To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return this most gracious Answer.

I Receive, with very particular Satisfaction, from so numerous and deserving a Body of My Subjects, these dutiful Assurances of their Zeal for My Person, and Government: These Cordial Expressions of their Abhorrence of all Disrespect to My Crown, and Dignity.

The Welfare of My People, and the Security of the flourishing and extensive Commerce of My Kingdoms, have ever been, and ever will be, the Invariable Objects of My Care, and Attention: These invaluable

Blessings, I trust, will be rendered stable and permanent by the Peace which I have concluded; whereby vast Countries are added to the British Empire, the Improvement of which must produce Solid, and Lasting Advantages to all My Subjects.

The Merchants, and Traders, of the City of London, may firmly rely on My Constant Protection, and Favour; and on My Steady Resolution ever to support them, in the full and free Enjoyment of their Rights, Liberties, and Privileges.

They were all most graciously received; and had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 20th of May, 1763,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS Day the Right Honourable Francis Lord Le Despenser, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Buckingham, took the Oaths appointed to be taken, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

By the KING,

A P R O C L A M A T I O N.

For Pardoning and Discharging Soldiers now in Custody for Desertion.

G E O R G E R.

WHereas divers Soldiers, duly enlisted, or in Pay as Soldiers, in certain Regiments and Military Corps, which have been since disbanded or disembodied, and in other Regiments or Corps now subsisting, have deserted Our Service, and thereby incurred the Penalties respectively inflicted for such Offence, by several Acts of Parliament passed for punishing Mutiny and Desertion: And whereas many of the said Deserters have been apprehended at various Times, and committed for safe Custody to the several Goals or Prisons belonging to the Counties, Towns, or Places, where such Deserters have been found or apprehended, to the End that they might be proceeded against according to Law; the Names of which Deserters have been, from Time to

Time, transmitted to our Secretary at War for the Time being, pursuant to the Provisions of such Acts of Parliament made for Punishing Mutiny and Desertion as aforesaid: And whereas We are graciously disposed to extend Our Royal Mercy to the said Offenders, who may be hereafter useful to their Country in following their honest and lawful Occupations, in Case they are enabled thereto, by receiving Our free Pardon; and being discharged out of Custody in Consequence thereof; We have therefore thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy-Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, and We do hereby for Us, Our Heirs and Successors, pardon and remit all and every such Offence and Offences of Desertion, from any such Regiments or Military Corps, committed by any Person or Persons now in Custody as aforesaid: And We do also release and discharge the said Offenders from all Prosecutions, Imprisonments, and Penalties, commenced or incurred, for, or by reason of any such Offence or Offences: And We do hereby, by and with the Advice of Our said Privy-Council, declare Our farther Pleasure, and do will and require all and every Goaler and Goalers, Keeper and Keepers of any Goal, House of Correction, or Prison, where any such Deserter or Deserters is or are in Custody, to discharge him or them forthwith, without Fee or Reward, upon receiving a Certificate or Certificates under the Hand of Our Secretary at War for the Time being, that the Name or Names of such Deserter or Deserters, do appear to him to have been transmitted to the War Office, pursuant to the Provisions of any of the said Acts. And We hereby further Charge and Command
