

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday September 21, to Saturday September 25, 1762.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 17th Day of September, 1762,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WH E R E A S the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the 9th of April last, for prohibiting the Exporting out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coastwise, Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, will expire upon the 29th Day of October next: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, Require, Prohibit and Command, That no Person or Persons whatsoever (except the Master General, Lieutenant General, or Principal Officers of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service) do, at any Time, during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the said 29th Day of October next, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or ship or lade any Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on Board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by an Act passed in the Twenty Ninth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, entitled, "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Salt Petre, and to enforce the Law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms and Ammunition; and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying Coastwise of Salt Petre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition." And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master General of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Blair.

Saturday, September 25.

AS the particular Account of the Ceremonies of the Installation of his Royal Highness Prince William Henry, and the Earl of Buté, on Wednesday last at Windsor, cannot be prepared in Time for this Evening's Gazette, It is necessarily deferred till Tuesday next.

St. James's, September 25.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder and Burgesses of the Borough of Lyme Regis, has been presented to His Majesty by Henry Fane, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting; Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder and

Burgesses of the Borough of Lyme Regis.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder and Burgesses of this ancient Corporation; beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence with our Congratulations on the Birth of a Prince, the Heir of the Imperial Crown of these Kingdoms.

While we feel the inestimable Benefits of your Majesty's auspicious Reign, in the Protection of our Civil and Religious Liberties, in their full Extent; we cannot but look back with Gratitude on the wise Provision which settled the Crown in your Illustrious House; and with the utmost Pleasure contemplate this Event, as highly interesting and important, which strengthens and confirms our Hopes in its Stability and Transmission to future Ages.

'Tis your Majesty's Glory to be as amiably distinguished for your Domestick, as you are eminently for your publick Virtues; and it is your Felicity, as well as that of your Subjects, to have a Royal Consort exemplary for the same Virtues in their full Lustre and Perfection.

May this young Prince grow up under Her vigilant and attentive Eye, and as he ripens in Years, may he from your Majesty's great Example catch the Patriot Flame that glows in your Royal Breast; and may our Descendants, at some distant Period, when he shall ascend the Throne of these Kingdoms, admire and reverence in him those shining Talents and publick Affections that render your Majesty the Darling and Delight of the present Times.

Given under our Common Seal the Thirtieth Day of August, One thousand seven hundred and sixty two.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Bridgewater, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Bridgewater in the County of Somerset.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Bridgewater, in the County of Somerset, most humbly beseech your Majesty to receive our sincere Congratulations upon the Birth of the Prince, and the Recovery of the Queen.

Protected as we have been, in our Civil and Religious Rights, by your Majesty's Illustrious Family, ever since their Accession to the Throne; and truly happy as we now are, under your Majesty's most auspicious Reign, we should be void of all Gratitude, if we did not partake, with a Cordial Zeal, in whatever may augment your domestick Felicity; nor could we retain a due Sense of our own most essential Interests, if we did not rejoice in an Event like this, which tends to perpetuate those Blessings upon our Posterity, that we enjoy ourselves.

Justly