[ Price Three Pence. ]

Presence of the Privy Council, and other Perfons of Distinction, as to his Attainments in Religion and Literature, and gave great Satisfaction, though his Royal Highness is but in the Tenth Year of his Age.

Three Danish Officers, viz. Captains Becker, Basballe, and Arff, who went as Volunteers into the French Service, and were taken Prifoners by the English in the late War, have been rewarded by his Most Christian Majesty with the Order For Military Merit.

A few Days ago his Danish Majesty made a numerous Promotion of Sea Officers among the lower Claffes, and admitted 22 new Cadets upon that Establishment. The Guardships are now brought out into the Road, and will foon repair to their refpec-tive Stations. Orders are likewile issued to fit out a supernumerary Frigate ; but with no other Intent, than to exercise the Cadets in the Month of May.

This Capital continues fickly; and the Diffemper of the Horned Cattle is not hitherto abated.

Ratifbon, March 26. The 17th of this Month, there appeared a Decree of the Aulick Council touching the Affair of Saxe Meiningen. In confequence, a new Refeript was addreffed to the Dukes of Saxe Cobourg, Gotha, and Hildbourghausen, notifying, that Madam the Dutchess Dowager of Saxe Meiningen has again reprefented to his Impe-rial Majefty, the Violences committed by the Troops of the faid Princes against the Dutchy and City of Meiningen, the Subjects of which they had difarmed and forced to pay Homage, caufing thereby great Damages, Loss and Expences to the Dutchels and her Children. And as this Princess had implored the Emperor and Empire to fuccour her against those Outrages, his Imperial Majesty ordered the faid Dukes to comply, not only with the precedent Decrees, but alfo if, contrary to all Expectation, they had not yet obeyed them, to indemnify the faid Dutchels for all Charges and Damages the had fuffered, or to expect without fail Military Execution. To render this Decree more efficacious, his Imperial Majesty addressed the fame Day a Rescript to the Princes Directors of the Circles of Franconia and Saxony, informing them, that, though his Imperial Majefty doubted not their having executed his Decree of the 25th of February, yet if, contrary to all Expectation, there should be any Thing unexecuted, they are to proceed without Delay to the Execution of it, by protecting the Dutchels Dowager, her Children, and Subjects, against the faid Dukes, and to entirely re-establish Tranquillity and Peace. The to entirely re-establish Tranquillity and Peace. The faid Dukes are cited by the same Decree to appear before the Tribunal in Two Months, in order to examine whether they are guilty of the Infraction of the Publick Peace, and liable to pay the Fine of 2000 Marks of pure Gold. And as the Dutcheis Dowager, by the Report made to his Imperial Ma-jefty the 12th of this Month, had made a Declaration, conformable in all Points to the Imperial Decree of the 25th of February, his Imperial Majefty orders this Declaration to be communicated to the faid Dukes for their Information, and declares, at the fame Time, the Dütchefs Dowager the fole Guardian

Guardian of the Children of the late Duke Anthony Ufric born of this Princefs, who is thereby named the only Regent of the Country, and her Mandatary admitted to take the Oath of Guardianship. Con-Sequendy, the Imperial Decree, which confirms her in this Quality, is to be dispatched by the Chancery; whilft the Demand of the faid Dukes is rejected, and the Regency of Meiningen, the Provincial States, and the Subjects, are injoined to acknowledge and respect this Princess as their sole Regent. As the Imperial Decrees, relating to the Children of the Duke of Saxe Meiningen by the first Marriage, are reiteratedly confirmed by this; it is also ordered, that the Letter, which the Prince Barnard Erneft, eldeft Son of this Marriage, addressed to his Im-perial Majesty the 14th of this Month for himself and his Brocher, shall be returned by the Chancery, he naving made Use in that Letter, of the Title, Arms, Seal, and Name of a Duke of Saxony, contrary to the Imperial Decrees, and the Avis of the Empire in 1747. It is to be remarked, that this Prince and his Brother, fince their deceased Mother was raifed to the Dignity of Princets by the Empero: Charles VI, have been and are acknowledged for Princes, tut not for Dukes of Saxony. Ratifbon March 28. His Imperial Majefty has named Count Seidewitz, Imperial Con-Commissary here, his Commiffary for the Election of a new Bifhop of Ratifbon; for which Prince Clement of S xonv, the Bishop of Augsbourg, the Provost of Eliwang, and Count Koenigsfeld, are Candidates.
