From Tuesday May 17, to Saturday May 21, 1763.

St. James's, May 18.

THIS Day a most numerous Body of the Merchants and Traders of the City of London waited on His Majesty; and being introduced to His Majesty by the Earl Gower, Lord Chamberlain of the Household, Edmund Boehm, Esq; made their Compliments in the following Address.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Merchants and Traders of the City of London.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Merchants and Traders of the City of London, inviolably attached by every Tie of Duty and Gratitude to your Majesty's Person and Government, beg Leave to return your Majesty our humble Thanks for the constant and effectual Support and Protection we enjoyed during the late War; and at the same Time, most sincerely to congratulate your Majesty on the Success of your truly paternal and humane Endeavours to restore to your People, and to Europe in general, the Blessings of Peace.

Through the Care and Attention of Government, the National Commerce, amidst the Tumults and Dangers of the most extended War this Country was ever engaged in, has been carried on with a Degree of Security and Success beyond Example: This, however, did not lead us to forget the adverse Accidents to which the Nature of War continually exposed us, nor to cease wishing for that Stability and Permanency, which Peace alone could give.

We have now the Satisfaction to see a War, founded in Justice and Necessity, prosecuted with Vigour and Glory, at length concluded, on Terms of real and solid Advantage, by a Treaty of Peace, every where marked with that Moderation and Equity which afford the fairest Prospect of its Continuance.

With Hearts, therefore, full of the highest Sense of your Majesty's Attention to the general Welfare of your Subjects, as well as to their Commercial Interests, and animated with equal Zeal for your Person, and Abhorrence of all Disrespect to your Dignity, we assure your Majesty, that nothing in our Power shall ever be wanting, that may, in any Degree, contribute to render your Majesty's Reign easy and happy over a loyal and grateful People.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return this most gracious Answer.

I Receive, with very particular Satisfaction, from so numerous and deserving a Body of My Subjects, these dutiful Assurances of their Zeal for My Person, and Government: These Cordial Expressions of their Abhorrence of all Disrespect to My Crown, and Dignity.

The Welfare of My People, and the Security of the flourishing and extensive Commerce of My Kingdoms, have ever been, and ever will be, the Invariable Objects of My Care, and Attention: These invaluable

Blessings, I trust, will be rendered stable and permanent by the Peace which I have concluded; whereby vast Countries are added to the British Empire, the Improvement of which must produce Solid, and Lasting Advantages to all My Subjects.

The Merchants, and Traders, of the City of London, may firmly rely on My Constant Protection, and Favour; and on My Steady Resolution ever to support them, in the full and free Enjoyment of their Rights, Liberties, and Privileges.

They were all most graciously received; and had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 20th of May, 1763,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS Day the Right Honourable Francis Lord Le Despenser, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Buckingham, took the Oaths appointed to be taken, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

By the KING,

A P R O C L A M A T I O N.

For Pardoning and Discharging Soldiers now in Custody for Desertion.

G E O R G E R.

WHereas divers Soldiers, duly enlisted, or in Pay as Soldiers, in certain Regiments and Military Corps, which have been since disbanded or disembodied, and in other Regiments or Corps now subsisting, have deserted Our Service, and thereby incurred the Penalties respectively inflicted for such Offence, by several Acts of Parliament passed for punishing Mutiny and Desertion: And whereas many of the said Deserters have been apprehended at various Times, and committed for safe Custody to the several Goals or Prisons belonging to the Counties, Towns, or Places, where such Deserters have been found or apprehended, to the End that they might be proceeded against according to Law; the Names of which Deserters have been, from Time to

The following Address of the Mayor, Justice, Aldermen, Capital and Inferior Burgeses of the Borough and Town of Taunton, has been presented to His Majesty by the Earl of Egremont, Recorder of the said Borough, and the Earl of Farnham and Lawrence Sullivan, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Justice, Aldermen, Capital and Inferior Burgeses of the Borough and Town of Taunton, in Common Council assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,

MAY it please your Majesty to permit us, the Mayor, Justice, Aldermen, Capital and Inferior Burgeses of the Borough and Town of Taunton, to join with the rest of your loyal and grateful Subjects, in congratulating your Majesty on the happy Return of Peace to these your Kingdoms.

