St. James's, November 6.

The following Address of the Nobility, Gentry, and Clergy, of the County of Northampton, has been presented to His Majesty by the Earl of Halifax, Lord Lieutenant of the said County, and one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentry, and Clergy, of the County of Northampton.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, and Clergy, of the County of Northampton, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most sincere Congratulations on the Birth of an Heir Apparent to the Crown of Great Britain. The Experience of the many Blessings, which this Nation now enjoys under your Majesty's Gracious Government, and which it has long enjoyed under your Majesty's Royal Ancestors, could not fail of producing in our Hearts the most ardent and anxious Wishes for their Permanency and Stability. We therefore express our unfeigned Joy on this great and auspicious Event, so promisory of our future Happiness, and look forward to the Effects of your Majesty's excellent Example and Parental Instructions to the Prince of Wales, as insuring the Accomplishment of our most sanguine Expectations for us and our Posterity.

Your Majesty will permit us to add our further Congratulations on the late important Successes of your Majesty's Forces in the Reduction of the Havannah, and the Retaking of the Fort of St. John's on the Island of Newfoundland; by which our Enemies are made sensible not only of the Superiority of the British Arms, but also of the particular Favour, which the Divine Providence bestows on the Justice of the Cause in which they are engaged: Successes, which must tend to the speedy Establishment of a glorious and lasting Peace, the only Addition which your Majesty has yet to make to the Happiness of your Subjects. May a long, peaceful, and prosperous Reign, give your Majesty and your Illustrious Consort an extensive Share in this Happiness! And at a distant, far distant Period, may the British Crown, with all the additional Lustre, which it must derive from its being long worn by your Majesty, descend to the Prince of Wales, and through him to a Race of Princes of your Royal House, till Time shall be no more!

The following Address of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin, having been transmitted to the Earl of Halifax, Lord Lieutenant

Lieutenant of Ireland, and one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave, with all Humility, to congratulate your Majesty upon the signal and unspeakable Advantage gained by your Arms over the King of Spain, in the Reduction of the Havannah with its Dependencies. A Conquest attended with every glorious Circumstance that could give it Lustre, or add to its Importance against an Enemy, whom every Motive of Equity and due Regard for the Rights of others, had conspired to make a Friend.

The manifold Successes, with which, in the Course of this War, it hath pleased the Almighty to bless your Majesty's Arms, and to reward and forward those righteous Purposes, which made that War necessary on the Part of Britain, while they strike us with Surprise, and warm us with Gratitude, do, at the same Time, inspire us with the highest Confidence in your Measures. We see Enterprizes projected, embarrassed with Difficulties seeming unmountable, and big with Danger as with Importance, yet wisely suited by your Majesty to the Aid and Abilities of those gallant Men, to whom their Execution was committed; and who, by executing those Enterprizes with the Spirit with which they were greatly conceived, have proved your Majesty's just Discernment in the Choice of them for such important Purposes, and have for ever endeared themselves to your Majesty and to their Country.

By this Harmony of wise Councils with corresponding Effects, have we seen an Enemy, whose ambitious Views had long threatened the Independence of Europe, humbled and brought low, and driven to seek Assistance from an Ally, whose Efforts have afforded none, and have but served to make it manifest, that the Resources which your Majesty finds in the Affections of your People, are not to be exhausted, and minister a Strength to your Arm, thus raised in the great Cause of Justice and of Liberty, which, we trust, no earthly Power can confound.

From Reflections such as these, and the Confidence we derive from them, do we taste the Sweets of Repose and Comforts of Security, amidst the Din of Arms, and the Alarms of War. And we beseech your Majesty to be assured, that we feel the deepest Sense of these Blessings. And that the true Loyalty, which hath ever distinguished our City to their best Kings, and which naturally led them to an early and zealous Attachment to your Royal House, shall ever remain with us unalterably confirmed towards your Majesty's Person and Government, trusting, that we shall merit that Grace, Favour and Protection, which your Majesty's Royal Dispositions incline you to impart to a dutiful, a loyal, and an affectionate People.

In Testimony whereof we have caused the Common Seal of the said City to be herewith affixed, this Fifteenth Day of October, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-two.

The following Address of the Provost, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth near Dublin, having been transmitted by the Earl of Halifax, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and of one His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by Him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth near Dublin.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth near Dublin, most humbly intreat your gracious Acceptance of our sincerest Congratulations on the Reduction of the Havannah with all its Dependencies: An Enterprize planned with that Judgment, conducted with that Ability, and executed with that Intrepidity, which have so remarkably distinguished the extensive Operations of this ever memorable War.

