Moscow, February 14, N. S. The Baron de Breteuil leaves this Country the Beginning of April. He returns to Paris before he sets out upon his Embassy to Sweden. Count Caunitz leaves Moscow To-morrow upon his Return to Vienna.

Ratisbon, March 3. They write from Bareuth, that the Margrave died there in the Night between the 26th and 27th of last Month; and that Baron de Ellrod set out the next Day for Wansbeck near Hambourg, where the Margrave Frederick Christian, Successor of the late Prince, now resides, to concert with his Highness what is necessary in order to his Taking Possession of the States devolved to him by the Death of the Prince above mentioned.

Warsaw, March 5. The King of Poland has kept his Chamber ever since his Illness.

This being the Name-day of his Polish Majesty, it will be celebrated with all possible Demonstrations of Joy; and a magnificent Fire-work will be played off in the Evening before the Palace.

Vienna, March 9. The Day before Yesterday, Yesterday, and To-day, have been observed as Thanksgiving Days for the Peace; and To-morrow Te Deum will be sung in the Cathedral, under the Discharge of the Artillery of our Ramparts. The Prussian Artillery found in Glatz is transporting little by little from hence, to be delivered up with that Fortress to his Prussian Majesty. The Imperial Regiments have begun their March to the Quarters assigned them.

Vienna, March 12. Their Imperial Majesties, accompanied by the Arch-dukes and Duchesses, assisted at the Te Deum which was sung the 10th of this Month in the Cathedral Church, on the Re-establishment of the Peace. The Prussian Officers, Prisoners of War, who were at Crems, and other Places, are arrived here, and were admitted that Day to congratulate the Empress Queen on the Peace, and to kiss her Majesty's Hand. They were treated with great Distinction, and Civility. The Letters from Warsaw say, the King of Poland continues to be indisposed.

Nuremberg, March 12. The Army of the Empire are actually separated. The Contingents of Passau and Ratisbon, as well as the Regiments of Suabia, marched the 9th upon their Return home. The Contingents of Franconia are also in March.

According to a Conclusum made by the Diet of Franconia, their Troops will continue to receive Pay till the 1st of April next, when Half of them will be discharged, as well as great Part of the Commissaries, Officers of Artillery, &c.

The Count of Solms, who commands the Saxons, has informed the Diet of the Circle of Franconia by Letter, that he has received Orders from his Court to return home with the Troops under his Command, and that he intends to begin his March the 14th at latest, in four Columns.

By Advice from Wansbeck, we hear, the present Margrave of Bareuth is so ill there, that it is uncertain when his Highness will arrive at Bareuth.

Nuremberg, March 15. The Troops of Saxe Meiningen, that were in the Army of the Empire, have in their Way Home been disarmed, and carried Prisoners to Cobourg, by the Troops of the Dukes of Saxe Gotha, Cobourg, and Hildbourghaufen. The said Dukes still insist upon Exercising the joint Guardianship of Meiningen; however it is hoped, that this Affair will soon be terminated in an amicable Manner.

The Duke of Saxe Cobourg has sent Baron Schlammerdorff as his Minister to the Diet of Franconia, to take Care of the Interests of the Saxon Houses in this Affair of Meiningen.

Copenhagen, March 5. On the 3d Instant was performed the annual Ceremony of Opening the High Court of Justice; but the King of Denmark did not assist at it in Person, as usual, having been prevented by some Indisposition. This however was of no long Continuance, and happily proved