Your Majesty, ever attentive to the real Interest, and studious to promote the Welfare and Prosperity of your People, has crowned all the former Instances of your Paternal Goodness, in putting an End to the Calamities of War, by a Peace Clear, Equitable, and Honourable, and as firm as human Wisdom could dictate.

All we can offer to your Majesty, in Return for this great and inestimable Blessing, is our firm Attachment to your Sacred Person, an inviolable Fidelity to your most beneficent Government, and a cheerful and ready Obedience to the Laws. And we, with all Humility, beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall not cease to implore the Divine Providence for the long Continuance, the Glory and Happiness of your Majesty's Reign.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

As its Operations were extensive, so we have had frequent Occasion to admire the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, and the noble Efforts of Those who were intrusted with the Execution of great and well-concerted Plans; whilst, at the same Time, we revered the Divine Providence, and gave Thanks to Almighty God for that unparalleled Success, with which He was pleased to crown your Arms by Sea and Land.

We rejoice with our Fellow-Subjects in those signal Advantages that are obtained by that Just and Honourable Peace, which your Majesty hath concluded;—Advantages far superior to those of any former Treaties of Peace, that are recorded in the British History. When we consider, in particular, the State of Safety and Tranquillity in which your American Dominions are now established, we see the great End for which the War was originally undertaken, fully attained by the late Definitive Treaty, and hope, that the Light of the Gospel shall soon be diffused through the Indian Tribes, and the Kingdom of Truth, Righteousness and Peace extended to the most distant Nations.

Animated with a warm Sense of your Majesty's Paternal Care of your People, and of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Auspicious Reign, it shall be our particular Study to infill into the Minds of all over whom we have Influence, just Sentiments of Gratitude, and Loyalty to their King, of Love to the happy Constitution of Government under which they are placed, and of cordial Subjection to the Laws of their Country.

That God, who hath hitherto signally blessed your Majesty's Councils, may continue to direct and bless them; that you may long enjoy the Fruits of that Peace, which, through your Majesty's Wisdom and Goodness, is now restored to these Lands; that you may reign in the Hearts of a free and happy People; and that your Royal Offspring may fill the British Throne to the latest Ages, is the fervent Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects,
The Ministers and Elders of the Synod of Lothian and Tweedale.

The following Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Council of the City of Aberdeen, having been transmitted to the Earl of Halifax, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Council of the City of Aberdeen.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Council of the City of Aberdeen, invited by the present happy Occasion, beg Leave to pour out our Congratulations at your Majesty's Throne.

We look up with Admiration to that Nobleness of Soul, and to those Royal Virtues, which your Majesty has displayed in the Conduct of the late War, and displayed still more illustriously, if possible, in Crowning the unparalleled Successes of the War, with a Glorious Peace; a Peace, established on Terms so just and equitable, and, at the same Time, so fit for promoting the Security, extending the Commerce, Commercé, and increasing the Strength of Britain, that every Enemy must be both ashamed and afraid to interrupt her Quiet.

We rejoice in the full Assurance which we have, that under so great and so good a King, all our Liberties will ever be protected, and the truest Interest of the Nation invariably and vigorously pursued. Possessed with these Sentiments, we shall always do our utmost in our Sphere to promote the End of your Majesty's Government; and by these Sentiments, we find ourselves constrained to pray, that your Majesty's Reign may be very long, that your Royal Family may continue to flourish more and more, and that all your Subjects may at all Times, with grateful Hearts, admire and second the gracious Intentions of their Patriot King.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, Custos Rotulorum, Nobility, Gentry, and Clergy, of the County Palatine of Durham, do most humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence with our most cordial Congratulations upon the happy Conclusion of an expensive, though prosperous War, by a safe and honourable Peace; which has at once greatly strengthened and enlarged the Interests of your Kingdoms, and withal made your Majesty the glorious Instrument of the Repose and Tranquility of Europe.

The numerous and extensive Advantages, which your Arms have obtained, and your Counsels secured, to the Commerce and Wealth of your Dominions, do require our most thankful Acknowledgments; and together with them, shall command our firmest Resolutions to cultivate as we ought, the Blessings of Peace, you have so largely bestowed on us, in the most proper and effectual Manner, by a dutiful and zealous Submission to your Majesty's Person and Government; and by an earnest Endeavour to promote, in our several Stations, the true Welfare and Harmony of our Country.

May your Majesty long live to enjoy the pleasing Fruits of that general Repose you have so graciously indulged to Mankind, and to reign with solid Glory and Happiness in the Hearts of an affectionate and grateful People.

The following Address of the Lord Provost, Magistrates and Town-Council of the City of Edinburgh, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates and Town-Council of your City of Edinburgh, beg Leave to present to your Majesty our humble Address of Congratulation on the happy Conclusion of a bloody and expensive War, in which, at your Accession to the Throne, you found your Kingdoms engaged.

We admire no less the judicious Care with which your Majesty, in adjusting the Preliminary Articles of Peace, has watched over the Interests of your People, than we do the Firmness and Magnanimity with which, in the Midst of growing Difficulties, engaged with new Enemies, and loaded with the Defence of your Allies, you sustained the Burden of Military Operations, the most extensive that ever any Nation maintained, and under the Favour of Almighty God, have procured these uninterrupted Successes with which your Majesty's Arms have to the last been attended.

The Glories of Victory inflame the Ambition of Princes, and they dazzle the Imaginations of Men; but the Sighs of Distress often mix with the Shouts of Triumph; and he who feels, like the Father of a Free People, may, even amidst the Tide of Success, discern that Rock upon which Nations have split; happily for your Majesty's Kingdoms, this Danger has been perceived before its Approach, whilst no domestick Advantage was yet sacrificed to Foreign Conquest; whilst the publick Burden was borne with Chearfulness and Zeal; whilst the Cloud of National Incumbrance, which, in the Anticipation of your future Revenue, was gathering over the State, may yet be dispelled; whilst we had not experienced the fluctuating Chances of War, your Majesty has resettled the Foundations of publick Prosperity, and reaped for your People the Fruits of Victory, whilst they were yet fresh and entire.

Brought now under your Majesty's auspicious Government, to profit by the Advantages which your Arms and your Councils have gained, the distinguishing Superiority acquired to our Commercial Establishments in Asia; the new Sources of Commerce, which are opened to us by the Acquisition of an important Settlement on the Coast of Africa; the Additions which are made to our Possessions in the American Islands; the Advantages which are stipulated for your Majesty's People, in a Branch of Trade, which has been long a Subject of Dispute, and fruitless Negotiation with a neighbouring Kingdom; the Ascendant, which you have procured in the Neighbourhood of Seas, that offer tempting Rewards to the industrious Mariner, and by encouraging Navigation, promise to enlarge the Foundations of our Naval Strength; the Enlargement of Empire, which your Majesty has gained beyond the Frontier of your ancient Colonies, by which they are secured from Encroachment and Molestation, by which your Subjects are suffered to possess a mighty Range of Territory, furnished with Harbours, Navigable Rivers, and every Conveniency for Settlement or Commerce, stretching through all the favourable Climates of the Globe, fitted to yield all the Variety of Production, which are useful to human Life, and every Way prepared to become the Nursery of Men, who diffusing over a great Continent the Spirit and Genius of their Mother-Country, and secure under her Protection, bring ample Returns of Strength, in the Number of her growing People, and the Increase of her Commerce, without any Hazard of a Disappointment to our Hopes, from the Delays, Neglects or Difficulties that might occur, if any Thing was left to the subsequent Negotiation of Commissaries, it must be our own Fault, if the Establishment of a Peace, the most advantageous that ever was obtained by a British Monarch, is not followed by many Years of Felicity, in the successful Pursuit of every National Object, in the Enjoyment of a happy Constitution, which your Majesty is so well qualified, and so happily disposed to maintain and to strengthen.

It is our ardent and our devout Prayer to Almighty God, that He may be pleased long to preserve your Majesty; that you may continue to improve the Advantages of that Peace, which your Wisdom has obtained; tained; that you may be to an affectionate People, the shining Pattern of every Virtue, and teach by your Example on the Throne, with what sacred Regard the Duties of every Station should be performed by those, who are entrusted with any Part of the Government of a great and free Nation.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Huntingdon, has been presented to His Majesty by the Earl of Sandwich their Recorder, and Edward Montagu and Robert Jones, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgesses of your Majesty's ancient Borough of Huntingdon.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgesses of your ancient Borough of Huntingdon, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person with our warmest Congratulations upon the Blessings of Peace being restored to us, after so bloody and expensive, though just and necessary, War.

