From Tuesday May 10, to Saturday May 14, 1763.

St. James's, May 12.

THIS Day the Court of Lord Mayor (Sir Charles Asgill, Bart. locum tenens) and Aldermen of the City of London waited on His Majesty, and being introduced to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Egremont, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, James Eyre, Esq; Recorder, addressed His Majesty as followeth.

S I R,

YOUR Majesty's Faithful and Loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London, desire to be permitted to pay their humble Duty to your Majesty, and to express their Grateful Sense of your Majesty's Gracious and Benevolent Attention to the Welfare of your People, in relieving them from the increasing Burthens of a long and expensive though Glorious and Successful War.

They enter not into a particular Consideration of the National Advantages resulting from the Treaty of Peace which your Majesty has been pleased to conclude;—These have been submitted to a Constitutional Examination; but they beg Leave thus publicly to declare to your Majesty their entire Acquiescence in a Measure which your Majesty's Councils, and the Great Council of the Nation, have seen Reason to approve. And this they have thought it their Duty to do at this Time, when they have with Concern observed a Spirit of Faction unhappily arising, and are apprehensive their Silence might be interpreted an Encouragement of Practices, which their Dutiful Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government leads them to detest and abhor.

They further beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that as Magistrates to whom the Executive Power of the Government of the City of London is intrusted, it shall be their constant Endeavour to maintain and preserve Domestick Tranquility, Order, Good Government, and that true and perfect Liberty which has its Foundation in Obedience to the Laws, and of which Licentiousness, though it often assumes the Name, is, in this Country, the only Enemy.

By a Conduct so conformable to your Royal Example, they presume to hope they shall intitle themselves to the Continuance of your Majesty's Protection and Favour.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return this most gracious Answer.

I Return you My sincere Thanks for this Address, and for the Satisfaction you express in the Success of My Endeavours to restore the Public Peace.

I receive with great Pleasure the Assurance you give Me, of your Abhorrence and Detestation of those Factionous and Licentious Practices, which, alone, can endanger our present happy Settlement, after the Conclusion of Peace with all Our Foreign Enemies.

[Price Six-pence.]

Your Resolution to support, in Opposition thereto, the true Constitutional Liberty of these Kingdoms, is highly acceptable to Me.

The City of London may depend upon My constant Favour and Protection.

They were all most graciously received; and had the Honour of kissing His Majesty's Hand.

The following Address of the High Sheriff, Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and others of the County of Berks, has been presented to His Majesty by John Hippeley, Esq; Sheriff, accompanied by Henry Pye and Arthur Vansittart, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and others of the County of Berks.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE the High Sheriff, Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and others of the County of Berks, beg Leave to present to your Majesty our most sincere and hearty Congratulations on the Re-establishment of Peace; and to declare our most grateful Acknowledgments of your Majesty's tender and paternal Regard to the Happiness of your People, by putting an End to the manifold Calamities of an expensive and bloody, though just and glorious, War. An Event, which, we trust, will be attended with the greatest Advantages to us and our latest Posterity.

We most earnestly pray God to direct your Majesty's Councils to the perfect Attainment of the various Blessings and happy Fruits of Peace; and grant, that you may long live to see every Part of your Kingdoms flourishing in the full Enjoyment of all their Religious and Civil Rights, and vying with each other in Gratitude and Thankfulness for such inestimable Blessings, by a dutiful and cheerful Obedience to your Majesty's just and auspicious Government.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Gloucester, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Gloucester, in Council assembled.

AFTER having offered up, on this Day of solemn Thanksgiving, our Prayers and Praises to the Supreme Being for the happy Return of Peace, our Duty and our Inclination call us, most gracious Sovereign, to employ another Part thereof, in expressing our warmest Gratitude to the Author, under God, of this great Blessing to your Kingdoms, and to Mankind: And therefore we humbly crave Leave to hope, that your Majesty will condescend to accept of our respectful and dutiful Congratulations on such a joyful Occasion.

Neither dazzled with the Blaze of Glory, nor sacrificing the Interests of Humanity to a blood-thirsty Revenge, your Majesty, with a Firmness and Greatness of Soul becoming a Patriot King, hath terminated the most bloody and most expensive War, which this Nation ever felt, with Honour and Dignity to yourself, and with a Prospect of great Advantage to your People.

