After which His Majesty was pleased to make the following most gracious Speech.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

THE Publick Business, for which you were assembled, being now happily concluded, the advanced Season of the Year calls upon Me to put an End to this Session of Parliament; which I cannot do, without expressing the highest Approbation of the Zeal, Unanimity, and Dispatch, which have so signally appeared in the Course of your Proceedings.

At the Opening of this Session I informed you, that it had been my earnest Wish to restore the Blessings of Peace to My People; but that it was My fixt Resolution, with your Concurrence and Support, to carry on the War in the most effectual Manner, till that desirable Object could be obtained upon equitable and honourable Conditions. My Sentiments in both these Respects continue invariably the same; and I have the Satisfaction to find them confirmed by the unanimous Voice of My Parliament.

The Declaration, which Motives of Humanity have engaged the Emperor of Russia to make to all the Courts in that Alliance, and the great and happy Change in the Situation of My Ally, the King
