AT the Court at St. James's, the 14th Day of July, 1762,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the 2d of April last, to direct, That the Bounties of Six Pounds for every able Seaman, and of Three Pounds for every ordinary Seaman, should continue to be paid to every such able and ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Eighteen Years, who should, on or before the 31st Day of May last, voluntarily enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships, or the Chief Officers on Board such Tenders as should be employed for raising Men for the Service of His Majesty's Royal Navy: And also that the Bounty of Thirty Shillings should be continued to be paid to every able bodied Landman not above the Age of Thirty Five, nor under the Age of Eighteen Years, who should, on or before the said 31st Day of May last, voluntarily enter themselves in like Manner to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and that a Reward of Five Pounds for every able, and of Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every ordinary Seaman, should continue to be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who may secret themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's said Service, on or before the said Thirty-first Day of May last. — And whereas the Time limited for paying the said Bounties and Rewards hath been continued and extended to the 31st of this Instant July; And it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the same should be continued for some Time longer; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Rewards, be prolonged and extended from the said 31st Day of this Instant July, to the 30th Day of September next. And that the said Bounties and Rewards be paid in the Manner directed by His Majesty's aforementioned Order in Council of the 2d of April last. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

St. James's, August 31.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Exeter, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable William Pitt, Esq;: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and

Common Council of the City of Exeter, in Chamber assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

THE happy Accomplishment of your Peoples Hopes and Wishes, in the safe Delivery of our most gracious Queen, and the Birth of an Heir Apparent to your Crown, emboldens us, your ever faithful and loyal Subjects, to lay hold of this most grateful and favourable Opportunity, of approaching your Throne with our most dutiful Congratulations, and of offering up this imperfect, but unfeigned, Expression of our most affectionate, zealous, and unalterable Attachment to your Royal Person and Family.

We are too deeply sensible of the distinguished Happiness we enjoy, under your Majesty's auspicious and truly Patriot Government, not to contemplate, with the most delightful Exultation, this Earnest of our future Felicity, this pleasing Prospect, which opens itself before us, of your Majesty's Royal Virtues, and those National Blessings which are their natural Concomitants, transmitted to future Generations.

May this precious Pledge of the Divine Favour be happily preserved to us! May your Majesty's Throne be still more and more strengthened, by the gradually encreasing Support of a numerous Progeny, descended from your Majesty and your Royal Consort! May they long, very long, enjoy the inestimable Advantages of being enlightened by your Wisdom, and instructed by your Example! May the Blessings of your Reign be perpetuated through an Illustrious Succession of your Royal Lineage to the latest Posterity! These are the ardent Prayers which we shall continually offer up to the Supreme Dispenser of all Good, while at the same Time it will be our Study, and the invariable Rule of our Conduct, to make your Majesty every Return in our Power, of Duty, Loyalty, Zeal and Gratitude; and to contribute our utmost Endeavours; as far as our narrow Sphere extends, to make your Majesty's Reign as easy to yourself, as it is universally felt and acknowledged to be glorious and beneficial to your People.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the Corporation and Borough of Richmond in the County of York, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Grenville; has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council, in Common Council assembled,