Sensible of the Wisdom, as well as the Magnanimity of these Measures, we, whose Situation near a Manufacturing Country obliged us to observe the ruinous Consequences of War daily increasing, do think it incumbent on us to express our own Sentiments, with a due Deference and Submission to better Judgments, That, while we were rising in Military Fame, we were visibly sinking in the Arts of Peace, thereby giving to our Rivals and Competitors an unspeakable Advantage over us; That the Number of our useful Hands being greatly diminished, and the Industry, the Activity, and the Ingenuity of our People taking a Turn unfavourable to Commerce, we were in imminent Danger, by a longer Prosecution of the War, to have exchanged our true Riches, our real Strength and solid Support, for a Phantom of Glory.

Relieved from these gloomy, but just Apprehensions, by your Majesty's provident Care and seasonable Interposition, we offer up, as in Duty bound, our fervent Prayers to Heaven, That you may long live to reap the Fruits of your Princely Labours; and that your People, by being duly sensible of the Happiness they enjoy under your Paternal Government, may make those grateful Returns of Loyalty and Affection, which are due to the best of Princes.

Given under our Common Seal, in our Council Chamber, the Fifth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and sixty three.

The following Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Oxford, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Oxford.

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Oxford, beg Leave to approach your Majesty's Royal Person, with our warmest Congratulations on the happy Restoration of the Publick Tranquillity; an Event which, we trust, will be attended with the most beneficial Advantages to us and our latest Posterity.

Our Hearts cannot but be filled with the strongest Sentiments of Gratitude and Duty, while we reflect on your Majesty's Affectionate Regard for the real Happiness of these Kingdoms, in putting a Period to the Calamities of an expensive although successful War by a Safe and Honourable Peace.

That disinterested Fortitude and Firmness of Mind, with which your Majesty has so vigorously prosecuted every Measure which could contribute to the Glory or to the Security of your People, has often been the Object of our Admiration. Permits us now to declare how sensibly we are affected with that distinguished Humanity of Heart, which, in the Career of Conquest, has disposed your Majesty to stop the further Effusion of human Blood, and which compleats the Character of the Victorious Hero, by making him become the Friend and Father of Mankind.

May that unbiassed Spirit of Administration, which has animated your Majesty's Councils in bringing about this important Event, still continue to be exerted, that its Effects may become no less lasting than they are Advantageous and Honourable. And may your Majesty long live to enjoy the Blessings of this Peace, and to share the filial Affections of a Dutiful and United People.

The following Address of the Custos Rotulorum, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, and Inhabitants of the City of Peterborough, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir Matthew Lamb, Bart. Custos Rotulorum of the Liberty of Peterborough, and one of their Representatives in Parliament, together with Armistead Parker, Esq; the other Representative: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Custos Rotulorum, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, and Inhabitants of the antient City of Peterborough.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Custos Rotulorum, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, and Inhabitants of the antient City of Peterborough, most humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the happy Conclusion of the Peace. For although a Just and Necessary War, which was at first entred into by your Royal Grandfather, and since carried on with such Vigour and Prudence by your Majesty, has been uncommonly Successful in every Part of the Globe, and has reflected great Glory on your Majesty's Arms; yet your Faithful and Affectionate People have, by the Continuance thereof, severely felt the Burthen of it in the great Expence of Blood and Treasure, which it has, though necessarily, occasioned. But as a Period is now put to that War, and a General Peace is restored to us, we hope the same will be firm and durable, and that we shall feel the good Consequences of it, by the Extension of our Trade and Commerce, and the Increase of our Manufactures, which may in due Time be the Means of easing your People of some of the Burthens which lie heaviest on them, occasioned by the Necessity of the Times, and by them hitherto most cheerfully borne.

That your Majesty may long live, and reign over us a free and happy People; and that all your Subjects may have a grateful Sense of the many Blessings they enjoy under your Majesty's mild and gracious Government, is our most ardent Wish and Desire.

The following Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Commonalty of the City of York, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Commonalty of the city of York, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WITH the warmest Loyalty, Duty, and Affection, we congratulate your Majesty on the happy Re-establishment of Peace, upon Terms sued for by your vanquished Enemies; dictated by your Majesty, and solemnly approved by your Parliament.

