CEREMONIES observed at the Installations of his Royal Highness Prince William, and the Earl of Bute, in Presence of the SOVEREIGN, and Knights Companions of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, at Windsor, on Wednesday the 22d Day of September, 1762.

THE Knights Companions in the full Habit of the Order, and the Officers of the Order in their Mantles, attended the Sovereign in the Royal Apartment; the Officers of Arms in the Presence Chamber; and the Prebends and Poor Knights in the Guard Room.

His Royal Highness Prince William, and the Earl of Bute, the two Knights Elect, being in the Under-Habit of the Order, retired, before the Procession began, to their Chairs in the East Isle of the Chapel, behind the Altar.

A little after Eleven o'Clock, the Sovereign coming under His State, Garter King of Arms called over the Knights; and a Procession was made to the Chapter House in the following Order.

Poor Knights, Two and Two.

Prebends, Two and Two.

Pursuivants, and Herald's at Arms, Two and Two.

Norroy King of Arms. Clarenceux King of Arms.

Earl Temple.

Marquis of Rockingham. Earl Waldegrave.

Earl of Hertford. Earl of Northumberland.

Duke of Devonshire. Earl of Cardigan.

Earl of Winchelsea. Earl of Lincoln.

Duke of Leeds. Duke of Kingston.

Duke of Rutland.

Duke of Newcastle.

His Royal Highness the Duke of York.

His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland.

Gentleman Usher The Register. Garter King of Arms with his Rod. Arms with his Rod or Scepter.

The Bishop of Salisbury, The Bishop of Winchester, Chancellor of the Order. Prelate of the Order.

The Vice Chamberlain.

The Sword of State, borne by the Duke of Ancafter.

The SOVEREIGN, in the full Habit of the Order, his Train borne by the Eldest Sons of the Dukes of Leeds and Devonshire, and the Master of the Robes.

The Band of Gentlemen Pensioners.

In this Manner proceeding into the North Isle of the Chapel, the Poor Knights, Prebends, and Officers of Arms, halted beyond the Chapter House Door.

The Chancellor, not having been sworn, remained in the Isle; none entering with the Sovereign into the Chapter House, but the Knights and sworn Officers of the Order.

The Sovereign being seated, the Knights took their Places.

The Prelate then acquainted His Majesty, that the Bishop of Salisbury attended at the Door, and humbly prayed Admittance to take the Oath of Office, as Chancellor of that most Noble Order: Whereupon he was brought in by Garter and Black Rod, the latter carrying the Insignia of the Chancellor's Office; and the Bishop kneeling down before the Sovereign, the Register administered the Oath. His Majesty then put the Gold Chain with the Badge about his Neck, and delivered the Purse to him: And having kissed the Sovereign's Hand, he withdrew to his Place.

Garter then introduced his Royal Highness Prince William, who was received at the Chapter House Door by the two junior Knights, and conducted to the Table, where the Surcoat, Girdle and Sword had been placed; and Garter presenting the Surcoat to the two senior Knights, they invested his Royal Highness therewith, the Chancellor reading the Admonition.

Then Garter presented the Girdle and Sword, which were put on.

The Earl of Bute was then introduced, received, and invested in like Manner, the Register reading the Admonition.

The Knights Elect continued in the Chapter House while the Procession was made to the Chapel, passing down to the West End of the North Isle, and up the Middle Isle into the Choir, as follows.

First the Poor Knights, who coming into the Choir, made their Reverences together, and placed themselves on each Side near the Altar.

The Prebends making their Reverences in like Manner, went to their Seats under the Stalls.

The Officers of Arms, making their Reverences, placed themselves next to the Poor Knights.

Then the Knights Companions, in the Order they walked, singly, or with his Companion, made their Reverences, and retired under their Banners, where they stood.

The Register, Garter, and Black Rod, making their Reverences together, stood before their Form.

The Prelate and Chancellor did the like.

The Sovereign made one Reverence to the Altar, and being in his Stall repeated the same. The Train Bearers standing upon the Steps going up to the Sovereign's Stall; and the Vice Chamberlain and Sword of State on the Steps before, or under the Sovereign's Stall.

The Prelate was conducted to the Altar by the Serjeant of the Vestry, and two Prebends by the Verger.

