Copenhagen, February 1.

HIS Excellency Count Holstein of Lethra-bourg, First Minister in the Council, Chief of the Danish Chancery, and Secretary of State for the Kingdoms of Denmark and Norway, died here on the 29th past, after a very short Illness, occasioned by an Inflammatory Disorder in his Lungs, at the Age of 68.

Saturday the 29th past, having been the Anniversary of the Prince Royal's Birth-day, who then entered into the 15th Year of his Age, the same was celebrated with the usual Demonstrations of Joy.
Princess Louisa's Birth-day, falling upon Sunday the 30th, the Celebration of it was put off till the next Day.

Two Days before his Birth-day, the Prince passed, with great Applause, through his yearly Examination in Literature and Science. The Examiners were several Ecclesiastics, and other learned Men, his Danish Majesty being present, with his Chief Ministers and Officers of State.

Berlin, February 8: All Military Preparations are slopt. The Regiments that are to garrison the Places in Prussia, and on the Lower Rhine, will march forthwith out of Saxony. Those which are to be quartered in Pomerania, and in the Marches of Brandenbourg, cannot move so soon, but must probably remain till the Rivers are thawed; so that it is doubted whether Saxony can be totally evacuated before the End of next Month.

The Queen of Prussia and the rest of the Royal Family are expected here by the End of this, or Beginning of the next Week.

His Royal Highness Prince Henry of Prussia returned last Night from Rhinberg.

Willemstadt, February 15. Twenty Transports of the Second Division, under Convoy of the Hornet Sloop, arrived here this Day. The Three Regiments of the Blues, Carabineers, and Honeywood, and the Three Battalions of Guards, will be embarked by the 23d.

Hague, February 18. By our last Advices from the Army of the Circles we hear, that the Dislocation of it was already begun, the Palatine Troops, under the Command of General Efferen, being already on their March Home.

Whitehall, February 22.

The King has been pleased to grant unto William Levinz, Esq; the Office of Receiver General and Cashier of His Majesty's Customs.

The King has been pleased to grant unto Christopher Rigby, and John Kenrick, Esqrs. the Office of Receiver General of the Duties on Stamp Vellum, Parchment, and Paper, and all other Duties under the Management and Care of the Commissioners appointed to manage the several Duties on Stamp Vellum, Parchment, and Paper.

Beaufort House, February 15.

This Day Lacky Abdelcader Hadiel, Ambassador from the Emperor of Morocco, had a private Audience of his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland.

To which he was introduced by Stephen Cottrell, Esq; Assistant Master of the Ceremonies.

Saville House, February 17.

This Day Prince Sanseverino Albertini, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of the Two Sicilies,

[Price Three pence.]

had an Audience of Leave of his Royal Highness the Duke of York.

And afterwards of her Royal Highness the Princess Augusta at Leicester House.

To both which he was introduced by Stephen Cottrell, Esq; Assistant Master of the Ceremonies.

Admiralty Office, February 19.

Pursuant to an Act of Parliament passed in the 26th Year of His late Majesty's Reign, this is to give Notice to the Concerned, that Information has been sent to this Office, That on Tuesday the 15th Instant, the Ship Nancy, Charles Young, Master, of the Burthen of 150 Tons, which was bound from London to Lisbon, laden with Barley, Wheat, and Bale Goods, being off Beachy Head, about Three o'Clock in the Morning, in a Storm of Wind, the Corn shifting, was blown on her Lee Side, when the Hatches were under Water; and the Ship being Water logg'd, and in Danger of Foundering, the Master was obliged to run her ashore at Farleight, to the Eastward of Hastings in the County of Suffex, where, by the Violence of the Sea, she was broke to Pieces, and the Crew with Difficulty saved their Lives.

Admiralty Office, February 21.

Pursuant to an Act of Parliament passed in the 26th Year of His late Majesty's Reign, Notice is hereby given to the Concerned, that Information has been sent to this Office, That a Sloop or Vessel, called the Richard and Anna, Matthew Langrish late Master, laden with Portland Stone, Malt, Strong Beer, Butter, Twine, and Brandy, set sail the 12th Instant from Weymouth in Dorsetshire, bound for London, and, on the 16th, in the Night, the Sea running high, she was drove ashore, and struck about a Quarter of a Mile to the Westward of Rottingdean Gap in the County of Suffex, and the next Morning bulged; when all the Beer and Brandy, and One Hundred and Forty-one Tubs of Butter, with Two Packs of Twine, were saved; and the Beer is locked up in a Barn at Rottingdean, by the Officers of His Majesty's Customs; and the Butter, Brandy, and Twine, is carried to Brighthelmstone, under the Care of Mr. Edward Davis, at that Place: That the Malt was all lost, and the Hull of the Ship beaten to Pieces, but the Anchors, Cables, Sails, Boom, Boltsprit and Graft, were saved.
