A T the Court at St. Jamer's, the 29th Day of December, 1763,

PRESENT.

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

VHereas Signior Francis D'Ageno, Minister of the most Serene Republick of Genoa, hath by Memorial to His Majefty at this Board reprefented, That the Advantages the faid Republick have lately gained over the Rebellious Faction in the Kingdom of Corfica, are now become manifest, as well by the happy Successes of their Arms, as by the great Number of Inhabitants who daily return to their Duty towards their lawful Sovereign, and give the Republick the greatest Hopes of being able to re-cstablish Peace and Tranquility throughout that Ifland, and which would have been already accomplished, if the Chiefs of the Rebels had not eluded it, by exciting the Spirit of Revolting amongst the Inhabitants. in Hopes of drawing Succours from Foreign Veficis; and therefore the faid Minister humbly requested, that His Majesty would be pleafed to give the most express Orders to all His Subjects not to have or hold any Correspondence with the faid Rebels, nor to furnish them with any Kind of Succours whatfoever, agreeable to what was enjoined upon a like Occasion by Order of His late Majefly in Council, dated the 10th of May 1753 : Hi; Majefty having taken the faid Memorial into His Royal Confideration, and being desirous of giving all forther just and reasonable Satisfaction to His Majelly's faid good Friends and Allies the Republick of Genoa, and to maintain inviolably the Peace and Friendthip subfifting between His Majefty and them, is hereby pleafed, with the Advice of His Privy Council, frietly to charge and com-mand all His Majefty's Subjects, of what Condition foever they be, that they forbear to give or furnish Aid, Aflittance, Countenance or Succour, by any Ways or Means whatloever, to any of the Inhabitants of the Island of Corfica, in Rebellion against the faid most Serene Republick, upon Pain not only of His Majefty's high Displeasure, but of fuffering such Punishment as by Law may be inflicted on such as wilfully violate His Majefly's Treaties, and in-fringe the Peace and Friendship subsisting between His Majesty and any Foreign Princes or States — And to the End that all His Majefty's Subjects may be informed hereof, it is His Majesty's Commands, that this Order be Printed and Published in the London Gazette.

Copy of a Letter from New York, November 309

Since 1 wrote to you this Morning by the Pacquets which I hope will carry this, one of our P ivatiers has fent in a Prize here, taken out of a Fleet of French Men bound from Cape François to France: This Fleet confifted of about 25 Sail of Merchant Veffels ander Convoy of three King's Frigates, and a Merchant Frigate of 18 Guns. There were three Privatiers belonging to this Place, and four Weft India Privatiers cruizing together, and fell in with them. In the Night they took five Veffels out of the Fleet: And next Day, Commodore Keppel, who was cruizing there with feven Men of War, appeared in Sight of the French Fleet, and, with the Pri-vatiers, has taken every one of them. Commodore Keppel has carried the Four Frigates and Eighteen Merchantmen to Jamaica : They are all richly loaded with Sugar, Coffee, and Indigo. Three more are ordered here, and expected every Hour.

Ratisbon, December 19. The Day before Yefterday the Ministers of the feveral States, that compose the Circle of Bavaria, affembled here; and the Subject of their Conference is reported to be, the Recalling their Contingent from the Army of the Empire.
