The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Signior Francis D'Ageno, Minister of the most Serene Republick of Genoa, hath by Memorial to His Majesty at this Board represented, That the Advantages the said Republick have lately gained over the Rebellious Faction in the Kingdom of Corsica, are now become manifest, as well by the happy Successes of their Arms, as by the great Number of Inhabitants who daily return to their Duty towards their lawful Sovereign, and give the Republick the greatest Hopes of being able to re-establish Peace and Tranquility throughout that Island, and which would have been already accomplished, if the Chiefs of the Rebels had not eluded it, by exciting the Spirit of Revolving amongst the Inhabitants, in Hopes of drawing Succours from Foreign Vessels; and therefore the said Minister humbly requested, that His Majesty would be pleased to give the most expresse Orders to all His Subjects not to have or hold any Correspondence with the said Rebels, nor to furnish them with any Kind of Succours whatsoever, agreeable to what was enjoined upon a like Occasion by Order of His late Majesty in Council, dated the 10th of May 1753: His Majesty having taken the said Memorial into His Royal Consideration, and being desirous of giving all further just and reasonable Satisfaction to His Majesty's said good Friends and Allies the Republick of Genoa, and to maintain inviolably the Peace and Friendship subsisting between His Majesty and them, is hereby pleased, with the Advice of His Privy Council, strictly to charge and command all His Majesty's Subjects, of what Condition soever they be, that they forbear to give or furnish Aid, Assistance, Countenance or Succour, by any Ways or Means whatsoever, to any of the Inhabitants of the Island of Corsica, in Rebellion against the said most Serene Republick, upon Pain not only of His Majesty's high Displeasure, but of suffering such Punishment as by Law may be insisted on such as wilfully violate His Majesty's Treaties, and infringe the Peace and Friendship subsisting between His Majesty and any Foreign Princes or States — And to the End that all His Majesty's Subjects may be informed hereof, it is His Majesty's Commands, that this Order be Printed and Published in the London Gazette.

Copy of a Letter from New York, November 30th 1762.

Since I wrote to you this Morning by the Pacquet, which I hope will carry this, one of our Privatiers has sent in a Prize here, taken out of a Fleet of French Men bound from Cape Francois to France: This Fleet consisted of about 25 Sail of Merchant Vessels under Convoy of three King's Frigates, and a Merchant Frigate of 18 Guns. There were three Privatiers belonging to this Place, and four West India Privatiers cruising together, and fell in with them. In the Night they took five Vessels out of the Fleet: And next Day, Commodore Keppel, who was cruising there with seven Men of War, appeared in Sight of the French Fleet, and, with the Privatiers, has taken every one of them. Commodore Keppel has carried the Four Frigates and Eighteen Merchantmen to Jamaica: They are all richly loaded with Sugar, Coffee, and Indigo. Three more are ordered here, and expected every Hour.

Ratisbon, December 19. The Day before Yesterday the Ministers of the several States, that compose the Circle of Bavaria, assembled here; and the Subject of their Conference is reported to be, the Recalling their Contingent from the Army of the Empire.

Berlin, December 21. The respective Armies in Saxony, and in Silesia, enjoy their Winter Quarters with the greatest Tranquility. We are still uninformed here, whether Major General Kleist is returned from his Expedition into the Empire.

Cologne, December 24. We have received Advice by an Express, that the Day before Yesterday a Detachment of the Garrison of Wesel entered Crevelt; who sealed up several Merchants Books, and seized Messr. Vander-Leyen, two Brothers, for the Payment of 175,000 Crowns, Contributions demanded of Crevelt. As the Gates of Wesel continue shut, and Nobody goes out or comes in, we do not know what passes there.

Yesterday the Military Chest of the Army of the Lower Rhine, was sent from hence to France, escorted by sixty Horse.