Then Garter, with the usual Reverences, took up the Banner of the late Sovereign, and holding it up, immediately Clarenceux and Norroy, Kings of Arms, joined, and making their Reverences, repaired to his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, and his Royal Highness the Duke of York, the two senior Knights; who thereupon joined, and making their Reverences together, received the Banner from Garter, and being preceded by the two Kings of Arms, advanced to the first Step or Haut-pas, where they repeated their Reverences, and coming to the Rails made one to the Altar; then kneeling, they delivered the Banner to the Prelate, who, assisted by the Prebends, placed it upright at the South End of the Altar.

In the mean Time, according to His Majesty's particular Directions, all the other Knights, as attending the Offering of the Sovereign's Banner, advanced from under their Banners, and made their double Reverences: The two Knights who made the Offering, returning with Reverences as before under their Banners.

The Sword of the late Sovereign was then delivered by Garter to their Royal Highnesses, and offered in like Manner; and then the Helm and Crest; which being done, their Royal Highnesses returned, and went into their Stalls.

The Hatchments of the late Duke of Portland were offered as usual by the next Knights in Seniority, attended by the two senior Heralds.

Garter then summoned each Knight to ascend into his Stall, who singly, or joyning with his Companion, made their Reverences; and being in their Stalls repeated the same.

All the Knights being thus in their Stalls, Garter summoned the two senior Knights under their Banners; to Install his Royal Highness Prince William, and a Procession was made to the Chapter House as follows.

Poor Knights.

Officers of Arms.

Black Rod. The Register. Garter.
The Chancellor.

His Royal Highness the Duke of York.

His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland.

The Knights and Officers entering the Chapter House, from thence returned in the following Order.

Poor Knights.

Officers of Arms.

Garter, carrying on a Cushion, the Mantle, Hood, Great Collar, and Book of Statutes; having on his Right Hand the Register, carrying in his Hand the New Testament, and the Form of the Oath and Admonitions; and Black Rod on his Left Hand.

The Chancellor.

The two Knights, having his Royal Highness Prince William between them, in his Surcoat and Sword, carrying his Cap and Feather in his Hand.

All entering the Choir with usual Reverences, Garter, with the Register and Black Rod, went to the under Stall nearest to the Prince's Stall, Garter placing the Cushion upon the Desk.

The two Knights, with Prince William, entered into the lower Stall, where the Register administered the Oath, Black Rod holding the Book.

Then the Knights conducted the Prince into the upper Stall, the Chancellor and Garter entering into the lower Stall; the Register and Black Rod remaining in the Area.

Garter then presented the Mantle to the Knights, who invested his Royal Highness therewith, the Chancellor reading the Admonition.

The Hood was next presented by Garter, and put on.

Then Garter presented the Great Collar, which was put on by the Knights, the Chancellor reading the Admonition.

Garter then presented the Statute Book, which was delivered to the Prince, and the Knights placing the Cap and Feather on his Royal Highness's Head, seated him in his Stall; whereupon rising up, he made his Reverences to the Altar and the Sovereign; and the two Knights, after embracing and congratulating him, descended, made their Reverences, and going into their Stalls, repeated the same, and sat down: The Officers returning to their Places.

Then the Duke of Newcastle, and the Duke of Rutland, being the two next senior Knights, were summoned down by Garter to Install the Earl of Bute; which was performed in the same Manner as the Former, except the Attendance of the Chancellor, the Register pronouncing the Admonitions.

The Knights being thus Installed, Divine Service began.

At the Words of the Offertory, Let your Light so shine, the Organs playing, the Officers of the Wardrobe spread a Carpet on the Steps before the Altar, and Black Rod making his Obeisances, went up to the Rails of the Altar, on the Right Side, where he received from the Yeoman of the Wardrobe, a rich Carpet and Cushion, which, with the Assistance of the Yeoman, he laid down for the Sovereign to kneel upon.

In the mean Time Garter summoned the Knights from their Stalls, beginning with the Junior, each Knight making his Reverences in his Stall, and repeating the same with his Companion in the Choir, retired under his Banner.

All the Knights standing under their Banners.

The Sovereign, making his Reverence to the Altar, descended from his Stall, and then making another Reverence, proceeded to the Offering in the following Order, viz.

Garter, and the Register.

The Chancellor.

The Vice-Chamberlain.

The Sword of State.

The Sovereign, his Train borne.

As the Procession passed the Duke of Newcastle, the senior Knight, (not of the Blood Royal) who was to deliver the Offering to the Sovereign, he came from under his Banner, placing himself a little behind His Majesty on the Right Side, and coming against the Lord Chamberlain's Stall, he came from under his Banner, going on the Left Side of His Majesty.

