Custom House, London, December 8, 1762.

Whereas on Wednesday the 1st Day of September last, about Eight of the Clock at Night, a most violent Outrage was committed on the Person of Joseph Manuel, of Iford in the Parish of Christ Church Twynham in the County of Southampton, Labourer, by a Gang of supposed Smuglers, consisting of Eight Persons, who, (under Pretence of being a Press Gang) in an outrageous Manner, forced open the Door of the House of William Manuel, Father of the said Joseph Manuel, at Iford aforesaid, violently seized his Son the said Joseph Manuel: said they were King's Men, and dragged him by Force out of the House, carried him across the Heath to the Sea Shore towards Poole, and forced him down to Bourn Mouth to a lonely House there, called the Decoy-hound House, notoriously frequented by Smuglers, where, after he had been some little Time confined, he was put into a Boat, afterwards thrown into the Sea, and then carried on board a Smuggling Cutter called the Ranger Privateer of Guernsey, Thomas Donnal, Commander, and well known amongst the Smuglers by the Name of the Dorcas Cutter, which soon after got under Sail and put to Sea: That, in their Passage to Alderney, and after their Arrival there, the said Joseph Manuel was treated with great Cruelty, and would probably have been murdered, if some few of the Crew relenting had not interposed: That the said Joseph Manuel was compelled to fire off (with intent, as it is supposed, to destroy him,) an overcharged Blunderbuss, which burst, and tore off his Left Thumb: That having been left in this Condition at Alderney, he found Means since to escape from thence, and to return Home.

This Outrage having been committed on Account of the said Joseph Manuel's being supposed to have given Information to the Officers of the Revenue; and there being great Reason to believe that it was not (as some of them have declared) any Resentment of their own, that induced the Master and Crew of the Ranger, otherwise called the Dorcas Cutter, to commit this audacious Outrage, but that they were hired or instigated to do it by some of the principal Smuglers on that Part of the Coasts of Dorsetshire and Hampshire:

The Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, in order to bring the Offenders to Justice, and to suppress the notorious Smuggling now most audaciously carried on upon that Part of those Coasts, do hereby promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds, to any Person or Persons who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, any one or more of the principal Offenders or Ringleaders of this Gang, and more especially the Person who first entered the House of the said William Manuel, and pretended to have the King's Authority—the said Thomas Donnal, who commanded the Vessel or Smuggling Cutter when Joseph Manuel was forced on Board, the Persons who threw him into the Sea, or who forced him to fire off the overcharged Blunderbuss above-mentioned; to be paid by the Receiver General of His Majesty's Customs upon Conviction. And the said Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do also promise the like Reward of Fifty Pounds, to any Person or Persons who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, any of the Persons by whose Means or Instigation any of the Offenders before-mentioned were hired or induced to commit the said Outrage, to be likewise paid by the Receiver General of His Majesty's Customs upon Conviction.

By Order of the Commissioners,
Wm. Wood, Secretary.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Companies of His Majesty's Sloops undermentioned, who were on board them at taking and retaking the Prizes hereafter mentioned, that they will be paid their respective Shares of them, as the French Horn in Crutched Fryers, the 15th of December 1762, viz.

Wolf and Flamboro's Prize, for the Produce of the Hull and Bounty of the Bonne Foy French Privateer taken, and Salvage for the Pennington Sloop retaken, in Company with the Family Privateer of Hastings. Salvage for the Produce of the Hull and Bounty for the French Privateer Le Plutus.

And the Shares remaining unpaid will be recalled at the French Horn in Crutched Fryers the first Thursday in every Month for three Years after the first Payment.
