

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday April 19, to Saturday April 23, 1763.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 20th Day of April, 1763,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty in Council was this Day pleased to declare the Right Honourable Hugh Earl of Northumberland, Lieutenant General, and General Governor of His Majesty's Kingdom of Ireland.

This Day the Right Honourable William Earl of Shelburne, Charles Spencer, Esq; commonly called Lord Charles Spencer, Comptroller of His Majesty's Household, Richard Rigby and James Oswald, Esqrs. were, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, and took their respective Places at the Board accordingly.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 22d Day of April, 1763,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

His Majesty having been pleased to deliver the Custody of the Privy Seal to his Grace George Duke of Marlborough, the Oath of Keeper of the Privy Seal was this Day administered to him, and his Grace took his Place at the Board accordingly.

This Day the Right Honourable Stephen Earl of Ichelter, was, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

St. James's, April 23.

The following Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Warwick, has been presented to His Majesty by the Earl of Hertford, Lord Lieutenant of the said County, and Sir Charles Morcaunt, Bart. one of their Representatives in Parliament: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Warwick, assembled at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace held at Warwick, in and for the said County, this Twelfth Day of April, 1763.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most faithful, loyal, and obedient Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Warwick, beg Leave humbly to offer to your Majesty our sincere Congratulations upon the happy Conclusion of a Safe and Honourable Peace.

In the Midst of Victory, and Glory, your Majesty's paternal Affection has obliged you to feel for those Distresses of your People, which are the inseparable Attendants even of the most successful and triumphant War.

What, Sir, you have felt, you have relieved; and the firm solid Basis, upon which you have established the Tranquillity of your Kingdoms, demands every thing from us in Return, which Duty can dictate and Gratitude approve.

If any Thing can add to the Happiness of our present Situation, it is the Prospect (under Providence) of its Continuance; for your Majesty has been pleased to recommend Oeconomy from the Throne, with an Earnestness worthy the Importance of it: A strict and general Exercise of this great public Virtue, will contribute to the Security of the not to be broken with Impunity; for we are convinced by Experience, that nothing but real Strength and Vigour at Home, can command a proper Respect and Influence Abroad.

Permit us, Sir, to assure your Majesty with all Confidence, that we will constantly and cheerfully unite with our Fellow Subjects, in supporting every Measure of Government, which your Majesty's Goodness shall prescribe, for the Honour and lasting Interest of your Kingdoms.

The following Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Custos Rotulorum, Justices of the Peace, and other Gentlemen of the County of Dorset, has been presented to His Majesty by the Earl of Shaftesbury, Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum of the said County, accompanied by several Noblemen of the County, Humphry Sturt, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, and many other Gentlemen of the County of Dorset, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Custos Rotulorum, Justices of the Peace, and other Gentlemen of the County of Dorset, assembled at the Quarter Sessions at Sherborne, the 12th of April, 1763.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum, Justices of the Peace, and other Gentlemen of the County of Dorset, Beg Leave to offer our humble Congratulations to your Majesty on the General Peace, which your Majesty's Wisdom and Moderation have seasonably and honourably accomplished.

The great Extent of your Majesty's Power, has been demonstrated by the unparalleled Bravery and glorious Successes of your Fleets and Armies, in every Part of the World, during the late War; which being ended on Terms clear, equitable, and explicit, we have the most reasonable Grounds to hope, that this Blessing will be of a long Continuance.

The extensive Acquisitions now established in different Parts of the Globe, afford ample Scope for exerting the Arts of Peace, to the great Increase of the Manufactures, and Trade, and consequently, of the Riches and Strength of all the Dominions of the British Crown. We are perfectly convinced, that those Arts will be exerted, under a Sovereign so well known to seek His own Happiness in that of His Subjects; and we assure ourselves, the most desirable Effects will be thence derived to all your People, through your Majesty's Great and Princely Virtues, and constant Attention to their Welfare.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Oxford, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir James Dashwood, Bart. High Steward of the said City, and Sir Thomas Stapleton, Bart. one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Oxford, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person with Hearts filled with the most grateful Sense of your Majesty's