The Sovereign coming to the Rails of the Altar, Black Rod delivered the Offering on his Knee to the Knight, who presented it to the Sovereign; and His Majesty taking off His Cap, and kneeling, put the Offering into the Bafon held by the Prelate, assisted by the Prebends.

The Sovereign then rising, made one Reverence to the Altar, and being in His Stall, another: The Lord Chamberlain, and the Knights who delivered the Offering, retiring under their Banners, when they came opposite to them in the Return.

During the Sovereign's Return, the Officers of the Wardrobe removed the Carpet and Cushion whereon His Majesty had kneeled, leaving the first Carpet and nd two Cushions for the Knights; and Black Rod returned to his Place with the usual Reverences.

All the Knights thus standing under their Banners, Clarenceux and Norroy, Kings of Arms, joynd, with usual Reverence, and went to his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, the senior Knight who thereupon making his Reverence in the Middle of the Choir, was conducted to the Altar, where taking off his Cap, and kneeling down, he offered Gold and Silver in the Basin; and returning in the same Order, went into his Stall, where, making his Reverences, he sat down.

His Royal Highness the Duke of York, and his Royal Highness Prince William, were then severally conducted to the Offering in like Manner, by the Kings of Arms.

Then the two Senior Heralds attended the Duke of Newcastle, the next Knight in Seniority, who offered in like Manner; and so on, till all the Knights, singly, or with their Companions, had offered, and were returned to the Stalls.

Divine Service went on, and being ended, the Preiate was conducted by the Serjeant of the Vestry to his Seat.

Garter then summoned the Knights under their Banners, Juniors first, which done,

The Poor Knights made their Reverences, and went out of the Choir: Then the Prebends: Then the Officers of Arms: Then the Knights, in the Order as before, except that now the Earl of Bute went as Companion with Earl Temple, and his Royal Highness Prince William alone, next before the Duke of York: Then the Officers of the Order: Then the Vice-Chamberlain, and the Sword of State: Then the Sovereign: The Band of Gentlemen Pensioners closing the Procession.

The Drums and Trumpets halted at the Foot of the Stairs.

The Poor Knights and Prebends in the Guard Chamber.

The Officers of Arms in the Presence Chamber.

The Knights Companions in the Room beyond the Presence Chamber, where dividing on either Side, His Majesty passed through, and being under the State, saluted the Knights by putting off his Cap and Feather, and then retired till Dinner Time.

When the first Service was placed on the Tables, the Officers and Knights being in their Order as before, and His Majesty under the State, a Procession was made to St. George's Hall, viz. The Officers of Arms: The Knights: The Officers of the Order: The Vice-Chamberlain: The Sword: The Sovereign.

The Officers of Arms divided at the lower End of the Hall; the Knights above them on either Side, the Seniors uppermost: The Officers of the Order proceeded before the Sovereign to the Haut-pas, and then went behind the Knights.

The Sovereign being under the State, saluted the Knights; and their Royal Highnesses ascending the Haut pas, stood at the Ends of the Table.

Grace being said by the Prelate, the Sovereign sat down: His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland sitting at the End of the Table on His Majesty's Right Hand; and below him Prince William: And at the End of the Table, on His Majesty's Left Hand, sat his Royal Highness the Duke of York; and below him Prince Henry.

The Knights sat at a long Table on the Sovereign's Right Hand, all on the Inside next the Wall, to which they were conducted by the Officers of Arms, the Seniors first, entering at the lower End.

Towards the latter End of the first Course, a Cup being brought to the Sovereign by the Cup-Bearer, His Majesty commanded Garter to signify to the Knights, that he drank to them: Whereupon the Knights standing up uncovered, all-together pledged the Sovereign, the Trumpets sounding; and then sat down, and put on their Caps.

The second Course was brought in as follows, the Trumpets sounding.

Four Serjeants at Arms with their Maces, Two and Two.

Comptroller and Treasurer of the Household.

The Sewer.

Gentlemen Pensioners bearing the Dish.

Two Clerks of the Green Cloth.

Two Clerks Comptrollers.

A Clerk of the Kitchen.

Immediately after the second Course was served up Garter, attended by all the Officers of Arms, advanced from the lower End of the Hall, with the usual Reverences, to the Haut-pas; and Garter standing upon the first Step, and crying Largefs thrice, proclaimed the Sovereign's Style in Latin, French, and English.

