AT the Court at St. James's, the 14th Day of July, 1762,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the 2d of April last, to direct, That the Bounties of Six Pounds for every able Seaman, and of Three Pounds for every ordinary Seaman, should continue to be paid to every such able and ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Eighteen Years, who should, on or before the 31st Day of May last, voluntarily enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Ships, or the Chief Officers on Board such Tenders as should be employed for raising Men for the Service of His Majesty's Royal Navy: And also that the Bounty of Thirty Shillings should be continued to be paid to every able bodied Landman not above the Age of Thirty Five, nor under the Age of Eighteen Years, who should, on or before the said 31st Day of May last, voluntarily enter themselves in like Manner to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and that a Reward of Five Pounds for every able, and of Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every ordinary Seaman, should continue to be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who may secret themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's said Service, on or before the said Thirty-first Day of May last. — And whereas the Time limited for paying the said Bounties and Rewards hath been continued and extended to the 31st of this Instant July; And it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the same should be continued for some Time longer; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Rewards, be prolonged and extended from the said 31st Day of this Instant July, to the 30th Day of September next. And that the said Bounties and Rewards be paid in the Manner directed by His Majesty's aforementioned Order in Council of the 2d of April last. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

St. James's, August 21.

The following Address of the Mayor, Burgeses, and Commonalty of the City of Bristol, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Burgeses, and Commonalty of the City of Bristol, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgeses, and Commonalty of the City of Bristol, in Common Council assembled, humbly beg Leave, amidst the universal Joy, to offer their sincere Congratulations on Her Majesty's being safely and happily delivered of a Prince.

This pleasing and interesting Event we esteem an invaluable Blessing, from a full Conviction that public Liberty, and the Glory, Welfare, and Happiness of these Kingdoms, can only be secured by Princes of your Illustrious House.

It is our fervent Prayer to the Almighty, That your Royal and Amiable Consort may be soon restored; and that you may be both long preserved in Health, and an uninterrupted Enjoyment of Domestic Felicity; as we entertain the highest Confidence, that, through your Majesty's tender Care and great Example, the Mind of your Royal Son will be adorned with every Virtue, and with a generous and noble Love for the British Constitution: For the only Thing now to be wished by a happy and grateful People, is, That the Blessings we experience under your Majesty's auspicious Reign, may be transmitted, through your Royal Line, to our latest Posterity.

St. James's, August 18.

This Day the Chevalier de Mafin, Envoy Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary from Malta, had a private Audience of His Majesty.