We acknowledge, with the most affectionate Gratitude, your Majesty's Paternal Tenderness in giving Rest to your People, who had almost exhausted their Strength, (but which they will never fail to exert) in vindicating the Honour and Dignity of your Crown; asserting the Rights of your Kingdoms, maintaining the Independency of your Allies, and guarding the Liberties of Europe.

These great and generous Purposes are now most happily effected by the Conclusion of a Peace, in which the Wisdom, Firmness and Magnanimity of your Majesty's Councils will ever be gloriously recorded.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that nothing shall be wanting, on our Part, to express our Sense of the great Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's just and mild Administration; and we cannot more effectually declare our present Attachment to our Country and Constitution, than by an unshaken Fidelity and Affection to your Majesty's Person and Government, a steady Obedience to the Laws; and, by discouraging every Principle and Practice that may in any Manner tend to disunite us, or in the least diminish our Love and Gratitude to a Prince, who is truly the Father of his Country.

Given under our Common Seal of the said Borough, the Tenth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and sixty-three.

The following Address of the Bailiff and Burgesses of the Borough of Stockbridge, has been presented to His Majesty by George Prescott and Nicholas Linwood, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE the Bailiff and Burgesses of the ancient Borough of Stockbridge, approach your Sacred Majesty with our sincere Congratulations on the Conclusion of a General Peace: An Event we have, on former Occasions, expressed our hearty Wishes for; although by our Situation we do not immediately reap all those Benefits, which the Blessing of Peace procures to Manufacturing and Trading Towns; yet we have a tender Feeling for our Fellow-Subjects; we rejoice in the End put to the Ravages of War Abroad, and in the just Expectation of Harmony and Concord at Home: We doubt not that the same Wisdom, which in your Majesty's Councils brought this great Work to Perfection, will continue to preside over them, and by improving every Commercial and National Advantage in our new Acquisitions, we may in due Time hope for some Relief from those heavy Burthens, which the Exigency of State rendered necessary, relying entirely on your Majesty's Paternal Goodness, which we have already experienced in so many Instances, we ardently wish, that your Reign may continue Glorious, Peaceable, and Long, ever accompanied with the Love and Veneration of a loyal and free People; and that your Descendants may enjoy the same Felicity to latest Posterity.

The following Address of the Nobility, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Elgin and Forres, has been presented to His Majesty by James Grant, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Nobility, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Elgin and Forres.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Elgin and Forres, humbly beg Leave to approach your Sacred Person, and with Hearts full of Duty, Affection, and Gratitude, to congratulate you on the happy Conclusion of the late Peace, which reflects the greatest Honour on the Wisdom, Justice and Steadiness of your Majesty's Councils, and which, we hope and trust, will be as lasting as it is honourable, and productive of the most valuable Blessings, not only to your Majesty's Subjects, but to all Europe.

It is with peculiar Pleasure that we review the Glories of the late just and necessary War, in which, by the Divine Blessing on your Majesty's Arms, you have raised the Credit and Reputation of this Nation, and shewn your Subjects, that when engaged, in a just Cause, and conducted by wise and united Councils, they have nothing to fear from the united Compacts of those Kingdoms, that were formerly their Dread and Terror. During that Period, a more impartial and perfect Knowledge has been acquired of your Majesty's most valuable and wide-extended Colonies, the Fame, Splendor, and Generosity of the British Empire has been carried to barbarous Nations formerly unexplored and unknown, large Acquisitions of Territory have been made to your Majesty's Dominions, and great Additions to Naval Strength, Wealth and Commerce of your Subjects.

On all these Accounts we beg Leave, Great Sir, to express our highest Admiration and most unfeigned Joy, but still more for your putting an End to the Ravages and Depopulations, which must attend every War, by the late Treaty of Peace; by which your Majesty has accomplished the great End for which the War was undertaken, and secured to your Subjects the quiet Possession of their Rights and Liberties.

It

It shall be our constant Care and Study to cultivate in ourselves, and where ever our Influence extends, the most inviolable Duty, Loyalty and Affection, so justly due to the best of Kings, and to promote that Spirit of Concord, true Religion, and Obedience to the Laws, so warmly recommended from the Throne, and so necessary to the Happiness of a Free, a Powerful, and Flourishing Kingdom.