Garter then bowing to his Royal Highness Prince William, he stood up, taking off his Cap and Feather; and Garter crying Largefs twice, proclaimed his Royal Highness's Style in English.

The Officers of Arms then retired backwards, with their usual Reverences, till they came opposite to the Earl of Bute; who standing up uncovered, Garter, with one Largefs, proclaimed his Style in English.

The Banquet was afterwards brought up to the Sovereign's Table, with the same Ceremony as before.

Dinner being ended, the Knights placed themselves on either Side, at the upper End of the Hall; and Grace being said by the Prelate, and the Sovereign having washed, the Knights all-together made their Reverences to His Majesty, who put off his Cap and re-saluted them: And a Procession was made back to the Presence Chamber, in the same Order they came from thence.

Eton College, September 25.

This Morning their Majesties, on their Return from Windsor, honoured the College with their Presence, being attended by the Lords and Ladies of the Court.

They were waited on by the Provost and Fellows at the Great Gates of the College, and conducted into the School, where the Masters were prepared to receive them, with the Scholars standing in their Places, to the Number of 500.

Their Majesties passed between them to their Chairs at the upper End of the School; and being seated, the Company standing behind their Chairs, one of the Scholars advanced from his Place into the Middle of the School, and addressed the King in a Speech in English; which was very graciously received by His Majesty.

Their Majesties had then the Condescension to look into the Long Chamber or Dormitory. In the Interim the Scholars and Masters went into the Chapel, and took their Places there. On their Majesties coming into the Chapel, a solemn Piece of Musick was performed on the Organ, accompanied with many other Instruments.

Their Majesties walked the whole Length of the Chapel to the Rails of the Communion Table, viewing the Scholars on each Side, and expressed very great Satisfaction in the Sight. From thence Their Majesties went to the Hall, and to the Library, where many of the young Noblemen were presented to Them; and the valuable Collection of Drawings, &c. belonging to the College, being carried into the Election-Chamber, a Room adjoining, they were pleased to spend a considerable Time in examining what was most worthy of Notice.

On their going down from the Provost's Lodge into the Quadrangle, the whole School was drawn up in several Lines to receive their Majesties, and saluted them as they went into their Chaise, with a joyful Cry of, Vivant Rex & Regina.

My Lord Chamberlain, by His Majesty's Order, left a very noble Present, amounting to 230l. to be disposed of as the Provost and Masters of the School should think best.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 17th Day of September, 1762,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the 9th of April last, for prohibiting the Exporting out of this Kingdom, or carrying Coastwise, Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, will expire upon the 29th Day of October next: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, Require, Prohibit and Command, That no Person or Persons whatsoever (except the Master General, Lieutenant General, or Principal Officers of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service) do, at any Time, during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the said 29th Day of October next, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, or ship or lade any Gunpowder, Salt Petre, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, on Board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, or carrying the same Coastwise, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring and suffering the respective Forfeitures and Penalties inflicted by an Act passed in the Twenty Ninth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, entitled, "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Salt Petre, and to enforce the Law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms and Ammunition; and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying Coastwise of Salt Petre, Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition." And the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master General of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Blair.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 17th Day of September, 1762,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the 2d of April last, to direct, That the Bounties of Six Pounds for every able Seaman, and of Three Pounds for every ordinary Seaman, should continue to be paid to every such able and ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Eighteen Years, who should, on or before the 31st Day of May last, voluntarily enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships, or the Chief Officers on Board such Tenders as should be employed for raising Men for the Service of His Majesty's Royal Navy: And also that the Bounty of Thirty Shillings should be continued to be paid to every able bodied Landman not above the Age of Thirty Five, nor under the Age of Eighteen Years, who should, on or before the said 31st Day of May last, voluntarily enter themselves in like Manner to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy; and that a Reward of five Pounds for every able, and of Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every ordinary Seaman, should continue to be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who may secret themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's said Service, on or before the said Thirty-first Day of May last. — And whereas the Time limited for paying the said Bounties and Rewards hath been continued and extended to the 30th of this Instant September; And it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the same should be continued for some Time longer; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Rewards, be prolonged and extended from the said 30th Day of this Instant September, to the 30th Day of November next. And that the said Bounties and Rewards be paid in the Manner directed by His Majesty's aforementioned Order in Council of the 2d of April last. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

W. Blair.

St. James's, September 28.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council, of the City of Gloucester, has been presented to His Majesty by George Augustus Selwyn, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously,

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Common Council of the City of Gloucester, in Council assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Council of Gloucester, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our sincerest Congratulations on the safe Delivery of the Queen, and the Birth of a Prince, the first Pledge of your own, and of your People's Happiness: Circumstances these the more endearing to us, as happening on a Day so propitious to the Laws, Liberties, and Religion of Britain, by the Accession of your Illustrious House.

