AT the Court at St. James's, the 14th Day of July, 1762,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the 2d of April last, to direct, That the Bounties of Six Pounds for every able Seaman, and of Three Pounds for every ordinary Seaman, should continue to be paid to every such able and ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Eighteen Years, who should on or before the 31st Day of May last, voluntarily enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships, or the Chief Officers on Board such Tenders as should be employed for raising Men for the Service of His Majesty's Royal Navy: And also that the Bounty of Thirty Shillings should be continued to be paid to every able bodied Landman not above the Age of Thirty Five, nor under the Age of Eighteen Years, who should, on or before the said 31st Day of May last, voluntarily enter themselves in like Manner to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and that a Reward of Five Pounds for every able, and of Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every ordinary Seaman, should continue to be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who may desert themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's said Service, on or before the said Thirty-first Day of May last. — And whereas the Time limited for paying the said Bounties and Rewards hath been continued and extended to the 31st of this Instant July; And it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the same should be continued for some Time longer; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Rewards, be prolonged and extended from the said 31st Day of this Instant July, to the 30th Day of September next. And that the said Bounties and Rewards be paid in the Manner directed by His Majesty's aforementioned Order in Council of the 2d of April last Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

W. Sharpe.

St. James's, July 31.

The following Address of the General Convention of the Royal Burrows of Scotland, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the General Convention of the Royal Burrows of Scotland.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Convention of the Royal Burrows of Scotland, embrace with Eagerness this first Opportunity, at our Annual Meeting, of congratulating your Majesty on your happy Nuptials with a Princess highly distinguished by the most eminent Virtues; an Event, which proves your Majesty's Attention to the Happiness of your People, and from which we have the joyful Prospect of a Race of Kings descended from your Majesty, to perpetuate these Blessings we at present enjoy.

At the same Time we beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the remarkable Success which, on so many Occasions, has attended your Majesty's Arms, the Result of that Conduct and Vigour, which, under the Protection of God, must ever decide the Fate of Kingdoms: And, at the same Time, we behold, with Veneration, those equitable Dispositions, which your Majesty has constantly discovered, of restoring Peace to Europe, and putting an End to the Devastation of War.

That your Majesty may long enjoy the Throne of your Ancestors; that you may be long preserved as a Blessing to these Kingdoms; and that your Posterity may reign over a grateful and happy People, to the latest Ages, are the earnest Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful, faithful, and loyal Subjects,

The Representatives of the Royal Burrows of Scotland, in a General Convention assembled.

Signed in our Name, Presence, and by Appointment of the General Convention of the Royal Burrows of Scotland,

By Geo. Lind, Proxies.

Breslaw, July 11. General Ziethen, on the 7th in the Morning, perceiving Marshal Daun had in the Night quitted the strong Camp of Kuntzendorff immediately took Possession of the same. The Marshal has made a Movement with his Left Wing towards the Konisberg, but his Right is still posted near Schweidnitz; so that his Communication with that Fortrefs is open; and, by his present Position, he covers the County of Glatz, where his principal Magazines are. The King of Prussia is encamped between Gotesberg and Seifersdorff, having the Village of Ditmansdorff between him and the Enemy. His Head Quarter is at Seitendorff. Lieutenant General Neuweidt, whom his Prussian Majesty had detached towards Friedland, fell in, on his March, with the Rear of General Bréntano's Corps, which he attacked, and made about Four Hundred Prisoners. We hear that General Neuweidt has pursued his March towards Braunau in Bohemia. A Body of Light Troops, composed of Cossacks, Hussars, &c. have penetrated into that Kingdom on the Side of Trautenau. Lieutenant General Neuweidt, on the 5th or 6th Instant, made an Attack on the Austrian Post of Engelsberg, from which he was repulsed, with the Loss of upwards of Five Hundred Men. The Cannonade lasted from Three o'Clock till past Eight in the Morning. His Prussian Majesty was present, and much exposed during the whole Attack.

Hamburgb, July 16. The King of Denmark set out the Day before Yesterday from Travendahl, on his Return to Copenhagen.

The Danish Troops, who are entered into the Dutchy of Mecklenburgh, are said to occupy Scheverin and Domitz.