While your Enemies observe, that Difficulties and Dangers serve only to excite and display the irreconcilable Valour of your Fleets and Armies, they must, at the same Time, admire the truly heroick Greatness of your Royal Mind, which, while it chastises their Insolence, compassionates their Distress; and, superior to the Allurements of Conquest and Ambition, never loses Sight of that Object, which alone can justify the Devastations of War, a safe and honourable Peace.

We shall, as it is our Duty, offer up incessant Prayers, that your Enemies, taught by their repeated Losses, and your Illustrious Example, may submit to such Terms of Accommodation as the Dignity of your Crown, and the Security of the Commercial Rights and Interests of your Kingdoms require: That after having gloriously terminated this just and necessary War, your Majesty may have full Leisure to pursue the happy Bent of your Royal Disposition, in the Protection, Encouragement, and Improvement of the more useful, though less shining, Arts of Peace.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Nobility, and Grand Jury of the County of Waterford, having been transmitted to the Earl of Halifax, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Nobility, and Grand Jury of the County of Waterford, at the General Assizes held at Black Fryars in and for the said County, on the Twenty-fifth Day of September, 1762.

WE your Majesty's ever loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Nobility, High Sheriff, and Grand Jury, at said Assizes, with Hearts full of unfeigned Joy, most humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the Birth of your Royal Son.

We should be insensible indeed, did we not feel, and with the deepest Gratitude acknowledge, the many invaluable Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's just and gentle Administration; and did we not, at the same Time, rejoice at the pleasing Prospect of having those Blessings continued to us by a long Line of Kings in your Illustrious House.

While other Nations are suffering the sad Calamities of War and Civil Faction, with Adoration and Thankfulness to His Goodness, we behold the Supreme Ruler of All Things crowning your Majesty's Righteous Arms with a Series of signal Successes, and inspiring the Minds of your Subjects with an Unanimity and Affection to their beloved Monarch, not to be paralleled in History.

That your Majesty and your Royal Consort may long enjoy the Sweets of every domestick Comfort; and the Glory that still attends on truly Patriot Princes, shall ever be our most ardent Wishes and Prayers. And also that there may never be wanting an Heir to your Majesty's Crown and Virtues, who may secure to us and the rest of your Subjects, the true and solid Delights that flow from Religion uncorrupted, and rational inviolated Liberty.

The following Address of the Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, and Clergy, of the County of Leicester, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, and Clergy, of the County of Leicester.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, attentive to whatever adds to your private Happiness, beg Leave, amidst the general Joy of this Nation, to solicitate our Sovereign on the happy Occasion of the Birth of his Royal Highness the Prince, and the safe Recovery of our Gracious Queen; the only Events requisite to make our Joy complete in this glorious Period of Time.

It is with peculiar Satisfaction we see the Happiness of the King, and the Glory of the People, so immediately connected, at a Time, when the Wisdom of His Councils, and the Success of His Arms, (under the Protection of the Almighty) unknown in former Ages, afford us, every Day, Matter of Triumph, and must, we trust, e'er long, force the Haughtiest of His Enemies to accept of equitable Terms of Peace.

In order therefore to secure these Blessings to future Generations, we supplicate the Divine Goodness to give Length of Days to your Majesty and your Royal Consort: That the Prince of Wales, formed by your Patriot Principles, and taught by your great Example, may, though late, very late, ascend the Throne of these Kingdoms, adorned with all the Virtues, and blessed with all the Glory of his truly great and illustrious Predecessor.

The following Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Custos Rotulorum, Nobility, Gentry, and Clergy, of the County Palatine of Durham, has been presented to His Majesty by the Hon. Frederic Vane, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, Custos Rotulorum, Nobility, Gentry, and Clergy, of the County Palatine of Durham, humbly beseech your Majesty to accept our most cordial Congratulations upon the late signal Instance of the Divine Favour towards your Majesty and your Kingdoms, in so early blessing your auspicious Marriage, by the safe Delivery of your Royal Consort, and the happy Birth of a Prince of Wales.

As the memorable Day, which introduced this most desired Event, revives in our Memories a grateful Sense of that uninterrupted Course of Liberty and Prosperity, which these Nations have enjoyed for near Half a Century, under the Government of your Royal House, and do now enjoy in the fullest Manner under your Majesty's benign and equitable Reign; so does the Importance of it complete our Hopes and Assurances, under the Favour of the Almighty, of the Perpetuity of these Blessings; and that the great and distinguished Virtues, we so justly reverse, and so sensibly experience in your Majesty's Person and Character, will be transmitted, through your Royal Line, and from your Royal Pattern and Instruction, to our latest Posterity.

