns and 33 Men; and have sent them all three to Plymouth.
