

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday October 19, to Saturday October 23, 1762.

St. James's, October 23.

THE following Address of the Lieutenant Governor, Council and Assembly of the Province of Nova Scotia or Acadie, having been transmitted by Jonathan Belcher, Esq; Lieutenant Governor of the said Province, to the Earl of Egremont, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lieutenant Governor, Council, and Assembly, of the Province of Nova Scotia, or Acadie.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lieutenant Governor, Council, and Assembly, of your Majesty's Province of Nova Scotia, met in General Assembly, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our humblest and most fervent Congratulations on the joyful and auspicious Event of your Majesty's Royal Marriage with a Princess Illustrious in Birth, Accomplishments, and Virtues.

Whatever Happiness a People could hope for, your Majesty's Subjects must enjoy from an Union, wherein the Royal Example may so powerfully excite every Sentiment and Disposition productive of the full and permanent Possession of human Felicity.

May Providence graciously succeed the Wisdom of all your Majesty's Designs and Measures; that in making your Subjects the happiest of People, your Majesty may ever continue the happiest of Monarchs.

Jonathan Belcher, Lieutenant Governor.

For and on Behalf of the Council,

John Collier, Speaker.

For the House of Assembly,

William Nesbitt, Speaker.

Halifax in the Province of Nova Scotia, this 3d Day of May 1762.

The following Address of the Sovereign, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Corporation of Belfast, having been transmitted to the Earl of Donegal, has been presented to His Majesty by the Earl of Halifax, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Sovereign, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Corporation of Belfast, most humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the Birth of the Prince, and the safe Delivery of Her Majesty.

With inexpressible Pleasure we reflect upon the Happiness which must accrue to your Majesty from this great Event; nor can we at the same Time forget how nearly we are interested, from the Prospect it affords, of our being governed by Princes of your Majesty's Illustrious House.

[ Price Six-Pence. ]

While the Subjects of most other Princes may consider the Birth of a Prince as an additional Link to their Chains, it is our peculiar Happiness and Glory, that every Addition to your Royal Line becomes a new Pledge for the Security of our Religion, Laws and Liberties.

These inimitable Blessings we have already uninterruptedly enjoyed for three Generations, under your Majesty and your Illustrious Ancestors, to whom the Laws have been an invariable Rule of Conduct, and the Happiness of their Subjects the constant Aim of all their Actions.

That His Royal Highness may long live to imitate your Majesty's Royal Virtues; and there may never be wanting a Prince descended from your Majesty to sway the Sceptre of these Realms, and to perpetuate the Happiness we now enjoy to our latest Posterity, shall be our constant and most earnest Wish.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Nobility, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Somerset, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Nobility, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Somerset, assembled at the Quarter Sessions, October the Fifth, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-two.

BE pleased, most gracious Sovereign, to permit us your Majesty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects, to express our exceeding great Joy on the Birth of the Prince, and the Safety of the Queen. We doubt not but by your Majesty's Instructions and Example, his Royal Highness will prove the Support of our Constitution in Church and State.

We likewise desire to congratulate your Majesty on the important Conquest of the Havannah.

May you, Great Sir, and your Posterity, reap the Benefits of a Just, a Glorious, and a Lasting Peace. And may unerring Wisdom so guide your Steps, that the Affections of your People may increase with the Number of your Days, and future Ages, with grateful Admiration, commemorate the Happiness of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Corporation of Ipswich in the County of Suffolk, has been presented to His Majesty by Thomas Staunton, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty