AT the Court at St. James's, the 29th Day of December, 1762,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Signior Francis D'Agèno, Minister of the most Serene Republick of Genoa, hath by Memorial to His Majesty at this Board represented, That the Advantages the said Republick have lately gained over the Rebellious Faction in the Kingdom of Corfica, are now become manifest, as well by the happy Successes of their Arms, as by the great Number of Inhabitants who daily return to their Duty towards their lawful Sovereign, and give the Republick the greatest Hopes of being able to re-establish Peace and Tranquility throughout that Island, and which would have been already accomplished, if the Chiefs of the Rebels had not eluded it, by exciting the Spirit of Revolting amongst the Inhabitants, in Hopes of drawing Succours from Foreign Vessels; and therefore the said Minister humbly requested, that His Majesty would be pleased to give the most expresse Orders to all His Subjects not to have or hold any Correspondence with the said Rebels, nor to furnish them with any Kind of Succours whatsoever, agreeable to what was enjoined upon a like Occasion by Order of His late Majesty in Council, dated the 10th of May 1753: His Majesty having taken the said Memorial into His Royal Consideration, and being desirous of giving all further just and reasonable Satisfaction to His Majesty's said good Friends and Allies the Republick of Genoa, and to maintain inviolably the Peace and Friendship subsisting between His Majesty and them, is hereby pleased, with the Advice of His Privy Council, strictly to charge and command all His Majesty's Subjects, of what Condition soever they be, that they forbear to give or furnish Aid, Assistance, Countenance or Succour, by any Ways or Means whatsoever, to any of the Inhabitants of the Island of Corfica, in Rebellion against the said most Serene Republick, upon Pain not only of His Majesty's high Displeasure, but of suffering such Punishment as by Law may be inflicted on such as wilfully violate His Majesty's Treaties, and infringe the Peace and Friendship subsisting between His Majesty and any Foreign Princes or States — And to the End that all His Majesty's Subjects may be informed hereof, it is His Majesty's Commands, that this Order be Printed and Published in the London Gazette.

Hen. Fane.

[Price Three-pence.]

St. James's, January 7.

This Day Lacky Abdeleader Hadiel, Ambassador from the Emperor of Morocco, had his first Audience of His Majesty, to deliver his Credential Letters.

To which he was introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Egremont, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State; and conducted by Stephen Cottrell, Esq; Assistant Master of the Ceremonies.

Whitehall, January 8, 1763.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that an anonymous Letter has been sent by the General Post to Vice Admiral Holburne, at the Dock Yard at Portsmouth, Hants, threatening to shoot him the said Vice Admiral; His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in writing and sending the said Letter, is pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any of them (except the Person who actually wrote the said threatening Letter) who shall discover his, her, or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

EGREMONT.

And as a farther Encouragement for the making of such Discovery as aforesaid, my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty do hereby promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds, to be paid by Samuel Seddon, Esq; their Solicitor, upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.

J. Cleveland.
