

jefty to demand of them. By making Peace, at a Time when your Arms were every where victorious, your Majesty has procured such real and solid Advantages to your People, as cannot be paralleled by any former Treaty of Peace recorded in the History of Great Britain.

We beg Leave, at the same Time, most humbly to congratulate your Majesty upon the important and rich Conquest of the City of Manila, and of the Philippine Islands. Your Majesty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects cannot contemplate, without the highest Pleasure and Admiration, the immense Extent of that Plan, by which your Majesty has carried on this glorious and successful War, and by which the common Enemy has been, at one and the same Time, attacked, with equal Judgment, Vigour and good Fortune, in Europe, in the West Indies, and at the furthest Extremity of Asia.

That your Majesty may long live to enjoy the happy Fruits of that Peace, which your truly Royal Generosity and Goodness have bestowed upon your People; and that the Gratitude and dutiful Affection of your Subjects may ever correspond to that Fatherly Attention and Regard which your Majesty has constantly shewn to their Happiness, is the earnest Prayer of your Majesty's ever dutiful and loyal Subjects and Servants.
