Permit us then, Dread Sir, to indulge ourselves in the pleasing Prospect of a numerous Royal Progeny; and that the many and great Blessings, which we owe, next under God, to your Majesty's most auspicious Government, will, by the Protection of Providence over a long Race of Illustrious Princes to come, be transmitted down secure to the remotest Period of Time.

May those transcendent Virtues ever adorn your Royal Offspring, that have shone so fair in the auspicious Reign of your Majesty's Conduct and Government, over a loyal and faithful People; and may Providence guard your Majesty to these Kingdoms, by a Continuance of long Life and Prosperity, is the Prayer of,

Your Majesty's most Faithful Subjects.

It is with the utmost Joy that we consider this happy Event as a Security for the Continuance of last

latest Posterity, of the numerous Blessings enjoyed under your Majesty's mild Administration.

Permit us, with unfeigned Sincerity, to assure your Majesty, that it shall be our fervent and constant Prayer, That your Majesty may long live to preserve to us the present happy Establishment in Church and State; and that it may ever be continued to us and our Posterity by your Majesty and your Royal Descendants.

We cannot but anxiously desire to transmit to Posterity the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Government; and, next to the Continuance of your invaluable Life, nothing can be more favourable to our Views, than your Majesty's being so early blessed with a Son, whose Royal Mind, under your Care and Guidance, will naturally be led to imitate his glorious Ancestors, and to delight in employing Power for the Protection and Advancement of public Liberty.

May Heaven be ever propitious to your Majesty, your Royal Comfort, and the Prince; and may the Increase of your Illustrious Family be ever attended with Increase of Happiness to your Majesty, and the Queen; and of Honour and Prosperity to your Crown and Kingdoms.

Given at His Majesty's Castle of Dublin, the 19th Day of August, 1762.

By their Excellencies Command,

Tho. Waite.

GOD Save the KING.

Breslau, August 13. We hear, that in the Night between the 7th and 8th, the Trenches were opened before Schweidnitz, by 4100 Travailleurs, at the Distance of about 660 Paces from the Glacis. The Besieged having Notice of it by some Deserters, began a most terrible Cannonade, in Spite of which however, the first Parallel was pretty well advanced before Day break, with the Loss only of one Officer and nine Men killed and wounded. The Enemy remained quiet till the 8th, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, when they sallied out with about eight Battalions of Regular Troops, and 1000 Croats. They made a false Attack upon the Left, and afterwards fell upon the Right Flank; and, in the first Impetuosity, routed the Battalion of Falkenhayn, made the Colonel, with some Officers, Prisoners, and killed and wounded about 100 Men: But however, upon Lieutenant General Tauensin's ordering a few Battalions of Infantry immediately to advance with their Field Pieces, the Enemy were obliged to retire into the Town, without having been able to do any Damage to the Works.

It was reported, that the Austrian General Janini was wounded in this Attack. The Night between the 8th and 9th was spent in perfecting the Parallel with its Communications, and Five Batteries of Mortars, three of which began to play the same Night upon the Town. The Night betwixt the 9th and 10th was employed in constructing the Angle Saillant, which will contain two Batteries of 10 Cannon each, to be opened in the Night between the 10th and 11th.

It is supposed, that the Fortrefs of Schweidnitz is well provided with every Thing for a Siege; the Garrison is as numerous as the Nature of the Place will admit; and the Commandant, before the Town was invested, had the Precaution to order such of the Inhabitants as were not in a Condition to lay in a Store of Provisions for their Subsistence, till the End of September next, to leave the Place forthwith.

The different Posts occupied in the Mountains by the several Corps which form the King of Prussia's Camp, are as follow: General Glabentz is posted at Hartmansdorff, towards Landshut; General Rammin at Waldenburg; General Manteuffel at Barzdorff; General Neuweit upon the Hills opposite to the Eul Geburge; General Mollendorff at Barckerdorff; Prince of Wurtemberg at Reichenbach; and the Gardes du Corps, with the greatest Part of the Cavalry, form a Chain in the Plain from Frankenstein to Kuntzendorff. The Head Quarters are in the Center at Dittmansdorff.

Breslau, August 17. The latest Accounts from before Schweidnitz are of the 14th. In the Night between the 13th and 14th, the second Parallel was completed, at the Distance of 300 Paces from the Fort; and nine Batteries are actually playing. The Fire from the Town is greatly diminished, many of their Cannon having been dismounted by the Fire from the Trenches. The Besieged have made no Sortie worth Notice, since the 8th. 'Tis thought the Town will surrender in less than a Fortnight.