This Increase of your Majesty's Family affords us the most pleasing Prospect of a long Continuance of National Felicity; and fills our Hearts with grateful Sentiments to the Supreme Disposer of Events, and Author of all Blessings.

Our ardent Prayers to the Almighty are, That your Majesty may long, very long, reign over us, the Darling and Happiness of your Subjects: And when it shall please Him to take you to Himself, that the Prince, formed by the Example, and educated by the Precepts of his Royal Parents, may shine distinguished by those Virtues which adorn a Throne, and render the Reigns of Princes glorious to themselves, and a Blessing to Mankind.

Given under our Common Seal, in our Council Chamber, the 16th Day of September, in the Year of our Lord 1762.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Capital Burgeses of Monmouth, has been presented to His Majesty by Norborne Berkley, Esq; being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Capital Burgeses of Monmouth, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

IN this Time of Public Joy and Congratulation upon Her Majesty's safe Delivery, and the important Birth of the Prince, it would ill become your Majesty's loyal and faithful Corporation of Monmouth to be silent on so happy an Event; an Event doubly interesting; to your Majesty, in blessing you with an Heir to your Imperial Crown; and to your People, in a further Security to their Rights and Liberties, by the Addition of a Prince to your Royal Family; a Family of Patriotic Principles, and the Protestant Religion.

The Subject is extensive, and opens an ample Field for Oratory and Declamation; but we have no Talents for either; no; our Characteristics are Plainness and Sincerity; the Latter now dictates our Professions; and it is with that, and the most cordial Duty and Affection, we felicitate your Majesty on this joyful Occasion.

May his Royal Highness the Infant be long a Blessing and Comfort to your Majesty and the Queen: May his Judgment and Virtues grow up and ripen with his Years: May he answer the warmest Wishes and Expectations already formed of him from your Majesty's Royal Tuition and Example: And, in fine, may he, in due Time, be, what your Majesty now is, the Glory and Delight of the British Nation.

Given under our Common Seal at our Guildhall, the Fourth Day of September, 1762, and in the Second Year of your Majesty's most gracious Reign.

Breslaw, September 12. It is reported here, that Marshal Daun had detached General Haddick into Lusatia; and that the King of Prussia had thought proper, some Days ago, to send Major General Schmettau with a small Corps towards Hirschberg, to watch the Motions of General Haddick; and we hear that Schmettau's Corps has since received a small Reinforcement. Marshal Daun, with the Gros of his Army, continues in his former Position near Glatz; his Head Quarters at Scharfeneck. The Corps of the Prussians, which blocks up Schweidnitz on the Side of the Schweidnitz Wasser, has been reinforced with some Battalions, to prevent the Garrison from making their Escape that Way, when the Town shall be reduced to Extremity, and obliged to capitulate.

The Mine which should have been ready as Yesterday, has been retarded by some Springs of Water, which obliged the Miners to abandon their first Plan; but it is expected it will be played off in a very few Days.

Copenhagen, September 14. On Thursday last, the 9th Instant, the Marriage between the King of Denmark's Second Daughter and the Hereditary Prince of Hesse, was publickly declared at Court.

Ober Rosa, opposite Wetter, September 17. Yesterday Morning his Serene Highness gave out the Disposition for the March from the Camp at Swartzenbern, and for an Attack to be made upon the Enemy on the Heights of Wetter, where they had a very considerable Corps under M. Conflans, and M. Levy, supported by the Prince of Condé's whole Force on this Side the Lahn, with the Army under the two Marshals, close on the Banks on the other Side. General Conway marched by the Right on the Night of the 15th, with a very considerable Body, all Germans, except Mompesson's Brigade: He crossed about three Leagues above Wetter, with Orders to march, and attack their Left, which was posted about the Town, as soon as he should see the Army appear on the Plain in Front. Luckner, who crossed still higher than the said General, was to make a larger Circle, and get into the Rear of their Left, with the Chasseurs of the Army, six Battalions of Grenadiers, and two Regiments of Cavalry, besides Elliott's, and his own Hussars. All this was conducted with the utmost Precision, and all the Columns were at their several Destinations at a Moment. Luckner began with a very brisk Cannonade on the Back of the Hill above the Town, from whence the Enemy very soon retired. We cannonaded the Town for some Time; but on General Conway's coming up, they quitted it, and retired in a good Deal of Confusion up the Hill; and soon from thence over the Lahn, their Rear being smartly cannonaded.

