

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday May 3, to Saturday May 7, 1763.

St. James's, May 7.

THE following Address of the Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the happy Conclusion of a long and burthensome, though glorious and successful, War.

The Re-establishment of Peace is an Event that cannot be uninteresting to any of your Majesty's Subjects; but the peculiar Attention your Majesty has on this Occasion been pleased to bestow on the Interests of that great Branch of the National Commerce which we have the Honour to conduct, calls upon us in particular for our just Tribute of humble and grateful Acknowledgment. When we reflect on the Vicissitudes we have experienced during the last eighteen Years, for so long has the Company been engaged in an hostile Competition with the French in India, we cannot but rejoice in a State of Superiority and Security, which the Successes of the British Arms, and the Wisdom and Firmness of your Majesty's Councils, have at length obtained and established. We feel, and shall always retain, the most grateful Sense of the Support and Protection of Government during the War, by which the Company's Affairs Abroad have been recovered from a more desperate to a more prosperous Condition than has ever been known at any former Period.

We humbly entreat of your Majesty a Continuance of the same gracious and necessary Support and Protection; and beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will assiduously labour to preserve and improve the Advantages of our present Situation, and to render that invaluable Trade, which in all Ages has given Opulence and Power to the Nations that have successively enjoyed it, more extensively beneficial to the whole Community.

The following Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Nobleman, Justices of the Peace, Officers of Militia, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Huntingdon, has been presented to His Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Manchester, Lord Lieutenant of the said County, accompanied by the Earl of Sandwich, and the Right Honourable Lord Charles Greville Montagu, and the Right Honourable Lord Carysfort, Representatives in Parliament for the said County Coulson Fellowes and Charles Proby, Esqrs. Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Noblemen, Justices of the Peace, Officers of Militia, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Huntingdon, assembled at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace holden at Huntingdon by Adjournment, the thirtieth Day of April, One thousand seven hundred and sixty three.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, Noblemen, Justices of the Peace, Officers of Militia, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Huntingdon, beg Leave to express the just and grateful Sense which we have of your Majesty's Goodness to your People, in delivering them, by a Seasonable, Safe, and Honourable Peace, from the heavy Burthens and Calamities of War. For though the Success of the British Arms has been Great and Glorious in every Part of the World, yet its requisite and necessary Support became almost too grievous for the Landed Interest of the Nation. Confident of your Majesty's Care and Attention to the Welfare and Ease of all your Subjects, we firmly rely on your Majesty's Resolution and Perseverance to surmount all Obstructions that may check your Majesty's good Intentions, and are fully satisfied, that your Majesty will pursue such Measures as may tend to the Lessening the heavy Burthens brought on us by the Expences of the War, and be most conducive to the Advancement of Trade and Commerce, and to the Security of those Blessings that will make your Majesty's Name always dear to your People, and for ever memorable in the Annals of History.

May your Majesty's Reign be long and happy, and may it be no less distinguished by the Cultivation of the Arts of Peace than it has already been by Those of War; and may the Religion and Liberties of Great Britain be Sacred and Inviolable, under the constant Protection of your Majesty and your Royal House, till Time shall be no more.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgeses of the Borough of Banbury, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable Lord North, their Representative in Parliament, and Frederick Montagu, Esq; Recorder of the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address