St. James's, April 26.

THE following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgeses of the Borough of Harwich, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable George Grenville, Esq; has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgeses of your Borough of Harwich,

Beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the happy Conclusion of the Definitive Treaty of Peace. We acknowledge with Gratitude, that by this Measure, a Period is given to a War, which though glorious in its Events, has in its Consequences been so expensive of the Blood, and Treasure of this Country, that it has well-nigh already exhausted every Source of its Power, and if continued, would have rendered it incapable of any future effectual Exertion for its own Defence, whenever the Enemies of this Kingdom, by any new Insult, should make it necessary.

We applaud the Wisdom of those Councils, which have, by this Peace, secured to your Kingdoms the first and great Objects of the War; and have prevented the Possibility of any future Attack in those Parts, in which this Country was most vulnerable; and have added so large and valuable Extent to its Possessions, and opened, in every Part of the World, new Sources of Wealth, and new Scenes of Employment and Commerce, in which the Industry of your People may be exerted.

These, Sir, are the Blessings which, by the Accomplishment of this great Work, you have procured for your People: Long may your Majesty live to protect us in the Enjoyment of them; and while your Enemies, who have felt the Effects of your Arms, are restrained from future Encroachments by the Terror of them, may your Subjects, industrious, and excelling in the Arts of Peace, behold you, Sir, Successful and Illustrious in the Administration of that Government, by which these Arts are encouraged; and may they continue for ever, to feel and express those Sentiments of Gratitude and Admiration that are due to the united Exertion of so much Fortitude, and so much Wisdom.

Given under our Common Seal, this 18th Day of April, 1763.

Signed by Order, and in Behalf of the Corporation,
Griffith Davies, Mayor.

These, Great Sir, were the distinguished Virtues of the Beginning of your Auspicious Reign; and we now have the highest Pleasure of seeing your Majesty the great Umpire of Peace, and Restorer of all its Blessings to your People and your Allies.

That your Majesty may long reign in this Safe and Honourable Peace, over a loyal, obedient, and grateful People, is, and shall be, the sincere Wish of us your ever dutiful Subjects.