May the Prince your Son, Sir, grow up, and flourish under your paternal Care, and illustrious Example; and may these Nations be blessed, though late, with the beneficial Fruits of them, when it shall please God to call him, by the Order of Time, or the Will of His Providence, to represent your Virtues, as well as Dignity, on the Throne of these Kingdoms. May your domestick Life, and that of our Royal Consort, be ever crowned with the pleasing Joys of filial Love and conjugal Affection, and with frequent Returns of our zealous Congratulations on the like interesting Occasion. And may your publick Administration be continually attended with Glory and Success; and the vigorous Measures, you have so wisely and prosperously pursued for the Honour of your Crown, and the Security and Happiness of your Dominions, be speedily rewarded with an advantageous and lasting Peace; whereof the late Reduction of the Havannah by the undaunted Bravery of your Armies and Fleets, gives us the surest Earnest: Upon which most seasonable and important Event, we farther beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty; and wishal, to add our most fervent Prayers, that you may long continue to enjoy the substantial Fruits of your many and glorious Victories, with Quiet and Dignity; revered Abroad, and beloved and obeyed at Home; triumphing over your Enemies by your Arms or your Clemency, and reigning in the Hearts of your loyal and affectionate People, by the strongest Ties of Duty and of Gratitude.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the City of Durham, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously,

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the City of Durham, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the safe Delivery of our most Gracious Queen, and the Birth of a Prince, Heir Apparent to the Crown of these Kingdoms.

As we must ever retain a grateful Remembrance of that Happiness which we have so long enjoyed under the mild Administration of your Majesty, and the Government of your illustrious Family, it is with the utmost Pleasure we reflect upon an Event, which promises to perpetuate those Blessings to our Posterity. And as we are sensible, that the Preservation of our Religious and Civil Liberties depends (under God) upon the Continuance of the Crown in your Royal Line; so we feel a peculiar Satisfaction in this Prospect of it, which the Divine Providence has vouched to this Nation.

We also beg Leave further to congratulate your Majesty upon the repeated Success of your Majesty's Arms, and more particularly for that signal Instance of the Divine Favour, in the late Reduction of the Havannah and its Dependencies: A Conquest not more important for the Riches it contained, than glorious for the Difficulties that attended it, being universally deemed impregnable, until this happy Era of your Majesty's most auspicious Reign.

May the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, and the unparalleled Bravery of your Fleets and Armies, be attended with Success equal to the Justice of your Cause, and the Uprightness of your Intention, till this destructive War ends in a Peace honourable and advantageous to this Nation, and happy for the general Repose of every Quarter of the Globe.

Given under our Common Seal, at the City of Durham, this Twelfth Day of October, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-two.

The following Address of the Alderman, Recorder, Coroner, Assistant Justices, Capital Burgesses and Burgesses of the Common-Council of the Borough of Bury St. Edmund in the County of Suffolk, has been presented to His Majesty by the Hon. Augustus John Hervey, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Alderman, Recorder, Coroner, Assistant Justices, Capital Burgesses and Burgesses of the Common-Council of the Borough of Bury St. Edmund in the County of Suffolk, in Council assembled, Humbly beg Leave, with great Cheerfulness of Heart, and in the sincerest Manner, to offer up our warmest Congratulations to your Majesty on the auspicious Birth of the Prince of Wales, a wish'd-for Increase of your Majesty's August Family: An Event, which not only adds to your Majesty's domestick Felicities, but is greatly interesting, and of the highest Importance to the whole Kingdom, inas much as we have a Princely Pledge and Assurance of having preserved to us the free and full Enjoyment of our Religious and Civil Rights: And may the Royal Infant, under your Majesty's Example, Instruction, and Precepts, become the undoubted Means of diffusing and perpetuating true Happiness and Liberty throughout the British Nation.

Permit us, Royal Sir, in like Manner, to congratulate you on Her Majesty's safe and happy Recovery: A Queen of Royal Dignity, and, by Unity of Judgment, acknowledged the Pride and Glory of Her People.

The signal Victories obtained by the intrepid Bravery of your Majesty's Forces, are Appearances to us astonishing beyond Expression, and seem to be the Result of Royal Wisdom, founded on just Judgments, executed by a providential unerring Hand, for which we never fail to rejoice and pray.

And as this favourable Opportunity offers, we cannot omit humbly to congratulate your Majesty on the late triumphant Conquest of the Havannah, which so gloriously adds Lustre to the rest.

Permit us also to acknowledge and assure your Majesty of our firm and steady Attachment to your Royal Person, Family, and Government

And we beg Leave further to add, that it shall be our ardent Prayers and constant Wishes, that the same Providence, which hath hitherto blessed your Majesty with a Train of prosperous Events, may continue His Blessing with a numerous Off-spring, that from Generation to Generation, one of your illustrious House may ever inherit, reign, and rule over us.

Given under the Common Seal of the said Borough, the Twenty-eighth Day of October, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-two.

