St. James's, May 3.

THE following Address of the Principal, Professors, and Masters of the Marischal College and University of Aberdeen, having been transmitted to the Earl of Bute, their Chancellor, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Principal, Professors, and Masters of the Marischal College and University of Aberdeen.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Principal, Professors, and Masters of the Marischal College and University of Aberdeen, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Throne; and to indulge those Sentiments of Gratitude and Admiration, which we find it impossible to restrain, while we contemplate your Illustrious and truly Royal Virtues, so signally displayed in conducting the late happy Event, which hath restored Peace to these your Kingdoms.

To have raised Britain to the highest Pitch of Military Honour; to have enlarged her Commerce, extended her Territories, succoured her Allies, and confounded her Foes, forms but a Part of your Majesty's Glory. It was Your's, from amidst Victory and Triumph, to look down, with Commiseration, on those domestic Sorrows, which are inseparable from the Condition of War, however equitable and however successful, and which all the Acclamations of Conquest are insufficient to alleviate; and, having amply provided, both for the Glory, and for the Security, of your Country, to put a Stop to the Ravages of the destroying Sword.

If the happy Influence of your Majesty's Example has hitherto appeared so conspicuous in the unparalleled Magnanimity of your Soldiers and Sailors; we have the greatest Reason to hope, from your distinguished Humanity, and your favourable Disposition to the Interests of Learning, that Britain shall soon be as eminent in the Arts of Peace, as She now is in Military Renown.

And we, to prove ourselves not unworthy of that Charge, with which your Majesty hath been pleased to intrust us, shall employ our most strenuous Endeavours in promoting this important End. To the Youth under our Care we shall unfold the Blessings we derive from your Majesty's Auspicious Administration: And we shall ever inculcate a grateful Sense of the many Obligations, which we owe to your Royal House. We shall labour to form their Minds to Public and to Private Virtue, and to the Love of those Arts, which embellish Life, and enoble the human Soul. Nor can our Doctrines, while this is their Tendency, ever fail of Success, recommended as they are, in so signal a Manner, by your Majesty's most Illustrious Example.

That your Majesty, rich in domestic Bliss, may long, very long, sway the Sceptre over a free, an happy, and a grateful People, is the daily, and the earnest Prayer, of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most Faithful and most Devoted Subjects,

The Principal, Professors, and Masters of the Marischal College and University of Aberdeen.

Signed, in Presence, and by Appointment of the University, at Marischal College of Aberdeen, the 23d Day of April, 1763
Years, by George Campbell, Principal.

The following Address of the Chancellour, Rector, Principal, Dean of Faculty, and Professors of the University of Glasgow, having been transmitted to the Earl of Halifax, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Chancellour, Rector, Principal, Dean of Faculty, and Professors of the University of Glasgow.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellour, Rector, Principal, Dean of Faculty, and Professors of the University of Glasgow, most humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the Conclusion of that Definitive Treaty of Peace, which has terminated, with so much Happiness and Glory, a most destructive and expensive, though very Just and Necessary War.

Your Majesty's Willingness to lay down your Arms, even when in the full Career of Conquest, has demonstrated to all the World, that your Majesty prefers the solid Reputation of being the Father and Preserver of your own People to that fatal Renown, so apt to dazzle a young Monarch, of being the Conqueror and Destroyer of rival and hostile Nations. Nor is the Humanity, the real Magnanimity and Moderation, which first prompted your Majesty to desire this salutary Object of Peace, more to be admired, than the Steadiness and Wisdom with which you conducted those Measures that led to it. By the full, vigorous and proper Exertion of the Strength of Great Britain, the Two most powerful Monarchs in Europe have been compelled to submit to those Terms, which a Paternal Regard for the Welfare of your own People, directed your Ma-jeſty to demand of them. By making Peace, at a Time when your Arms were every where victorious, your Majeſty has procured ſuch real and ſolid Advantages to your People, as cannot be paralleled by any former Treaty of Peace recorded in the Hiſtory of Great Britain.

We beg Leave, at the ſame Time, moſt humbly to congratulate your Majeſty upon the important and rich Conqueſt of the City of Manila, and of the Philippine Iſlands. Your Majeſty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects cannot contemplate, without the higheſt Pleaſure and Admiration, the immense Extent of that Plan, by which your Majeſty has carried on this glorious and ſucceſſful War, and by which the common Enemy has been, at one and the ſame Time, attacked, with equal Judgment, Vigour and good Fortune, in Europe, in the Weſt Indies, and at the furtheſt Extremity of Aſia.

That your Majeſty may long live to enjoy the happy Fruits of that Peace, which your truly Royal Generoſity and Goodneſs have beſtowed upon your People; and that the Gratitude and dutiful Affection of your Subjects may ever correſpond to that Fatherly Attention and Regard which your Majeſty has conſtantly ſhewn to their Happineſs, is the earneſt Prayer of your Majeſty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects and Servants.