We admire your Royal Wisdom and Moderation in putting a Period to the War whilst Victory still was yours, and we acknowledge, with true Gratitude, those solid Advantages which your Majesty has procured for your People, by enlarging the Objects of our Commerce, annexing an extensive Territory to your Crown, and providing a secure Barrier for your richest and most valuable Colonies.

If the highest Honors are due to the Guardians and Deliverers of their Country, we can never too much extol that Wisdom and Valour which, in so short a Period of Time, raised the British Name to so high a Pitch of Renown. Your Majesty can boast of Patriots, equal to the greatest of Antiquity, who in so glorious a Cause preferred Hardships, Toils, and Dangers, to Affluence, Luxury, and Ease; their Eulogium is inscribed in every Quarter of the Globe, and the Glory of their Sovereign hath immortalized their Fame.

The auspicious Season is now come when the Blessings of Peace may take Place of the Horrors of War: Industry and Economy, Virtue and Reverence for the Laws, will be strenuously promoted and encouraged by so gracious and powerful a Monarch: The liberal and useful Arts, with all that can polish, without corrupting, the Manners, will feel the happy Influence of so illustrious a Patron: The Constitution itself, the Great Support of our Religion, Liberty, and Laws, cannot but acquire new Strength and Solidity from a Prince who knows the true Use of Power, and glories in the Name of Britain.

May your Majesty long enjoy the supreme Delight which results from Universal Affection and Esteem. May Loyalty, Truth and Virtue surround your Throne, and may the latest Posterity experience in your illustrious Descendants those amiable Qualities, by which your Majesty and your Royal Consort are so eminently distinguished.

Given under our Common Seal the Ninth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and sixty-three.

The following Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Bayliffes, and Burgeses of the Town and County of the Town of Haverfordwest, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir John Philipps, Bart. Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum of the Town and County of Haverfordwest, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Bayliffes, and Burgeses of your Town and County of your Town of Haverfordwest, having not presumed to trouble your Majesty with an Address upon the unparalleled Successes of your Majesty's Arms in every Quarter of the Globe, cannot now forbear to present your Majesty with our heartiest Congratulations upon the amiable Consequence of your wonderful Achievements, an Honourable and Advantageous Peace.

To conquer and enlarge Dominion may be common to other Princes with your Majesty, but to regulate Conquest by a General Good, and put a Stop to the Course of Victory, when the Necessity of War is superseded, by reasonable Conditions, is a Glory that does peculiarly distinguish and illustrate your most Excellent Majesty.

The Conduct of the War has abundantly demonstrated the Wisdom of your Counsels, and Magnanimity of Resolution; and the Conclusion of it does evince your Royal Breast to be under the Influence of Principles truly Christian and Divine.

By this Great Transaction, a Prospect of many signal Advantages arises to your Subjects, from the Accession and firm Assurance of vast Territories to the British Empire, the Interest of your Allies is promoted, and a Way paved for a total Cessation of Hostilities in Europe, too long the Stage of Desolation and Ruin.

May the God of Peace, who has made your Majesty the blessed Instrument of this Event, long continue to your Majesty the Pleasure of seeing your united People securely enjoying and thankfully acknowledging the mighty Things you have done for them; and to your People, the happy Administration of your Majesty, or one of your Illustrious Descendants, to the latest Posterity.

In Testimony whereof, we have caused the Common Seal of our Corporation to be affixed hereto, this Fifth Day of May, in the Third Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town-Clerk, and Common-Council of the Borough of Boston, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Hon. Lord Robert Bertie, one of their Representatives in Parliament: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town-Clerk, and Common-Council of the ancient Borough of Boston, have, in Obedience to your Royal Proclamation, on this Day offered our solemn and unfeigned Praise to Almighty God for His Mercy, in having put an End to the Calamities of War. Permit us, most Gracious Sovereign, in the next Place, with all possible Respect, to assure your Majesty, that our Hearts are filled with the warmest Sentiments of Esteem and Gratitude for your great Goodness in preferring the Peace and Happiness of your People to a Continuance of those Glories and Triumphs, which have attended a most successful War.

