AT the Court at St. James's, the 17th Day of September, 1762,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the 2d of April last, to direct, That the Bounties of Six Pounds for every able Seaman, and of Three Pounds for every ordinary Seaman, should continue to be paid to every such able and ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Eighteen Years, who should, on or before the 31st Day of May last, voluntarily enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships, or the Chief Officers on Board such Tenders as should be employed for raising Men for the Service of His Majesty's Royal Navy: And also that the Bounty of Thirty Shillings should be continued to be paid to every able bodied Landman not above the Age of Thirty Five, nor under the Age of Eighteen Years, who should, on or before the said 31st Day of May last, voluntarily enter themselves in like Manner to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and that a Reward of Five Pounds for every able, and of Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every ordinary Seaman, should continue to be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who may secret themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's said Service, on or before the said Thirty-first Day of May last. — And whereas the Time limited for paying the said Bounties and Rewards hath been continued and extended to the 30th of this Instant September; And it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the same should be continued for some Time longer; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Rewards, be prolonged and extended from the said 30th Day of this Instant September, to the 30th Day of November next. And that the said Bounties and Rewards be paid in the Manner directed by His Majesty's aforementioned Order in Council of the 2d of April last. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

St. James's, September 21.

The following Address of the Mayor, Justice, Aldermen, Capital and Inferior Burgesses of the Borough and Town of Taunton, having been transmitted by the Mayor of the said Town, to the Earl of Egremont, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Justice, Aldermen, Capital and Inferior Burgesses of, the Borough and Town of Taunton, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, with all Humility and loyal Affection, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the late great and interesting Event, and to assure your Majesty, that we take our Share in the general Joy with the most ardent and grateful Zeal.

Your Majesty's unwearied Attention to promote the Happiness of your Subjects, obliged them to form the most anxious Wishes for your own. These are now providentially answered, by the auspicious Birth of an Air apparent to the British Empire, and the happy Recovery of the Queen; Events equally essential to your Majesty's true Felicity, and the real and permanent Welfare of your Kingdoms.

From this early Increase of your Majesty's August Family, what have not your faithful People to hope for? Happy are we in our present Enjoyments; but happier still in the pleasing Hopes of having our Religious and Civil Liberties continued to us, and transmitted, in their full Lustre, to our Posterity through a Race of Princes formed after your bright Example, and Inheritors alike of your Majesty's Crown and Virtues.

May your Majesty and the Queen long live, happy in your Off-spring, happy in your Subjects, and when the Almighty shall call you to a Crown immortal, may the Prince your Son emulate all the Virtues of his Illustrious Parents, and govern our Childrens Children, as your Majesty governs us.

Given under our Common Seal this 14th Day of September, 1762.

The following Address of the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of the Town and Port of Dover, in the County of Kent, having been transmitted by Sir Edmund Simpson, Knt. Doctor of Laws, one of their Representatives, Representatives in Parliament, to the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Grenville, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the Town and Port of Dover in the County of Kent.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the Town and Port of Dover in the County of Kent, sincerely rejoicing at every Blessing that attends your Royal Person, beg Leave, in the most dutiful and affectionate Manner, to offer our unfeigned Congratulations to your Majesty, on the auspicious Birth of His Royal Highness the Prince, and the happy Recovery of your Royal Consort.

May the same Providence, which hath hitherto signally blessed your Majesty with a Train of prosperous and happy Events, preserve his Royal Highness, endue him with every Virtue, and make him a glorious Instrument of Happiness to His Royal Parents, and these Kingdoms.

Given under our Common Seal the Thirteenth Day of September, in the Year of our Lord, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Sixty-two.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Salop, has been presented to His Majesty by Thomas Powys, Esq; High Sheriff, accompanied by the Earl of Bath, Lord Lieutenant, Sir John Astley, Bart. Member of Parliament for the said County, and other Gentlemen, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Salop.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of your County of Salop, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, with our most humble and sincere Congratulations, on the safe Delivery of the Queen, and the Birth of a Prince.

Deeply affected with a grateful Sense of the invaluable Blessings, which, under God, we owe to your Majesty's auspicious Government, we cannot but participate the universal Joy, occasioned by an Event, which, while it adds to the domestic Bliss of the best of Sovereigns, opens the most pleasing Expectations to the happiest of People.

Our Hopes are now confirmed, that the singular Felicitie enjoyed by the present Age, will be continued to Posterity; as we see your Majesty blessed with an Heir apparent to your Crown, at a Time when we may flatter ourselves his being called to wear it, will be happily, at such a Distance, that we may expect to see him formed, by your Majesty's Potental Care and Pious Example, to every Virtue that can dignify and adorn the private Character, and instructed in such Maxims of Government by your publick Conduct, as will render him worthy of the Imperial Throne, which he is born to ascend.

