The following Address of the Mayor, Justice, Aldermen, Capital and Inferior Burgesses of the Borough and Town of Taunton, having been transmitted by the Mayor of the said Town, to the Earl of Egremont, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Justice, Aldermen, Capital and Inferior Burgesses of, the Borough and Town of Taunton, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, with all Humility and loyal Affection, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the late great and interesting Event, and to assure your Majesty, that we take our Share in the general Joy with the most ardent and grateful Zeal.

Your Majesty's unwearied Attention to promote the Happiness of your Subjects, obliged them to form the most anxious Wishes for your own. These are now providentially answered, by the auspicious Birth of an Air apparent to the British Empire, and the happy Recovery of the Queen; Events equally essential to your Majesty's true Felicity, and the real and permanent Welfare of your Kingdoms.

From this early Increase of your Majesty's August Family, what have not your faithful People to hope for? Happy are we in our present Enjoyments; but happier still in the pleasing Hopes of having our Religious and Civil Liberties continued to us, and transmitted, in their full Lustre, to our Posterity through a Race of Princes formed after your bright Example, and Inheritors alike of your Majesty's Crown and Virtues.

May your Majesty and the Queen long live, happy in your Off-spring, happy in your Subjects; and when the Almighty shall call you to a Crown immortal, may the Prince your Son emulate all the Virtues of his Illustrious Parents, and govern our Childrens Children, as your Majesty governs us.

Given under our Common Seal this 14th Day of September, 1762.
