AT the Council Chamber Whitehall, the 29th Day of April, 1762,

The Lords of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council.

THIS Day Philip Sharpe, Esq; was, by His Majesty's Command, sworn one of the Clerks of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council in Ordinary, upon the Resignation of Francis Vernon, Esq; created Lord Orwell, of the Kingdom of Ireland.

Petersburg, March 26. Yesterday the Chambellan Shuwalow was installed in the Office of Director of the Corps de Cadets; and upon that Occasion the Emperor, with a numerous Company of Ladies and Gentlemen, passed the whole Day at his Hotel.

There is a Council appointed for Military Affairs, which meets twice a Week, and where his Imperial Majesty presides in Person: It is composed of the Two Princes of Holstein, Field Marshal Prince Trubetskoy, General Villebois, and some other Officers.

Warsaw, April 10. M. Woyakow, the Russian Minister here, has been appointed Governor of Riga; and as soon as Count Keiferling, who is to succeed him, arrives from Vienna, he will leave this Court.

The King of Poland continues still confined to his Chamber, but To-day his Majesty, is a little better. There is Advice from Petersburg, that the Duke of Biron is released.

Liege, April 19. The Gendarmerie, quartered in this State, having solicited, at the End of last Campaign, the Permission to return to France; were so disgusted at being refused, that above 500 Private Men quitted the Service. This made it generally believed, that only Four Squadrons would take the Field this Year; but Orders being arrived to compleat that Corps, and the Officers being much less difficult in Choice of Men than formerly, the whole Corps will be in a Condition to take the Field about the Beginning of June.

Hamburg, April 23. We learn that the Prince of Wurtemberg was to leave Rostock on the 20th Instant, with Part of the Corps of Troops under his Command, in order to join his Prussian Majesty's Army in Silesia: The other Part is to march to Saxony to reinforce Prince Henry's Army; so that there will remain at Rostock but Five Hundred Prussians to garrison the Place.

The Army in Silesia, commanded by the King of Prussia is in Motion; and, as it appears the Austrians have a Design upon Breslaw, his Majesty has ordered Three or Four Thousand Peasants to repair the Intrenchments before that City.

Hague, April 23. Notwithstanding the Reports which have prevailed, that the Spanish Troops had actually invaded the Kingdom of Portugal on the 5th Instant, the Letters from Madrid of that Date make no Mention of it; but on the contrary represent the Spanish Army under M. de Saria, as still quiet in its Cantonments; and that the Portugaeze Ambassador had hired a House at Aranjuez, in order to follow the Court, which is soon to remove to that Place. M. de Saz, Minister from his Most Faithful Majesty to the Court of Turin, was arrived at Madrid, where he had been presented to his Catholick Majesty and the Royal Family, and received very graciously.

Hague, April 27. The French Officers continue to join the Army: Marshal Soubise arrived at Cassel the 20th; and the Prince of Condé left Paris the 22d for the Lower Rhine; and Marshal d'Etrées was to follow in a very few Days.

The Detachments of the French Troops, which had crossed the Rhine upon the March of the Hereditary Prince of Brunswick, finding they were too late to save the Post of Arensburg, have retired back to their Quarters.

Whitehall, May 1.

Extract of a Letter from Major General Monckton to the Earl of Egremont. Dated at St. Peter's in the Island of Martinico, 18th of March, 1762. Received the 28th of April, by Capt. Wood.

IHAD the Honour of writing to you the 27th of the last Month, and of transmitting to your Lordship a Copy of the Capitulation of this Island, by Capt. Ricaut, one of my Aids de Camp, who sailed from hence the 1st Instant, in His Majesty's Ship the Zephyr.

I have now the Honour of acquainting you of the Surrender of the Island of Grenada, with its Dependencies, on the 5th Instant, to the Ships of War and Troops, which the Admiral and I sent for its Reduction, under Commodore Swanton, and Brigadier General Walsh. The same Terms of Capitulation were granted, as the Citadel of Fort Royal and this Island had. Inclosed is a Copy of Brigadier General Walsh's Letter.

