

The following Address of the Mayor and Burgeses of the Town of Nottingham, in Common-Council assembled, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgeses of the Town of Nottingham, in Common-Council assembled, humbly beg Leave to present our most sincere and unfeigned Thanks to your Majesty, for putting an End to the unavoidable Calamities of an expensive and bloody War, by a Safe, Honourable, and Advantageous Peace.

With the utmost Gratitude we acknowledge ourselves indebted to your Majesty's wise and vigorous Councils for the signal and uninterrupted Successes, which, by the Favour of the Almighty, have attended the British Arms during the Course of the late just and Necessary War, and which have enabled your Majesty to conclude a Peace so much for the Honour of your Crown, and the Interest and Security of your Dominions in every Part of the World; and from your Majesty's known Goodness and tender Regard to the Welfare of your Subjects, we with the greatest Confidence assure ourselves, that under your most Gracious and just Government, we shall enjoy all the Blessings and Advantages, which Publick Peace and Tranquility can bestow upon a loyal, united, and free People.

Truly sensible of the high Obligation we are under to your Sacred Majesty, we esteem ourselves bound, by the strongest Motives of Duty, Gratitude, and Interest, to exert our utmost Endeavours to approve ourselves true and faithful Subjects of the Best and most Beloved of Kings; and shall daily offer up our most earnest and hearty Prayers to God, that the Happiness we experience may be preserved to these Kingdoms, under your Majesty and your Royal House, to the latest Generations.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the said Town, this fourth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-three.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeses of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeses of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, in Guild assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeses of the Borough of Berwick upon Tweed, in Guild assembled, beg Leave to present our most humble and sincere Acknowledgments to your Majesty, for concluding a Peace so Glorious to your Majesty, and Advantageous to your Subjects, by securing so great an Addition to the Territories, Power and Commerce of the British Empire.

Our Experience of your Majesty's Royal Wisdom and steady Regard to the true Interests of your Kingdoms, both in the Conduct of War, and Conclusion of Peace, fills our Hearts with the highest Veneration and the most grateful Sentiments, and engages us to put up our most earnest Prayers to the King of Kings, that your Majesty may long continue to reign in Peace and Glory, over a free, a happy, and united People.

Given under our Common Seal the Seventh Day of May, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-three.

The following Address of the Freeholders and Commissioners of Supply of the Shire of Nairn, has been presented to His Majesty by Prife Campbell the Younger, their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Freeholders and Commissioners of Supply of the Shire of Nairn.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders and Commissioners of Supply of the Shire of Nairn, most humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon your having, very seasonably, restrained the Calamities of War, by a Treaty, which promises future Security, Grandeur and Wealth to your Kingdoms and People: Your Penetration, Fortitude, and Greatness of Soul, were gloriously displayed in the amazing Conquests and Operations of your Fleets and Armies: Now do your Wisdom, Humanity and Paternal Affection, still more gloriously shine forth in the invaluable Blessings of National Peace and Universal Tranquility.

Allow us then, Sire, to express our Happiness, in being the Subjects of a King steady and magnanimous in War, wise and deliberate in Council, humane and compassionate toward Mankind, and tender, in the most distinguished Manner, of the Interests, Rights and Liberties of the People: Endowments, which fill our Hearts with Admiration and Gratitude; and shall appear to Posterity, as clearly discernible in their happy Effects, as in the delightful Page of a faithful Historian.

May a just Sense of our superior Advantages fill the Minds of all your People with Loyalty, Affection, and Gratitude, and universally produce and cherish National Virtue and Unanimity: And may a Race of Britons, thus influenced, continue the happy Subjects of your Illustrious House, to latest Ages.

Given at Nairn the Thirtieth of April, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-three; and signed in Presence of the Freeholders and Commissioners, by Ja. Sutherland, P.

The following Address of the Provincial Synod of Galloway has been presented to His Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Queensberry: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provincial Synod of Galloway.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most loyal, faithful, and dutiful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Galloway, beg Leave humbly to congratulate your Sacred Majesty on the happy Return of Peace to these Nations.

While, warmed with a just Sense of the Divine Goodness, we adore the Almighty Hand, which hath turned this bloody and expensive War into so Happy and Glorious a Peace; how ungrateful should we be, did we not acknowledge your Majesty as the Great Instrument, under God, of procuring to us, and other Nations of Europe, this invaluable Blessing.

We