An improper Ambition might have dictated different Terms of Peace to a conquered and almost exhausted Enemy. But sound Policy, and true Greatness of Mind, tempered with a Benevolence, which does Honour to your Royal Breast, have induced your Majesty to give your Enemies such a Peace, as they might accept with some Degree of Reputation, and preserve from Motives of their own Interest: The one might have been more dazzling and more agreeable to the heated Imaginations of those who delight in War; but the Peace, which your Majesty has concluded, we trust, will prove permanent, and productive of solid Advantages to us and to our Posterity.

May Trade and Commerce add Strength, Riches, and Plenty to this Nation; may the polite Arts flourish in it, and true Religion make glad the Hearts of all your Subjects; may those Subjects shew, by the most unshaken Loyalty, and most dutiful Affection, that they deserve to be governed by a Patriot King; and may your Majesty live long to enjoy the great and peculiar Satisfaction of seeing these Nations blessed with the happy Fruits of your Majesty's constant and paternal Care for their Welfare.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the said Borough, the 5th Day of May, 1763.

The

The following Address of the Mayor and Burgeses of the Town of Nottingham, in Common-Council assembled, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgeses of the Town of Nottingham, in Common-Council assembled, humbly beg Leave to present our most sincere and unfeigned Thanks to your Majesty, for putting an End to the unavoidable Calamities of an expensive and bloody War, by a Safe, Honourable, and Advantageous Peace.

With the utmost Gratitude we acknowledge ourselves indebted to your Majesty's wise and vigorous Councils for the signal and uninterrupted Successes, which, by the Favour of the Almighty, have attended the British Arms during the Course of the late just and Necessary War, and which have enabled your Majesty to conclude a Peace so much for the Honour of your Crown, and the Interest and Security of your Dominions in every Part of the World; and from your Majesty's known Goodness and tender Regard to the Welfare of your Subjects, we with the greatest Confidence assure ourselves, that under your most Gracious and just Government, we shall enjoy all the Blessings and Advantages, which Publick Peace and Tranquility can bestow upon a loyal, united, and free People.

Truly sensible of the high Obligation we are under to your Sacred Majesty, we esteem ourselves bound, by the strongest Motives of Duty, Gratitude, and Interest, to exert our utmost Endeavours to approve ourselves true and faithful Subjects of the Best and most Beloved of Kings; and shall daily offer up our most earnest and hearty Prayers to God, that the Happiness we experience may be preserved to these Kingdoms, under your Majesty and your Royal House, to the latest Generations.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the said Town, this fourth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-three.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeses of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeses of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, in Guild assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeses of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, in Guild assembled, beg Leave to present our most humble and sincere Acknowledgments to your Majesty, for concluding a Peace so Glorious to your Majesty, and Advantageous to your Subjects, by securing so great an Addition to the Territories, Power and Commerce of the British Empire.

Our Experience of your Majesty's Royal Wisdom and steady Regard to the true Interests of your Kingdoms, both in the Conduct of War, and Conclusion of Peace, fills our Hearts with the highest Veneration and the most grateful Sentiments, and engages us to put up our most earnest Prayers to the King of Kings, that your Majesty may long continue to reign in Peace and Glory, over a free, a happy, and united People.

Given under our Common Seal the Seventh Day of May, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-three.

The following Address of the Freeholders and Commissioners of Supply of the Shire of Nairn, has been presented to His Majesty by Prife Campbell the Younger, their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Freeholders and Commissioners of Supply of the Shire of Nairn.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders and Commissioners of Supply of the Shire of Nairn, most humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon your having, very seasonably, restrained the Calamities of War, by a Treaty, which promises future Security, Grandeur and Wealth to your Kingdoms and People: Your Penetration, Fortitude, and Greatness of Soul, were gloriously displayed in the amazing Conquests and Operations of your Fleets and Armies: Now do your Wisdom, Humanity and Paternal Affection, still more gloriously shine forth in the invaluable Blessings of National Peace and Universal Tranquility.

Allow us then, Sire, to express our Happiness, in being the Subjects of a King steady and magnanimous in War, wise and deliberate in Council, humane and compassionate toward Mankind, and tender, in the most distinguished Manner, of the Interests, Rights and Liberties of the People: Endowments, which fill our Hearts with Admiration and Gratitude; and shall appear to Posterity, as clearly discernible in their happy Effects, as in the delightful Page of a faithful Historian.