Brunswick, September 21. The Hereditary Prince has been removed to Munden, on the Confluence of the Fulda and the Werra, for the Safety of his Person: And the Day after his Arrival there, his Wound was opened and dilated; which Operation, though extremely painful, his Serene Highness bore with the greatest Patience and Magnanimity.

The Siege of Cassel, which had been suspended, is now again to take Place. The Troops that had been detached from thence are now returning; and the heavy Artillery, that had been sent away, is ordered back.

Hamburg, September 21. Syndic Amfinck and Senator Rieche, lately sent to England as Deputies, on the Part of this Republick, to compliment His Majesty upon his Accession to the Throne, are returned hither from their Embassy.

Hague, September 21. We hear from Berlin, that the Russian Troops have evacuated Memel, Pilau, and the whole Kingdom of Prussia.

Hague, September 24. There are no Letters from the Army since the 17th. Prince Ferdinand's Head Quarters continued then at Wetter, his Posts extending from Wartzbach upon the Lahn, to Hombourg upon the Ohme. General Freytag had defeated a Body of the Enemy between Alstedt and Newstadt, which had attempted to intercept the Bread-waggon Train.

Admiralty Office, September 27.

His Majesty's Ships the Venus and Lark have sent into Plymouth the Carnabel Privateer of St. Sebastians, of Eight Catriage Guns and Eighty Men, which they took the 15th Instant, in the Latitude of 47° 47', Longitude West from London 14° 20', the Ram Head bearing North 68° 10' East, distant 137 Leagues.

Whitehall, September 18, 1762.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that the House of Harriot Fenner, of Brown's Buildings St. Mary Ax, in the City of London, was broke open between Monday the 9th and Friday the 13th of August last, and robbed of sundry Pieces of Plate, Jewels and Wearing Apparel, to the Amount of upwards of Four Hundred Pounds, by Persons unknown; His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Robbery, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

EGREMONT.

And as a farther Encouragement, I do hereby promise a Reward of Twenty Guinea to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid; to be paid by me upon Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

Harriot Fenner.

Cardiff, September 22, 1762.

Notice is hereby given, that a General Meeting of His Majesty's Lieutenantcy for the County of Glamorgan, will be held at the Bear Inn in Cowbridge in the said County, on Tuesday the 26th Day of October next, at Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon, being one of the Days fixed to consider of, and carry into Execution, the Act of Parliament lately passed relating to the Militia Forces.

Hen. Llewellyn, Clerk of the General Meeting.

Admiralty-Office, September 13, 1762.

Notice is hereby given, that in Pursuance to the Direction of an Act of Parliament passed in the 32d Year of His late Majesty's Reign, entitled, An Act for the Encouragement of Seamen, and for the Prevention of Piracies and Robberies by Crews of Private Ships of War, a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Goal Delivery for the Tryal of Offences committed on the High Seas within the Jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held on Friday the 29th Day of October next, at Justice Hall in the Old Bailey, London, at Eight of the Clock in the Morning.

J. Cleveland.

General Post Office, July 24, 1762.

Whereas the Post Boy bringing the Mail from Bath, was, on the 22d Instant, between the Hours of Ten and Eleven o'Clock at Night, attacked in his Way to Petty France in Gloucestershire, and robbed by three Foot Pads in Sailors Habits, of the Mail containing the following Bags, viz. The Bag from Bath for London, and also the Bye Bag from Bath for Teabury, Cirencester, Farringdon, and Oxford.

This is to give Notice, that whosoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, the Persons concerned in committing the said Robbery, of whom no particular Descriptions are as yet come to hand, will be entitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament: Or if any Person or Persons, whether an Accomplice in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, shall make Discovery whereby any of the Persons concerned in the same may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer or Discoverers shall, upon Conviction of any of the Parties, be intitled to the same Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and also His Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post-master General,
Henry Potts, Secretary.
