The Design of the French appeared to be to get round the Right of Prince Ferdinand, through the Country of Waldeck; for which Purpose the Prince of Condé had been employed to open March Routes towards Frankenberg upon the Eder, which served for the March of the Confederate Army instead of theis. Prince Ferdinand having marched on the 16th, by those Routes to Wetter, where the French had a Garrison, which was driven out, and the Prince of Condé obliged to repass the Lahne. His Serene Highness encamped at Wetter the same Day, and his Head Quarters were still there on the 17th. A large Detachment which the Enemy had pushed forward from their Right, between Ziegenhayn and Neustad, had been likewise repulsed.

Our Letters from Munster inform us, that the Elector of Cologne was unanimously elected Bishop of that See on the 16th Instant.

Windfor, September 21.

Upon the King's Arrival here this Afternoon, His Majesty was attended by the Mayor and Aldermen of this Place, when their Recorder, Christopher Loft, Esq; complimented His Majesty in a very handsome Speech; which the King was pleased to receive in the most gracious Manner; and they had the Honour of kissing His Majesty's Hand. In the Evening there were Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other Demonstrations of publick Joy.