The following Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of the Town of Kingston upon Hull, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir George Montgomery Metham, Knt. one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgesses of the Town of Kingston upon Hull.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgesses of your Town of Kingston upon Hull, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the Queen's late happy Delivery of a Prince: An Event, which must greatly add to your Majesty's domestick Happiness, and gives infinite Joy to all your Subjects. We cannot, upon this joyful Occasion, but call to Mind the many great Blessings we have enjoyed ever since the Accession of your August Family to the Throne of these Kingdoms, and please ourselves with the Prospect of a long Continuance of them to our Posterity, under a Prince sprung from such illustrious Parents, and trained up under the Influence and Example of your Majesty's great and eminent Virtues. These, and the Zeal your Majesty has, on many Occasions, been graciously pleased to express for maintaining the Rights, Liberties, and Prosperity of your Subjects, must ever endear your Majesty to them, and make them rejoice on every Occurrence, which may contribute to the private Happiness of your Majesty and your Royal Family; and may Heaven continue to shower down its choicest Blessings upon both.

We also beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the great and glorious Success of your Majesty's Arms in the Reduction of the Havannah and its Dependencies, notwithstanding the many Difficulties in the Attempt, and the vigorous Opposition to it. And we cannot sufficiently admire and praise the Valour and Impetuity shewn by your Majesty's Forces, as well by Sea as Land, in accomplishing of it, nor express the great Joy it gives to all your Majesty's Subjects.

The Conquest of a Place of so great Importance to the Spanish Empire, in the West Indies, and the making Prize of the Ships of War and Treasure found in it, must strike a Terror into our Enemies, and should convince them of the Vanity, as well as Injustice, of the late Bourbon Compact, and of the War commenced in Consequence of it, by the King of Spain, against your Majesty, and your Ally the King of Portugal, without Provocation, and contrary to the Faith of many Treaties. But whatever our Enemies may think of it, we trust in God, that this Success will enable your Majesty so to distress them, as to oblige them to sue to your Majesty for Peace, and to make such Concessions as your Majesty, in your great Wisdom, shall think consistent with your Glory, adequate to the great Expence of Blood and Treasure they have occasioned to us, and necessary for the Preservation of the Rights, Honour and Trade of your Dominions, from all future Violations. And we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will cheerfully contribute, to the utmost of our Abilities, to support your Majesty's Endeavours to these Ends.

Given under our Common Seal this Nineteenth Day of October, in the Second Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Bailiffs, Burgesses and Commonalty of the Borough of Tewkesbury in the County of Gloucester, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir William Codrington, Bart. one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Burgesses and Commonalty of the Borough of Tewkesbury in the County of Gloucester, in Common Council assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgesses and Commonalty of the Borough of Tewkesbury in the County of Gloucester, sensible of every Occurrence that tends to the Increase of your Majesty's Happiness, humbly beg Leave to offer our most sincere Congratulations to your Majesty upon the Birth of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales. An Event presaging to us, that the many inestimable Blessings we enjoy under your most auspicious Government, will be transmitted to future Generations.

And

And permit us, Great Sir, at the same Time, to congratulate your Majesty on the late glorious Success of your Arms, in the Reduction of the Havannah. A Conquest no less important, from the many Advantages which result from its Situation, than from the Conviction which it imprints on your Majesty's Enemies, in the very Commencement of the War, how much it is their Interest to keep Peace with your Majesty: A Conquest, which from the Manner in which it has been acquired, reflects the highest Honour on the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, the Conduct of your Commanders, and the Intrepidity of your Fleets and Armies.

To these we add our fervent Prayers, That your Majesty may long reign over a free, loyal and brave People: That his Royal Highness the Prince, formed by the great Example and Precepts of a Patriot King, may prove a Blessing to your Majesty and your Subjects; and that a continued Series of Success may attend your Majesty's Arms, till your Enemies shall be compelled to accept such a Peace as your Majesty shall think consistent with the true Dignity and Honour of your Crown, and the future Safety and Well-being of your Kingdoms.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Tolsey in the said Borough, the Fourteenth Day of October, in the Second Year of your Majesty's Reign.

May the same Providence, which has so signally prospered your Majesty's glorious Reign, not only preserve His Royal Highness, but also endue him with such Virtues and Abilities, as will enable him to be a glorious Instrument of Happiness to these Nations, and, in the Fulness of Time, to transmit entire to Posterity, those Blessings we enjoy under the Government of your Majesty's most August House.

DR. JAMES'S Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of His MAJESTY'S ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many Thousand Cases) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure.

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleuritis, Quincies, acute Rheumatisms, and the Lowness of Spirits, and Uncertainties proceeding from slow and latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; it is extremely effectual in the Small-Pox, Measles, and St. Anthony's Fire; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church Yard, London; and by J. Hoey, jun. in Skinner Row, Dublin; at 2s. 6d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again.

* See a Dissertation on Fevers, and other Inflammatory Distempers, sold at the Places above-mentioned. Price 6d.