Happy in the Enjoyment of such Blessings, and in the Prospect of their being handed down to After-Ages, it shall always be our earnest Wish, and devout Prayer, that during the long Period of Years, through which, we trust, Providence will extend your Majesty's Life, you may continue to possess the Hearts of your grateful Subjects; and having begun your Reign with Victory and Conquest, that you may be soon enabled to give full Scope to the generous and benevolent Inclinations of your Royal Heart, by cultivating the Arts of Peace, and diffusing Happiness and Liberty through every Part of the British Empire.

Dated at Shrewsbury the 9th of September, in the Second Year of your Reign.

The following Address of the Bailiffs, Burgeses, and Commonalty of the Town of Ludlow in the County of Salop, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Hon. the Earl of Powis, their Recorder, and Edward Herbert, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgeses, and Commonalty of the Town of Ludlow in the County of Salop, humbly beg Leave to offer our Congratulations to your Majesty, upon the Birth of his Royal Highness the Prince, and to testify our Joy upon so happy an Event.

The Succession of your Royal House to the Throne of these Kingdoms, being the Basis upon which all our Religious and Civil Rights principally depend, we think the Increase of your Royal Family, gives an additional Security to those Rights, and are thankful to God for the same.

That your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous, and that his Royal Highness, formed by your Majesty's Example and Precepts, may prove a Blessing to your Majesty, and all your People, are the ardent Wishes of us your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

In Testimony whereof, we have hereunto affixed our Common Seal, this Third Day of September, in the Year of our Lord, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Sixty-two, and in the Second Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeses of the Town of Shrewsbury, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Hon. the Earl of Powis, their Recorder, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeses of the Town of Shrewsbury, presume to offer our humble Congratulations to your Majesty on an Event so auspicious to these Kingdoms, as the Birth of a Prince, the Heir of your Majesty's Crown and Dignities.

Bound by the Ties of Love and Gratitude, as well as Duty to your Majesty, and sharing in the publick Triumphs and Glories of your Reign, we cannot but take a sensible Part in every Thing that concerns the the private Interests of your Royal House, and rejoice in every Accession of domestick Happiness to your Majesty and your Royal Consort.

Happy in all the Blessings of Government, which we have enjoyed in full Measure under the Reign of your Majesty and your Royal Progenitors, we thank Heavens for the Prospect opened to us, of delivering down these Blessings to our Posterity, under a Prince born of the most amiable Parents, and formed by their Care and Example to a just Sense of Government, a Love to his native Country, and a pious Regard to its Laws and Liberties.

May our ardent Prayers for your Majesty and our gracious Queen be answered in a long Life of Health and Happiness, attended with the same Unanimity of Affection in your People at Home, and with the same Success that has hitherto crowned your Arms and Councils Abroad.

Dated at Shrewsbury the Sixth Day of September, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Sixty-two.

The following Address of the Mayor, Portmen, and Capital Burgeses of Orford, has been presented to His Majesty by Thomas Worley, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most gracious Sovereign,
MAY it please your Majesty to permit your most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Portmen, and Capital Burgeses of Orford, to make an humble Offering to your Majesty of their sincere and hearty Congratulations upon Her Majesty's safe Delivery, and the Birth of a Prince.

We must leave to others, who are versed in the Art of Embellishing their Sentiments with elegant and copious Expressions, to expatiate upon the Permanence of Happiness that is promised to Posterity, by the pleasing Prospect now opened to us, of a Race of Kings lineally descended from your Royal Person, inheriting your transcendent Virtues, and copying your great and amiable Example; they will confirm these flattering Expectations, by drawing auspicious Omens from the memorable Day, on which it has pleased Providence to bestow this precious Gift upon your People; an Æra justly consecrated in our Annals, by the Succession of your Illustrious House of Hanover, to be the Guardians and Preservers of our Liberties and Constitution. We must be contented to lay at your Majesty's Feet the Overflowings of our Joy upon this interesting Event, in unadorned but honest Language; and, whilst we are considering it in a more confined and private Relation, shall offer up to Heaven our devout Thanksgivings for crowning, with so early and endearing a Pledge of Comfort, your Connubial Felicity.

And fortunate indeed we shall esteem ourselves, if, amidst the Throng of universal Congratulations upon this National as well as Domestick Blessing, our humble Mite, not unobserved by your Majesty, should happen to be honoured with a gracious Regard.

Given under our Common Seal the 10th Day of September, 1762.

Whitehall, September 18, 1762.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that the House of Harriot Fenner, of Brown's Buildings St. Mary Ax, in the City of London, was broke open between Monday the 9th and Friday the 13th of August last, and robbed of Sundry Pieces of Plate, Jewel: and Wearing Apparel, to the Amount of upwards of Four Hundred Pounds, by Persons unknown; His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Robbery, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof. EGREMONT.

And as a farther Encouragement, I do hereby promise a Reward of Twenty Guinea to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid; to be paid by me upon Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.