And we put up our most sincere and ardent Prayers to the Great Governor of the World, that your Majesty's Reign over these Realms may be prolonged in great Quiet and Prosperity; and that the future Part of it may be as celebrated for the further Promoting those peaceful Arts and Instructions, to which, in Part, we owe our late Successes, as it has hitherto been renowned for those of War.

The following Address of the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Inverness, has been presented to His Majesty by James Grant, Esq; being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Inverness, met at Inverness the 30th Day of April, 1763.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Inverness, beg Leave to approach the Throne, with our hearty Congratulations on the happy Event of concluding a long, bloody, and expensive War, by a glorious and advantageous Peace: A Peace, by which the British Empire is extended greatly, its Frontiers clearly determined, and all the Sparks, that might kindle a new War, are, as far as human Prudence or Foresight can provide, happily extinguished.

Permit us, Sire, to express the high Veneration we entertain for that true Magnanimity which determined your Majesty to bestow the Blessings of Peace on your own Kingdoms, and pave the Way for communicating the same to the rest of Europe; at a Time, when the Reputation of your Arms was at the highest; when new Enemies only produced additional Triumphs, and when the Zeal of your faithful Subjects exerted itself in proportioning the necessary Supplies to the growing Exigencies of the State: That noble Humanity and Generosity which made you prefer the relieving your Subjects, to the distressing your already humbled Enemies, and the solid Glory of a good and gracious King, to the vain Applause of a great Conqueror.

Penetrated with the highest Sentiments of Loyalty, Duty and Gratitude, it shall be our constant Care to diffuse them as far as our Influence and Example can reach, that your Majesty's most gracious Purpose, of improving the Advantages of Peace, may meet with no Interruption from any Jarrs among your Subjects.

That Almighty God may long preserve your Majesty as an inestimable Blessing to your Kingdoms, that you may continue to reign gloriously over a free, happy, and united People, and that there may never be wanting a Prince descended from your Majesty to inherit the Crown of these Realms, and the many Royal Virtues by which you add a Lustre to it, is our earnest and joint Prayer.

Signed in the Name and by the Appointment of the Meeting by Æneas Mackintosh, of Mackintosh, their Præses.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bayliffs, and Commonalty of the City of Coventry.

Most gracious Sovereign,
WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bayliffs, and Commonalty of the City of Coventry, beg Leave humbly to approach your Royal Person with our sincere Congratulations on the Re-establishment of Peace on safe and honourable Conditions.

The great and signal Success which has attended your Majesty's Arms, in the Prosecution of an expensive, though just and necessary War, left your faithful Subjects nothing to wish for or desire, but that it might be the happy Means of restoring the publick Tranquillity, and settling it upon a sure and solid Foundation.

We therefore approach the Throne with the warmest Sentiments of Duty and Gratitude to your Majesty, for the happy Accomplishment of this great and important Event, by which a Period is put to the various Calamities of War, and which we trust will be attended with the most beneficial Consequences to your People.

Permit us, Sir, to take the Opportunity the present happy Occasion affords us, to express our dutiful Regard to your Majesty, and the warm and grateful Sense we have of the Blessings we enjoy under your auspicious Reign. Desirous to render your People happy, you have made their Good, the End and Purpose of all your Actions. This has, in a peculiar Manner, endeared you to all your Subjects, and inspired them with every Sentiment of Duty and Respect to your Majesty, that can influence the Minds, or possess the Hearts, of a happy, grateful, and affectionate People.

May your Majesty long live to enjoy and promote the Blessings of Peace, and to continue us a flourishing and a happy People under your auspicious Government; and may your Royal Descendants, inherit with your Majesty's Virtues, the Throne of these Kingdoms, to latest Generations.

* Experience having taught, that this Medicine, which is a safe and certain Cure for the above Disorders, is better prepared for Sea Service (and more convenient) in Bottles, than made up as usual in Marble Paper, the Commissioners, who have the Direction of the Medicines employed in the Navy, have ordered this Powder to be so preserved for the Use of all His Majesty's Ships of War; and a large Quantity is also made up in the same Manner for Merchants and Captains of Trading Ships, as well as for those who are any way concerned in Voyages, or the Sea Service.

This Medicine is sold only by J. Newbery, at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church Yard, and by those who are empowered by him to sell it in the several Towns of Great Britain, Ireland; and the Colonies.