Breslau, August 18. We have received Advice here of an Action between Part of the Austrian Army, and the Corps of the Prince of Bevern encamped at Guttmansdorff near Reichenbach. The Prince of Bevern having been attacked on the 16th in the Afternoon, by 33 Battalions, and 18 Regiments of Cavalry, under the Command of the Austrian Generals Laudohn, O'Donel, and Beck, that Prince maintained his Ground with great Bravery, till the King of Prussia arrived in Person to his Assistance, with eight Battalions of Infantry, and a strong Body of Cavalry, Dragoons, and Hussars. His Prussian Majesty immediately attacked the Enemy's Cavalry, and totally routed them: A great Number was killed, and upwards of 1500 made Prisoners. The Austrian Generals seeing, by the Defeat of the Cavalry, their Infantry exposed to the greatest Dangers, instantly gave Orders to desist from the Attack, and retreated towards Silberberg.

It is said, that in this Action Colonel Lossow, at the Head of his own Regiment of Hussars, that of Verner Hussars, and Czetteritz Dragoons, attacked and routed eight Regiments of Austrian Cavalry, by which the rest of that Corps were obliged to retire in great Confusion. It is likewise reported, that Marshal Daun was present in the Action.

Brunswick,

Brunswick, August 17. The French have evacuated Gottingen, after destroying the Works of that Place, and setting Fire to the Powder Magazine, by the Explosion of which, 50 Saxons were killed, the Ramparts of the Town almost all blown up, and the Town itself considerably damaged.

As Prince Frederick of Brunswick was just at this Time in the Neighbourhood of Lüneburg with his Corps, upon his Return from the Expedition it had made on the Werra, he immediately marched, on the Advice he had received from Gottingen; and it was thought he intended occupying the Town, till he could receive farther Orders from Prince Ferdinand.

Hamburg, August 17. The 14th Instant, the Danish Troops in the Duchy of Mecklenbourg Schwerin begun to evacuate that Country; and several Regiments have already repassed the Trave, and returned back into Holstein. The Danes are employed in selling their Magazines; and we hear that there is to be a Reduction made in that Army.

The Reigning Duke of Mecklenbourg Schwerin is returned thence to his Residence of Schwerin; and the Dutches his Consort will follow his Serene Highness in a few Days.

Hamburg, August 20. The Russians evacuated Colberg the 10th of this Month; and the Kingdom of Prussia on the 6th. The 16th there were not any Russian Troops to remain either in Prussia, or Pomerania.

Hague, August 20. We hear, that notwithstanding the Reports that the Trenches before Alameda had been opened on the 25th past, it does not appear, by the Letters from Madrid of the 2d Instant, that they had, on the 28th of July, received any certain Advice of that Operation.

Those Letters mention an Action, which does great Honour to His Britannick Majesty's Ship Pallas, which had attacked, in the Road of Cadix, two Spanish Chebicks, of 34 and 24 Guns, and obliged them, in Sight of the Town, to take Refuge under the Cannon of their Forts, with considerable Loss.

The Russians continuing to withdraw their Troops, Pomerania is already quite evacuated; and every Thing is conducted with great Order.

Hague, August 24. The French Army, under the Marshals Soubise and D'Estrées, abandoned the Banks of the Fulda the 17th at Night, and marched away by their Right, in the Space which lies between Spangenberg and Lichtenau. The Army under Prince Ferdinand followed them on the 18th, and encamped at Homberg, where his Serene Highness's Head Quarters were the 19th in the Morning. The Hereditary Prince is so posted, as to be able to join Prince Ferdinand: And the Prince of Condé has marched by his Right towards the Town of Fulda, with a view to cover the Retreat of the French Army. Munden is in the Hands of the Allies; and Cassel was summoned on the 18th by Prince Frederick of Brunswick. We are not yet informed, what Garrison has been left in that Town, about which the Accounts differ widely.

The King of Prussia defeated General Laudohn on the 16th at Langen-Bielau. That General had been detached by Marshal Daun to disturb the Siege of Schweidnitz, with a Body of 30 Battalions, and a large Corps of Cavalry. If the Austrians do not find Means to prevent it, it is expected the Town will be taken in a few Days, as the second Parallel was completed within less than 300 Paces of the Citadel.

St. James's, August 27.

This Day his Excellency M. Boreel, Ambassador Extraordinary from the States General, had a private Audience of His Majesty.

And afterwards M. Amsincke, Syndic, and M. Reake, Senator, had private Audiences of Leave of His Majesty.

To which they were introduced by the Right Honourable George Grenville, Esq; one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Stephen Cottrell, Esq; Assistant Master of the Ceremonies.

Admiralty Office, August 28.

Captain St. John, of His Majesty's Sloop the Hazard, gives an Account, in his Letter of the 7th Instant, off Zealand, of his having, on the 15th, taken the Savage, a French Cutter Privateer, of four Swivel Guns and 15 Men, belonging to Dunkirk, which had been out four Days, and taken the Sloop Robert, John Hunt, Master, belonging to Ipswich, which Captain St. John has retaken; but the Privateer being very leaky, he was obliged to sink her.

Uppingham, August 21, 1762.
