

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday November 27, to Tuesday November 30, 1762.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 17th of November, 1762,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the 17th of September last, to direct, That the several Bounties therein mentioned, should continue to be paid to every Able and Ordinary Seaman, and Able Bodied Landman, who should voluntarily enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Navy on or before the Thirtieth Day of this Instant November: And also, that the Rewards therein mentioned, for discovering Able and Ordinary Seamen, who should secret themselves, should likewise continue to be paid to any Person who should discover such Seamen, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's Service — His Majesty having this Day taken the said Order into Consideration, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy-Council, to declare, That the said Bounties and Rewards shall from henceforth cease, determine, and be no longer paid or payable, any Thing therein contained to the Contrary notwithstanding. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice and govern themselves accordingly.

Hen. Fane.

St. James's, November 30.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town Clerk, and Common Council of the Borough of Boston in the County of Lincoln, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Hon. Lord Robert Bertie, and John Michell, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town Clerk, and Common Council of the ancient Borough of Boston in the County of Lincoln, most humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most sincere and warmest Congratulations upon the Birth of a Prince, and the perfect Recovery of your most illustrious and most amiable Consort.

No Event can be more interesting to these Kingdoms: It must give the highest Satisfaction to your Majesty, both as King and Parent, to contemplate, that this Prince will probably govern the Descendants of those Subjects, for whose Honour and Prosperity you are so truly anxious; and those Subjects cannot but be completely happy from the Consideration, that he will learn to govern their Posterity from your great Example.

Long may your Majesty and your Royal Consort enjoy every Blessing in this World; and may the Prince of Wales at length succeed your Majesty, shining and eminent, like you, in every Station of Life, in which it shall please the Almighty to place him.

Permit us, at the same Time, Royal Sir, to congratulate your Majesty upon the Reduction of the Havannah and its Dependencies; a Conquest of the utmost Importance to this Nation, attempted in vain by the Arms of your Royal Predecessors, and reserved to add a peculiar Brightness to the Glories of your Majesty's Reign.

The Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils in this Measure, and the Conduct, Bravery, and Unanimity of those who carried it into Execution, are eminently conspicuous, and highly deserving of the united Praise and Admiration of a grateful People.

May uninterrupted Success attend your Majesty's Arms, till that Success shall secure an honourable and lasting Peace, the great Object of your Royal and benevolent Mind.

Given under our Common Seal at the Guildhall of the said Borough, this 8th Day of October, in the Year of our Lord; 1762.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeses of the Borough of Abingdon, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeses of the Borough of Abingdon, most humbly beg Leave to offer our Congratulations upon the Birth of a Prince, the Heir of your Throne, the future Sovereign and Defender of the Rights and Liberties of a Free and Great Kingdom.

This Event (so propitious to your Majesty's own domestick Happiness, and that of your Royal Consort) promises your grateful Subjects, to their latest Posterity, the Enjoyment of those peculiar Blessings, which have so eminently distinguished the Administration of your Majesty's Government.

A Prince thus descended, formed, and conducted by your Majesty's paternal Tenderness and consummate Wisdom, cannot fail of becoming a Pattern of your great and exalted Virtues, must add Lustre to the Throne of his most renowned Ancestors, and make your Majesty's revered Name and Virtues the Subject