

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday April 26, to Saturday April 30, 1763.

St. James's, April 30.

THE following Address of the Mayor, Burgeses and Commonalty of the City of Bristol, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable Robert Nugent, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Burgeses and Commonalty of the City of Bristol, in Common Council assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgeses and Commonalty of the City of Bristol, with Hearts warm with Zeal and Gratitude, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty, on the Signature and Ratification of the Definitive Treaty; an Event that eminently displays the Wisdom and Moderation of your Majesty's Councils, and secures to us an Honourable and Advantageous Peace, the best Fruit of a Glorious and Successful War.

It is with peculiar Satisfaction we observe, that many important Acquisitions, obtained by the irresistible Bravery of your Majesty's Fleets and Armies in every Quarter of the Globe, are now ceded to Great Britain, which will not only be a Barrier to protect our Colonies and Settlements from Dispute and Violence hereafter, but greatly extend the Trade and Navigation of your Majesty's Commercial Subjects: And having an entire Confidence, that your Majesty's unwearied Attention to the Publick Welfare, will so establish the essential Interests of these Kingdoms, as to render us a flourishing and happy People, permit us, Great Sir, to assure you on our Part, that we shall at all Times endeavour to further your Majesty's most gracious Intentions, by Cultivating the Arts of Peace, and Transmitting the Blessings of it, under your Majesty's most Auspicious Reign, to our latest Posterity.

The following Address of the Master, Wardens, Assistants, and Commonalty of the Society of Merchant-Adventurers within the City of Bristol, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable Robert Nugent, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament of the said City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Master, Wardens, Assistants, and Commonalty of the Society of Merchant-Adventurers within the City of Bristol, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our sincere Congratulations on the happy Return of Peace, and our grateful Thanks for that Paternal Care and Protection, which, in the Midst of a vigorous and extensive War, was constantly afforded to the Commercial Interests of this Nation.

When we reflect on the unparalleled Successes, with which it pleased the Almighty to bless the Councils and Arms of your Majesty, and distinguish this Era as the most glorious in the Annals of Great Britain, we cannot but feel that exulting Joy, which an honest Zeal for our Country's Welfare naturally inspires; and when we calmly contemplate that heroic Moderation, and consummate Policy, with which your Majesty, as the Friend of Mankind, in the Midst of Victory, seized the happy Minute of restoring Peace to your People, to your Allies, and, by its Influence, to Europe, our Minds are filled with Admiration and Applause.

We beg Leave most humbly to assure your Majesty, that we most cheerfully rely on your Royal Assurance, for the Protection and Encouragement of our Commerce and Navigation, and shall use our utmost Endeavours to improve this happy Period, under that Protection, in extending our Trade over the vast Tract of Country which is added to your Majesty's Dominions, and thereby diffuse amongst your happy Subjects, the Fruits of your Royal Labour, in conducting so Victorious a War, and establishing so Advantageous a Peace.

The following Address of the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of the Town of Winchelsea, has been presented to His Majesty by Thomas Orby Hunter and Thomas Sewell, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of the ancient Town of Winchelsea in the County of Sussex.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of the ancient Town of Winchelsea in the County of Sussex, do most humbly beg Leave to offer our Congratulations to your Majesty, upon the happy Conclusion of the War by a Safe and Honourable Peace; a Peace, which from the vast Acquisition of Territory to your Dominions, and the ascertaining long-disputed Rights of Commerce, cannot but prove of the greatest Advantage to your People.

Your Majesty, at your Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors, found your Kingdoms involved in an expensive and bloody War, which had been entered into for the Defence of the just Rights of your People, and attended with Glory and Success; and when your Majesty's early Endeavours to restore Peace upon reasonable and honourable Terms proved ineffectual, the Vigour and Wisdom of your Majesty's Measures and Councils were exerted in the Prosecution of the War with equal Glory and Success, though against the increased and combined Force of your Enemies, till it has pleased God to enable your Majesty to conclude a Safe, Honourable, and Advantageous Peace for your People.

It is our hearty Prayer, that your Majesty may long live to enjoy the Fruits of the same, and reign