May a just Sense of our superior Advantages fill the Minds of all your People with Loyalty, Affection, and Gratitude, and universally produce and cherish National Virtue and Unanimity: And may a Race of Britons, thus influenced, continue the happy Subjects of your Illustrious House, to latest Ages.

The following Address of the Provincial Synod of Galloway has been presented to His Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Queensberry: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provincial Synod of Galloway.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most loyal, faithful, and dutiful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Galloway, beg Leave humbly to congratulate your Sacred Majesty on the happy Return of Peace to these Nations.

While, warmed with a just Sense of the Divine Goodness, we adore the Almighty Hand, which hath turned this bloody and expensive War into so Happy and Glorious a Peace; how ungrateful should we be, did we not acknowledge your Majesty as the Great Instrument, under God, of procuring to us, and other Nations of Europe, this invaluable Blessing.

We

We embrace, with the utmost Joy, this Opportunity of declaring our unfeigned Satisfaction with the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils and Administration, and the Success of your Arms, by which, through the Divine Favour, a large Extent of Territory is acquired, our Commerce enlarged; and we are now happily secured in the full Enjoyment of all the Blessings of a British Constitution.

Permit us, Dread Sir, to hope, that in Consequence of this happy Peace, the Gospel of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, in its Original Purity and Simplicity, will be extended to these Nations now added to your Majesty's Dominions; and that, under your Royal Protection and Encouragement, faithful Pastors will be sent amongst them for this Great Purpose.

Permit us, likewise, to assure your Majesty, that the Increase of your Royal Family, by the Birth of the Prince of Wales, affords us the sincerest Joy: We cease not to give Thanks to our God for this Accession of Strength to your Illustrious House, whence we have the most abundant Hope, that our Liberties, Civil and Sacred, will be safely transmitted to latest Posterity.

That your Majesty may be long preserved, the Protector of our Religious and Civil Rights, and of the Liberties of Mankind: That you may be high in the special Favour of God: That He may eminently bless your Royal Consort our Gracious Queen Charlotte; His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales, are the earnest Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most Faithful, most Dutiful, and most Loyal Subjects.

The following Address of the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the Shire of Dumfries, has been presented to His Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Queensberry: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the Shire of Dumfries.

Most gracious Sovereign,
WHE your Majesty's most loyal and faithful Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the Shire of Dumfries, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty, with our sincere Congratulations on that happy Peace, by which you have put an Honourable Period to a bloody and destructive War.

While, with grateful Acknowledgment of the Goodness of Providence, we behold that War, which was begun by your Majesty's late Enemies with a View of destroying our Trade, and stripping us of our Colonies, converted into an Occasion of extending our Commerce, and acquiring new Territory; we admire the Wisdom of your Majesty's Council, which, by ascertaining with Precision the Boundaries of your late Acquisitions, hath effectually cut off those Claims, which might have become the Sources of future Wars.

That your Majesty, and your Royal Consort, may long enjoy the Fruits of that Peace, which you have so happily established; and that, till latest Posterity, your Descendants may continue to inherit that

Crown, to which your Majesty has added such valuable Acquisitions, are the sincere and ardent Wishes of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects.
Signed in Name and by Appointment of the Meeting, by Will. Kirkpatrick, Preses.

Vienna, April 23. The Letters from Constantinople say, that the Affair with regard to the Insult offered to the Venetian Ambassador's House by the Populace, is, by the Intercession of the Foreign Ministers, happily terminated.

Nuremberg, April 26. The Prince of Stolberg, after having entirely regulated the March of the Prussian Prisoners of War, set out from hence for Vienna the 25th. The said Prisoners are already arrived on the Frontiers of this Circle. They march in two Columns of 2000 Men each, the Convoy included. The first Column will arrive at Erfurth the 1st of May, and the last the 9th. We hear that seven Austrian Regiments, with a Train of Artillery, destined for the Low Countries, are upon their March. The Diet of the Circle of Franconia have ordered reiterated Remonstrances to be made to the Imperial Court concerning the Payment of the Forage, &c. which they furnished to the Austrian Troops; but the Agent of the Circle has written, that he had not as yet been able to effect any Thing with regard to the Payment.

M. Bertram, Director of Forage for the French, is returned to Paris. M. de Goerz, the French Minister, has insinuated to the Diet of the Circle, to send a Deputation to Mentz, to be there the 1st of July next, to settle the Payment for Forage.