By the Account our Engineers give of the Situation of the Fort in this Island, and the intrenched Hills above it, the Enemy might have defended it a long Time, although their whole Force consisted chiefly in Inhabitants and Freebooters: There were but a very small Number of Soldiers.

As the Island of Grenada is now reduced, I have ordered Brigadier Walsh from the Granades, leaving the 95th Regiment there, to take Possession of St. Vincents; and I am sending a Detachment from hence to take Possession of St^e Lucia, where there is a Fort, but none at St. Vincents.

I have now, my Lord, to acquaint you, that on the 8th Instant a French Fleet appeared to Windward of this Island off Trinity, and the same Evening sent a Boat to the Shore, with an Officer in it, to get Intelligence. They did not land, but spoke to a Frenchman, and some Negroes, that were at Work in a Field. They laid-to, and stood to Windward, until about One o'Clock on the 10th, when they stood before the Wind, and came almost within Cannon-shot of Trinity; insomuch that Major Gordon Graham, who commanded there with the second Battalion of Royal Highlanders, thought they were going to land; but they changed their Course, and stood for the Island of Dominique. The Admiral, immediately on receiving the Account of the Enemy's Fleet being to Windward, got under Sail, and went in Search of the Enemy; but was not lucky enough to meet with them.

This, my Lord, will be delivered to you by Capt. Wood

Wood of the 98th Regiment, whom I had appointed as an additional Aid de Camp, on being joined at Barbadoes by the Troops from Belleisle. I should not do him the Justice due to his Merit, did I not acquaint your Lordship that he is very deserving of His Majesty's Favour.

Copy of a Letter from Brigadier General Walsh to Major General Monckton.

Isle of Granada, March 6, 1762.

S I R,

I HAVE the Pleasure to congratulate you on the entire Reduction of this Island, together with the Grenadillas and their Dependencies, to the Obedience of His Majesty.

I arrived here the 3d Instant with the Troops under my Command; and according to your Orders, and in Conjunction with Commodore Swanton, I sent Lieutenant Colonel Scott the same Day on Shore, to summons the Governor, with the Troops and Inhabitants, to surrender, and accept the favourable Terms you were pleased to offer them. They had been summoned by Commodore Swanton to submit, before my Arrival, but they declined it; however, upon being made sensible of your Clemency, and the Risk they ran if they continued obstinate, the Inhabitants thought proper to take the Benefit of the Capitulation, and accordingly signed it, the Night before last.

They abandoned a very strong and advantageous Post commanding the Fort, which the Governor, with the Regulars and Flibustiers, had determined to defend. I landed Yesterday at Day-break, with the Grenadiers, Light Infantry, and 27th Regiment, and got Possession of a favourable Post. The Governor, finding himself abandoned by the Inhabitants, and the Communication with the Country and every Supply cut off, submitted without firing a Gun; so that this valuable Conquest has not cost us a single Man.

A Return of the Artillery, which I am told will be near a Hundred, with Ammunition and Warlike Stores, together with the Number of Troops and Inhabitants on this Island and the Grenadillas, shall be sent to you as soon as it is in my Power to obtain them.

I am, Sir,

Your most Obedient and Faithful Servant,
Hunt Walsh.

DR. JAMES's Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of His MAJESTY's ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many Thousand Cases) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure. *

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleurisies, Quincies, acute Rheumatisms, and the Lowness of Spirits, and Uneasinesses proceeding from slow and latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; it is extremely effectual in the Small-Pox, Measles, and St. Anthony's Fire; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church Yard, London; and by J. Hoey, jun. in Skinner Row, Dublin; at 2s. 6d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again.

* See a Dissertation on Fevers, and other Inflammatory Distempers, sold at the Places above-mentioned. Price 6d.
