Whitehall, January 11, 1763.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that Richard Preston stands charged, on Oath, with the cruel Murder and Robbery of a young Man in the Month of June 1759, in a Wood at Higuey, in the Parish of Ramsey in Huntingdonshire; in order for the apprehending and bringing to Justice the said Richard Preston, His Majesty does hereby grant a Reward of One Hundred Pounds, to any Person or Persons, who shall apprehend, or be the Means of apprehending the said Richard Preston; to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, upon the Commitment of him or them Richard Preston, to Prison. EGREMON.

The said Richard Preston lived, about a Year before he committed the above Fact, at Stowe near Kimbolton, Huntingdonshire; which Place he left for Sheep-Stealing, and has lately resided at Woolby in Warwickshire, in a Cottage there, with a Woman, who lived with one Jackson. The said Preston is a Labourer, aged about 50 Years, about 5 Feet 6 or 7 Inches high, brown Complexion, grey Eyes, a Scar on his upper Lip, and, about a Year ago, wore a brown Coat, and brown Bob Wig. Richard Keen, an Accomplice in the said Murder, is now in Huntingdon Goal.
