May the Almighty, in His great Goodness, restore to perfect Health your Royal Consort, and give many happy Years to the Royal Infant.

May he be blessed with Greatness of Mind to govern a generous, free and brave People, and be the Protector of the happy Constitution of these Realms. May he ever be mindful of the noble Example of his Illustrious Parents; and long, very long, may his high Birth be viewed by your Majesty and your much admired Consort, greatly to improve in Princely Virtues, and Magnanimity of Mind. And when the Fulness of Time shall come, may he, to his latest Days, have the Affection of his Subjects, and, by every Action of his Life, be deservedly (as your Majesty) the Delight of Mankind.
